

Kuemper Wallops Tigers, 13-5

A pair of booming blows by Joe Badding and a first inning triple by Dave Schmitz highlighted a Kuemper triumph over Carroll High, 13-3, in a five inning baseball game here Wednesday night.

The victory kept the Knights in close pursuit of league leading Jefferson in conference play.

Rick Keat, a surprise starter for Kuemper on the mound, hurled a steady five-hitter and kept the Tigers at bay with the exception of a single run outburst in the first and a two-run rally in the fourth.

Kuemper was forced to come from behind after the Tigers posted a 1-0 advantage in the top of the first inning.

Scott Richardson was the thorn in Kuemper's side in the initial frame. He opened the game with a sharp single to left and went to second when Phil Den Adel's planned sacrifice bunt was out of reach of the Kuemper third baseman for a hit. A passed ball enabled the base runners to advance to second and third.

With Mickey Everett and Denny Wilkins down on strikes, Richardson broke for the plate while Keat was pitching to Ben Rogers and slid in safely for the first run in the game.

The Knights struck back quickly against Rogers in the bottom of the first. Lead-off batter Jim Middendorf was hit by a pitch, and Dave Schmitz picked a first pitch to right-center for a triple.

Denny Walden drilled another shot to right-center and Schmitz was in with the run that gave the Knights a lead they never relinquished.

Carroll went down in order in the second while Kuemper came up with a pair of runs off one hit in the second frame.

Badding and Lynn Wiese drew successive passes with one down in the second, and Middendorf singled to right to score Badding. Schmitz popped to third for the second out, and it appeared Rogers was out of further trouble when Denny Wilkins gloved Walden's hard grounder to short. But the ball popped out of the glove and after retrieving it he elected to go to third in an attempt to get Wiese. That throw sailed past third and Wiese scampered home as Middendorf and Walden took third and second respectively.

Louie Billmeier then ended the frame by grounding out.

Rogers walked Keat to start the bottom of the third and was lifted in favor of Dave Henning. Keat went to second on Mike Neary's sacrifice and Denny Henkenius drew a pass.

The two base runners moved up on a wild pitch to set the stage for Badding who responded by blasting the ball over the center-fielders head for a triple. Another wild pitch let Badding in with Kuemper's seventh run.

The Tigers rocked Keat with three consecutive hits in the fourth.

Everett started the rally with a single to left. Wilkins picked a pitch to deep center for a triple, and Rogers singled to left to plate Wilkins with Carroll's final run.

Rogers stole second but was stranded there by a pair of whiffs and a tap to the mound.

The Carroll rally spurred the Knights into action again and they responded with four more runs in the fourth. Walden started it with a one-out single to left. Billmeier was hit by a pitch and Keat drew a walk, and Walden scored on a wild pitch.

After Neary fanned, Henkenius and Badding drew walks to force in another run.

Larry Pirotte batted for Wiese in the fourth and lofted a towering fly back of short. The infielder camped under the ball and then dropped it for an error as two more runs scored and Badding stopped at third. Pirotte stole second and Middendorf was hit by a pitch for the second time in the game. That loaded up the bases, but Schmitz was out on a line drive to second to retire the side.

The Knights salted it away via the 10-run margin rule in the bottom of the fifth. Billmeier walked with one away and was safe on an error at second as Keat lived on a fielder's choice. Neary singled past first to drive in Kuemper's 12th run.

Roger Fuller was on the hill for the Tigers in the fifth, having come on in relief of Henning, and he got Henkenius on strikes for the second out with the Knights still a run shy of the 10-run margin.

Badding brought the proceedings to an abrupt halt when he whaled a pitch to deep center, but was credited with only a single since the game automatically ended when Keat scored from third base.

Next action for the Knights will be at Audubon on Friday in a twin bill while the Tigers

Safe at Third . . . Dave Schmitz, Kuemper, is shown sliding safely into third in first inning action as the Knights defeated the Carroll Tigers, 13-3, here Wednesday. Schmitz, second man up in bottom of first inning, drove a hit to deep right-center to plate Jim Middendorf with the first Kuemper run. Schmitz scored on a hit by Denny Walden as the Lancers took a 2-1 first inning lead.

Glidden Tankers Overwhelm Perry

GLIDDEN — Five new pool records were chalked up as the defending Iowa West Swimming Conference champion team from Glidden overwhelmed Perry, 283-125, in a dual meet here Wednesday.

The Wildcat swimmers accounted for two individual marks and three relays marks while the visitors garnered one new record.

It was the second consecutive top-sided win for the defending champions this week. On Monday they swept past Denison, 232½ to 153½.

Dwight Haggard set a back stroke record of :17.5 as he bested the old mark of :18.1 by Randy Peters in 1963 in the 13-14 group.

