Errors Foil Carroll in 7th—

Audubon Nips Tigers

AUDUBON — Four straight singles by pitcher Tom Subbert were not enough to give Carroll High the edge over the hard-hitting Audubon Wheelers Tuesday night. The Wheelers managed to tally a run in the seventh inning to break a six inning tie, 7-6.

Subbert was the stand-out in the hitting area as the lanky Carroll fastballer drilled four straight singles in the game.

Denny Wilkins led off for the Tigers in the top of the first with a hard single to left. Mickey Everett and Gary Sundermann combined to sacrifice Wilkins to third. Subbert stepped in and knocked Wilkins in on the first of his singles. Bruce Hall went down on strikes to retire the side.

Francis Madsen reached first on error by the right fielder to start off things for Audubon in the bottom of the first. A passed ball gave Madsen passage to second. Jim Crouse drew a pass and Brudell Hansen reached first on an error by the second baseman which also allowed Madsen to score. Crouse stole third and then rode home on Frank Nelsen's sacrifice fly to center. Eddie Hansen grounded to short to complete the inning.

Jim Schrad got on base for the Tigers in the second frame on a fielder's choice. Schrad stole second and Scott Richardson reached first on an error by the second baseman. Wilkins brought in Schrad on a single to left. Everett grounded to first to retire the side.

McLaughlin led off for the Wheelers in the bottom half of the second with a base on balls. Mike Garber popped to third and Denny Crouse sacrificed McLaughlin to second. Madsen grounded to the pitcher to finish the inning.

Carroll picked up two runs on three hits in the third inning. Sundermann cracked a single to left to start things off for the Bengals. Sundermann took second on a passed ball and then rode in on Subbert's single to left. Hall drew a walk, Bruns sacrificed, and Denny Vetter brought in Subbert on a blooper over third base line.

The Wheelers added another run to their total in the bottom of the third. Jim Crouse led off with a single to left. Hansen went down on strikes followed by Nelsen who brought Crouse in on a single. Eddie Hansen took three strikes to end the threat.

Carroll added another run to their total in the fourth, but Audubon struck back with three runs in the bottom half of that inning. Three successive walks got Subbert into trouble and Coach Bill Tryon called upon Denny Wilkins to take over the pitching chores. Subbert, manning the third base position, nailed two runners at home but an error on the catcher allowed a third runner to come in. Madsen and Haskins reached first on consecutive fielder's choices. Crouse belted a long single to center bringing in two runs.

Back to back singles by Sundermann and Subbert brought in Everett in the sixth while Audubon went scoreless.

The Tigers went scoreless in the top of the seventh.

Eddie Hansen struck out in the beginning of the bottom half of the inning. Then fate turned against the Tigers. Dual errors on the Carroll infield allowed McLaughlin to reach second. Mike Garber took first after being hit by a pitch and Denny Crouse loaded the bases with a walk. A short tap by Madsen and a throw to home plate failed to stop the speeding McLaughlin and the game was ended with a final score of 7-6.

Vision Sidelines Stars; Pirates Hike Streak, 9-1

By The Associated Press

Harry Walker's biggest problem this month has been keeping four of the National League's top five hitters busy in a three-man outfield.

The problem disappeared Tuesday night. Two of them couldn't see.

But the two who could—Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell—combined for five hits as the Pittsburgh Pirates blasted St. Louis 9-1 with an eight-run eighth-inning explosion and extended their June winning streak to six games.

Manny Mota and Matty Alou, half of the Pirates' outstanding outfield quartet, complained before the game that their vision was impaired by eyedrops given them during an afternoon examination by a doctor.

The Cardinals' Bob Gibson threw invisible baseballs for seven innings, striking out 12, before the Pirates caught him in their sights. Clemente triggered the eighth-inning rally with a single, capped it with a three-run homer and finished with three hits in five trips.

Stargell, whose string of consecutive hits was snapped at nine by Gibson in the first inning, picked up two hits afterward. Mota got into the game as a pinch runner and finished in center field but did not bat.

Mota leads the league in batting with a .345 average while Alou and Stargell are tied for third at .329 and Clemente shares the No. 5 spot with Houston's Joe Morgan at .328. Dave Nicholson of the Astros is second with a .336 mark.

Jim Bunning won his eighth straight as Philadelphia whipped Cincinnati 5-1; Nicholson, John Bateman and Sonny Jackson led Houston past San Francisco 10-9; Los Angeles topped Chicago 8-6 on 10th inning homers by Al Ferrara and Jim Lefebvre, and Atlanta bombed New York 11-6 in other National League action.

Bunning, now 8-1, struck out 14 Cincinnati batters and allowed only three hits as the Phillies breezed to their eighth triumph in the last nine games.

Bill White cracked a two-run inside-the-park homer in the first inning and Cookie Rojas hit a bases-empty shot in the seventh for the winners.

Three hits apiece by Jackson, Nicholson and Bateman helped Houston outlast the Giants, who have dropped four of their last five. Dave Giusti won his seventh in 10 decisions but needed relief help when the Giants scored three runs in the eighth, two on a homer by Tom Haller.

Lefebvre hit his 12th homer, breaking a 6-6 tie in the 10th inning and Ferrara followed with his second of the game on a fly ball that dropped in left field when shortstop Don Kessinger and left fielder Byron Browne collided.

John Roseboro had pulled the Dodgers even at 6-6 with a lead-off homer in the eighth.

Joe Torre's three-run blast capped a seven-run uprising in the fifth that erased a 5-0 New York lead. The Braves wrapped up their fourth straight victory with three more runs in the sixth.

Robinson Regains Form; Birds Climb

By The Associated Press

This is Frank Robinson's first year in the American League, and already he's starting a second season.

The Baltimore slugger began the second week of his new season Tuesday night, driving in the winning run with his fourth hit of the game as the Orioles edged Washington 6-5 in 12 innings.

Robinson, acquired from Cincinnati in baseball's biggest winter deal, began his first year in the AL explosively, getting nearly as many hits as outs and rocketing to a .474 average by April 29. But one month and a steady drop later, Robinson was hitting .308.

A shoulder injury and a pulled muscle in his right leg were believed at least partly responsible for the slide, so Robinson was given a rest.

Now that he's returned to the line-up, it's as if he's starting the season all over.

The 30-year-old right fielder sat out the second game of a doubleheader May 30, then batted only twice the next day and pinch hit the day after that. He rested for another whole game before getting back into fulltime action, and now his record resembles that of the first few weeks.

In his last 25 times at bat, Robinson has lashed 15 hits, including four homers, scored 10 runs and driven in eight. That has been enough to shoot his average up to .351, an increase of 43 points that has thrust him to the top of the league in hitting.

In that same period, the second-place Orioles have won seven of nine games and moved from three games behind league-leading Cleveland to within five percentage points of the top.

With Robinson hitting explosively again, the Indians might be happy to have the season end right now.
