

Knights Nudge Tigers on Error In 7th, 5-4

Kuemper Limited To Two Safe Hits

A costly error on a routine infield fly with two down and two on base let Don Baldus scoot home with the winning run as Kuemper edged Carroll High, 5-4, in a West Central League baseball game here Friday night.

The seventh inning boot folled a sparkling pitching performance by Carroll's sophomore ace, Steve Brechler, who limited the Knights to two hits and fanned 10 batters as he suffered his first loss.

Jim Middendorf got the win in relief for Kuemper as the Knights survived a comedy of errors and miscues to hike their season record to 6-4 and the league standing to 5-2.

The Tigers drew first blood by getting to Kuemper starter — sore-armed Denny Bellinghausen — for one run on two hits in the second frame.

Roger Fuller opened the second by getting on base via the hit-batsman rule — a feat he achieved on two more occasions in four trips to the plate.

Fuller stole second and rode home on a single to left by Ken Kieck who made it to second on an unsuccessful attempt to get Fuller at the plate.

Tom Jons beat out an infield hit and Denny Vetter was given a free ticket on interference by the catcher. That loaded the sacks with none down. Dave Henning grounded to third and was safe on a fielder's choice as Kieck was forced at the plate. Gary Lehrkamp went stole third. Marc Baudier was hit by a pitch and stole second. With one down Brechler bunted, but Middendorf grabbed it in the air for a put-out and then hurriedly threw past third trying to double up Everett. The miscue let Everett come in with the tie run and Baudier wound up on third.

Fuller was hit by a pitch and stole second. Then with Kieck at the plate, Baudier tried to steal home and was cut down in a three-player pile-up that included catcher Joe Badding, batter Ken Kieck and the base runner.

In the bottom of the seventh, Don Baldus walked with one down and took second on a passed ball. After Daeges fanned, Middendorf drew a pass.

Dick Heithoff lofted a high fly on the infield side and to the right of second base. Everett drifted under the ball from his first base spot, and when it caromed off his glove it was all over because the speeding Baldus had reached home on the two-out situation.

The Knights will be back in action here Monday against Fort Dodge St. Edmond at 8 p.m.

Hits 6 Fairways And 8 Spectators In National Open

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — In the tradition of show business, George Haines Jr. of Far Hills, N.J., left 'em laughing.

George is a spindly, hollow-cheeked young man of 23 whose greatest golf achievement before this year was playing the No. 2 position on the University of Pennsylvania team.

No one was more astounded than George when he qualified for the National Open. He took his first golf lesson in March.

People watched him swing and decided that the U.S. Golf Association ought to be given a saliva test. Or at least investigated by some Washington, D.C., bureau.

George teed off in the first round Thursday and set a new open record for hitting spectators.

Employing one of the most gorgeous shanks ever seen in an Open, he beamed eight fans on the first six holes.

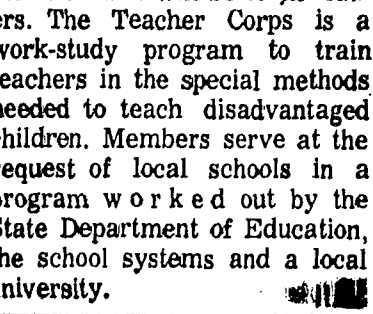

"Haines hit six fairways and eight spectators," a Rochester newspaper dutifully reported. "I didn't hit anybody on the back nine," Haines said happily. "For some reason, the crowd all left."

Seek Grads for Teachers Corps

College graduates who do not have formal training or experience in the education field are among those being sought for the Teacher Corps, Harold Van Der Weide, manager of the Carroll office of the Iowa Employment Service, said Saturday.

The local office is accepting applications for the Teacher Corps who will work in an effort to offer better educational opportunities to economically and educationally handicapped children.

Openings exist both for college graduates and for veteran teachers who will be team leaders. The Teacher Corps is a work-study program to train teachers in the special methods needed to teach disadvantaged children. Members serve at the request of local schools in a program worked out by the State Department of Education, the school systems and a local university.

Moose Pins Two-Hitter On Pirates

By The Associated Press

Bob Moose of Pittsburgh kept alive a short-running jinx—that of beating Houston. But he couldn't overcome a long-lived whammy—the one that prohibits a no-hitter in the Pirates' Forbes Field.

The rookie right-hander ran his record to 3-0 against Houston Friday night as the Pirates beat the Astros 3-0, and he made a serious bid for the first no-hitter ever in Forbes Field, which opened June 30, 1969.

But the whammy caught up with him after 7 2/3 innings when Julio Gotay blooped a single to right. Ron Davis singled in the ninth and Moose finished with a two-hitter.

The longest previous hitless string at Forbes Field was 7 1/3 innings by Al Jackson of the New York Mets on July 21, 1965.

Elsewhere in the National League Friday night, the Mets beat San Francisco 7-3, Cincinnati blanked St. Louis 7-0, Los Angeles beat Philadelphia 6-0 and then lost to the Phillies 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs nipped Atlanta 2-1.

