

Ken Kieck Breaks Ankle—

Perry Clips CHS, 10-0

PERRY — Dan Diddy's two-hit whitewash turned back the Carroll Tigers in their initial West Central summer baseball league venture, 10-0, here Monday night.

Carroll's thin ranks were depleted by an untimely injury to Kenny Kieck who broke an ankle sliding into second base in the second inning.

The Bluejays, who have lost one game this season, now stand 3-1 in the loop standings and no games behind leading-league Kuemper.

Elsewhere around the league, Audubon managed to get the season launched with a 5-0 victory over Breda as Kirk McLaughlin hurled a five-hitter. McLaughlin fanned 10 while Mel Wernimont, making his first start for Breda, whiffed 13.

Frank Nelson went three for three at the plate for the Wheelers including a two-run homer in the second inning. Francis Madsen had a pair of safeties for Audubon and McLaughlin contributed a double to the cause. Koster led Breda with a pair of singles. The Bluejays crashed in on five hits and three errors to turn back the Bengals, 10-0 in five innings thus enforcing the ten-run rule.

Carroll picked up their only two hits of the game in the first inning as Mick Everett and Ben Rogers each tapped singles. Phil DenAdel and Denny Wilkens were thrown out at first and Roger Fuller went down on strikes to retire the side.

Perry managed to pick up two runs off one hit and two errors in the bottom half of the first frame. An error on Carroll pitcher, Denny Wilkins put Seelye on first base. Janovick wasn't so lucky as he tapped to Wilkins and was thrown out at first. Patton followed up with a single and rode in as Wilkins muffed a tap by Pennington. Diddy and Heisler flew out to center and pitcher respectively to end the first inning rally.

Carroll ran into trouble in the second frame as their center fielder, Kenny Kieck was ushered off the field with a broken ankle suffered in an attempted slide at second base. Scott Richardson and Jeff Bencke went down on strikes to finish the side.

The Bluejays came on strong in the bottom of the second as they picked up six runs on one hit. It was another discouraging inning for pitcher Wilkins as he was charged with allowing six bases on balls and three wild pitches. Whiton opened with a clean single and advanced to third on two wild pitches. Seelye, Janovick, Patton, and Pennington were walked in succession. Diddy was put out on a fielder's choice. Grout took a free ride to first, and Heisler popped to the catcher to retire the side.

Perry hurler, Dan Diddy whiffed three Carroll batters in a row to settle the Tigers in the top of the third. Ben Rogers took over on the mound for Carroll in the bottom of the third inning. Whiton popped to first to open things for the Bluejays. Seelye walked, but was caught in a run down at second and was put out. Janovick tapped to the pitcher and was thrown out at first. Patton reached first on an error and stole second. Pennington walked, but Diddy popped to third to retire the side with no hits and no runs.

Carroll couldn't connect in the top of the fourth and went down swinging three times.

Perry added two final runs to their total in the bottom of the fourth as Grout and Whiton each slammed doubles and Seelye and Kinder walked. Grout was trapped at second for the first out. Heisler followed up with a strike out and Janovick ended the rally with a pop to second.

The Tigers lost their last chance to keep the game alive in the top half of the fifth as Jones and Beck went down on strikes and DenAdel flew out to center.

Carroll will be in action again on Wednesday, June 14 when

PROBE FISH KILL

DUBUQUE (AP) — Officials were investigating Tuesday a serious fish kill in Prairie Creek on the Elmer Meloy farm near Bernard, about 12 miles southwest of here.

The said there was a possibility heavy run-off after severe rain storms over the weekend might have swept some chemical into the water from fields, killing the fish.

Nats Trip Loop Leaders in 22nd

By The Associated Press

The Washington Senators are making sure Mike Epstein gets a chance to play . . . and play . . . and play.

Epstein, in fact, might still be playing Monday night's game against Chicago today if teammate Paul Casanova, who caught Washington pitchers for 22 innings, hadn't caught up with a White Sox pitcher the second time around.

Casanova ripped a bases-loaded single in the 22nd inning, lifting the weary Senators to a 6-5 victory over the exhausted American League leaders in the longest night game ever played in the majors.