The other individual record went to Perry's Janie Torbert with a :19.3 clocking in the 13-14 butterfly to erase the 19.5 mark set by Patty Kerwood in 1966.

Glidden accounted for two medley relay marks and one free style relay. The girls' medley foursome of Marg Rich, Barb Onken, Bobby Jo Gross and Patty Kerwood was timed in 1:25.5 in the 13-14 group to erase the old mark of 1:26.6 set in 1966.

In the 15 and over group, Nancy Leonard, Janet Ferguson, Nancy Shaner and Cindy Knute set a 1:20.6 mark to wipe out the 1:26.1 set in 1965.

The boys' 13-14 free style team of Dwight Haggard, Tim Chipman, Mark Heglin and Tom Moorhouse set a :59.9 record to erase a 1:02.8 mark set by Carroll in 1964.

Nancy Shaner and Kathy Miller paced the Glidden swimmers with triple individual triumphs and legs on winning relay events. Mark Hunt had a double individual triumph and a share in two relays wins.

Jeff Hikes Lead With Double Win

The Jefferson Rams moved one and one-half games in front of defending champion Kuemper in the West Central baseball league with a double-header sweep over Audubon on Wednesday.

The Rams posted 14-3 and 2-0 victories over the Wheelers to hike their league record to 11-1 compared to Kuemper's 8-1 loop mark.

With only two league games left on the schedule, Jefferson clinched a final standings berth of no worse than second. Perry holds the current third place spot with a loop mark of 7-4 and the lowest the Rams could finish would be 11-3.

The showdown game for the league championship looms next Wednesday at Jefferson when the Rams host Kuemper. The final league test for Jefferson will be on July 7 at Breda. Kuemper needs a pair of wins over Audubon at Audubon on Friday to narrow Jefferson's lead to a one-half game bulge and set the stage for the showdown.

Coach Lou Galetich purposely rested his Kuemper pitching staff in the Wednesday night win over Carroll when he sent short-stop Rick Keat to the mound and Keat went all the way on a five-hitter. Regular starters Louie Billmeier and Jim Middendorf are primed for action against Audubon and reliever Denny Bellinghousen will be standing by.

The Knights will have two non-loop encounters next week. The Fonda Junior Legion team will be in Carroll

Mays Left Off All-Star First Team

By The Associated Press

Anybody for a recount?

Willie Mays left a couple hundred embarrassed All-Star electors in his wake Wednesday when, a few hours after the announcement that he had been left out of the National League's starting line-up for the first time since 1954, he hit two homers and two singles in San Francisco's 9-1 pounding of St. Louis.

The peerless Giant slugger finished fourth in the voting for outfielders, receiving 39 fewer votes than Lou Brock of St. Louis. Willie is virtually certain to be named to the team by Manager Walt Alton of the Dodgers, but for the first time since 1954 he won't be a starter.

Willie confesses that "I'm not having what anyone would call a fantastic year," — anyone named Willie Mays, that is; he's hitting .293 with 13 homers and 37 RBI — but you couldn't prove that by the Cards.

In other National League action, Chicago won a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 4-2 and 3-1, Los Angeles overcame Cincinnati 7-5, Houston beat Atlanta 4-2 and Philadelphia edged New York 6-5.

In the American League, Chicago nipped Baltimore 3-2, Detroit bounced Cleveland 7-4, Minnesota clipped Boston 3-2, Kansas City blanked New York 2-0 and California dropped Washington 4-2.

Both of Mays' singles came in the third inning when the Giants scored six times, giving Ray Sadecki a commanding lead against his old teammates that he had no trouble holding.

The first homer was delivered in the sixth inning and the second — No. 555 of his career — came in the eighth. Both were off reliever Al Jackson.

The amazing Cubs made it nine victories in 10 outings with their pair of triumphs over the Pirates. Ferguson Jenkins won the opener, his 10th of the season, and Ray Culp allowed just three hits in the nightcap. Adolph Phillips hit a three-run homer in the first game and ignited the go-ahead rally with a double in the second.

The Dodgers spotted the Reds five runs, then came back on homers by John Roseboro and Jim Lefebvre, a two-run double by Lou Johnson and three runs on Cincinnati errors. The last two broke a 5-5 tie as Ron Hunt and Willie Davis came in when Chico Rutz bobbled a grounder by Al Ferrara.

Jimmy Wynn came in on a wild pitch by Phil Niekro with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth, spurring the Astros to their victory, which broke an eight-game losing streak.

On July 6 and Fort Dodge High will trek here the following night.

Kuemper winds up the league season on July 10 by hosting Denison.

Dave Carlson, a sophomore, hurled a no-hitter against Audubon in the 2-0 nightcap after Al Lehman and Jack Beddall had checked the Wheelers in the 14-3 opener.

Perry defeated Lake City twice, 10-0 and 2-0, and Denison pinned a 3-1 loss on Breda in other loop action.
