

PICTURE PARADE: Carroll High Turns to Baseball; 1st Time Since 1923

Bill Lamberty and Merle Mapes. Knight and Lamberty handled pitching and catching chores, respectively, while Mapes is a third baseman.

YOUNGSTERS HOLD HOPE . . . Carroll high school's summer baseball isn't setting any fancy records this year, but the club is made up of a host of under classmen. Here Coach Ival Outhouse gives a little special instruction to Floyd Wilkens, left, an eighth grader, and Bob Short, a freshman.