The Washington catcher, who worked all 19 innings in a 7-5 marathon loss to Baltimore just eight days ago, bounced into an inning-ending double play in the 20th before turning the bases on Chicago right-hander John Buback in the 22nd.

Epstein, who earned his first full shot in the majors when the Orioles dealt him to Washington two weeks ago, also went the distance, drawing intentional walks in both the 20th and 22nd innings as the White Sox chose to gamble against Casanova.

Left-hander Pete Richert, sent from Washington to Baltimore in the Epstein trade, breezed to his first victory for the Orioles as they buried Kansas City 10-2. Cleveland edged California 7-5 in 11 innings; Minnesota thumped Detroit 11-5 and Boston downed New York 3-1 in other AL games.

Casanova broke up the 6-hour, 39-minute struggle at Washington after going hitless in eight previous at bats against Buzhardt and five other Chicago hurlers.

Hank Allen walked with one out in the 22nd and sprinted to third on Cap Peterson's single. The White Sox then put Epstein on, filling the bases for the tireless Casanova.

Wills Hits 3-Run Shot In 7-5 Win

By The Associated Press

Maury Wills, who could author a book on the extra effort it takes to steal bases, has surprised everyone with a chapter on how to succeed in home run hitting without even trying.

He wrote it Monday night as he tried to punch a run-scoring single and wound up hitting a three-run homer, capping a five-run sixth inning that carried Pittsburgh to a 7-5 victory over St. Louis.

The homer was only his second of the season, giving him two more than the Pirates probably expected him to hit when they acquired him from Los Angeles last winter.

The shock was not as great at Houston where Jim Wynn, a home run regular, slammed his 11th with two on to climax a four-run eighth inning that gave the Astros a 5-2 victory over San Francisco.

Dick Farrell, a pleasant surprise for Philadelphia, hurled 7 1-3 inning of scoreless relief, protecting the Phillies' 7-4 decision over Atlanta.

Wills, whose hard work to turn himself into a base stealer paid off in 104 thefts in 1962, breaking Ty Cobb's record, has never been known for his slugging. In eight previous major league seasons, he has hit 10, including a whopping six in 1962. His homer Monday night put the Pirates and winner Dennis Ribant ahead 7-1 and offset later homers by Tim McCarver, Julian Javier and Bob Tolman for the Cardinals.

Willie Stargell connected earlier for Pittsburgh with one on as the Pirates ended St. Louis' five-game winning streak.

Farrell, winning his fifth game against one loss since coming to the Phillies from Houston, equaled his entire 1966 victory total by blanking the Braves on three hits and no walks while striking out eight.

He came in with two on and two out in the second inning and the Phillies trailing 4-0 and retired Hank Aaron, who hit a three-run homer in the first inning. Farrell retired 17 more hitters before Gary Geige and Aaron singled with one out in the eighth. But he got Joe Torre and Clete Boyer and then set down the side in the ninth.

Palmer is Confident Of Victory

SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (AP) — The weather was hot and muggy and a blazing sun beat down on the thousands who gathered to watch the practice rounds for the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

The sun was shining for Arnold Palmer. "I'm going to win it," Palmer said on the way from the airport to the Baltusrol Golf Club Monday.

"I'm coming into it with a positive attitude," he said, and indicated that the cloud that hung over him after last year's fantastic collapse has long since dispersed.

"I don't think about it much," the muscular millionaire said. "About the only time I think about it is when someone mentions it."

"I guess there'll be a lot of that this week, but it doesn't bother me."

The reference, of course, was to the 1966 Open at San Francisco when Arnold blew a seven-stroke lead with nine holes to play, fell into a tie and eventually lost a playoff to Billy Casper.

In fact, four of the last five National Opens have finished in playoffs—and Palmer has been beaten in three of them. He lost to Jack Nicklaus in 1962 and to Julius Boros in a three-way struggle that included Jacky Cupit in 1963.

But he appeared relaxed and confident after a practice round Monday over the 7,022-yard par 70 layout where the open will be played Thursday through Sunday.

Palmer shot a 71. "I've been off for three weeks," said golf's all-time leading money winner. "I think the rest will be good for me. I hope so."

"It may take a little work to get back the edge, going that long without any competitive golf. But I should have it by Thursday."

"It doesn't take much mental preparation to get up for this one."