Moose walked Rusty Staub with two out in the first and then retired 21 in a row before Gotay got his single. The victory ran his record to 2-4, with both victories coming in starting roles against Houston. His other victory over the Astros came in a brief fling with the Pirates last year.

The Pirates scored in the second inning when Fred Patek beat out a bunt for his first major-league hit, stole second and went to third on catcher John Bateman's throwing error and came home on Jerry May's single. They scored again in the sixth on Donn Clendenen's homer and got their final run in the eighth.

Rookie Jerry Koonsman got roused up in the ninth when he yielded two runs but had enough to win his 10th game against two losses in the Mets' victory over San Francisco.

New York, winning its fourth straight, scored once in the first and then wrapped it up with four runs in the third on Don Bosch's solo homer and Jerry Buchek's three-run shot. It was Bosch's first homer in the majors.

Cincinnati broke open its scoreless duel with St. Louis by scoring four runs in the seventh with the aid of five straight singles.

Lee May started the rally with one out and then Johnny Bench, Leo Cardenas, Mack Jones and Pete Rose followed with hits. Jones scored the inning's final run when he attempted to steal home and catcher Tim McCarver dropped the ball.

Billy McCool and Ted Abernathy limited the Cardinals to three hits.

Bill Singer raised his record to 6-5 by pitching a seven-hitter for his fourth straight victory in Los Angeles' opening game triumph over Philadelphia that snapped a three-game losing streak.

Yancey Ahead by 2 In 2nd Round

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — There's an all-American-boy air, a certain mild naiveté, about big, blond Bert Yancey, the second-round leader in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

"Right now, I'd be very happy to settle for 140 for the next two days," he said, bland and straight-faced as ever after posting a 68 for 135 — equaling the best opening, 36 holes ever shot in an Open — and a two-stroke lead Friday.

It seemed like a reasonable statement. All such a performance would do is tie Jack Nicklaus' all-time record of 275 in this most prestigious and demanding of all the world's golf tournaments.

It was impossible to tell from Yancey's impassive face if he was aware of what he was saying, but it's very, very possible indeed that such a performance may be necessary if he is to stand off the challenge of brash Lee Trevino and some of the game's more glamorous names, who refuse to roll over and play dead.

"He has to catch me," Yancey shrugged when Trevino came in with his two-under-par 68 and remained two strokes off the pace after 36 holes over the 6,962-yard, par 70 Oak Hill course. The implication was that so would the rest of them.

"I still think I can win," said Billy Casper, the season's leading money-winner who rebounded with a second-round 68 for 143. And Billy, fully recovered from a back ailment that plagued him on opening day, grinned broadly.

"He can be caught," said defending champion Nicklaus, who had a par 70 for 142. "He can't be caught if he keeps up this pace, but that doesn't mean he will keep up that pace."

Arnold Palmer wasn't saying much of anything. He stumbled in with a 74—he didn't have a single birdie—for 147 and was a dejected and crestfallen man.

Charles Coody, who shared second place after the first day's play, slipped to a 71 for 140 and a tie for third with Don Bies, 70, Australian Bruce Devlin, 69, and Jerry Pittman, 67. Nicklaus was bunched in a herd of 11 at 142.

Harrelson Hits Three Home Runs

By The Associated Press

Ken Harrelson turned on three times as much power as Don Wert, but he couldn't have short-circuited Cleveland more completely than Wert did the Chicago White Sox.

Wert, a little slower pulling the switch, waited until the 14th inning before blasting his seventh home run that brought the American League-Leading Detroit Tigers a 6-5 victory over the White Sox Friday night.

Harrelson held off until only the fifth inning before beginning a barrage of three consecutive homers that drove in seven runs.

Rookie Jerry Koonsman got roused up in the ninth when he yielded two runs but had enough to win his 10th game against two losses in the Mets' victory over San Francisco.

and urged the Boston Red Sox by the Indians 7-2.

The rest of the league's hitters remained mostly grounded as Minnesota trimmed Baltimore 2-1 on infield hits, infield outs and a wild pitch and errors helped California past Washington 2-0 and the New York Yankees by Oakland 5-4 in 10 innings.

Wert, not noted as a power hitter at 5-foot-9, 165 pounds and only six homers all of last season, kept the juice flowing through the red-hot Tigers by wiping out the White Sox as the first hitter in the 14th.

The victory was the fifth straight and 10th in 11 games as the Tigers expanded their league lead to 6½ games over Baltimore.

They almost burned themselves out in the 13th after taking a 5-4 lead against loser Bob Priddy, 0-3, on Bill Freehan's run-scoring hit. Luis Aparicio beat out a hit for the Sox in the 13th, stole second, took third on a sacrifice and scored on an infield out, and Chicago had the winning run on second base before Detroit retired the side.

The Tigers got into extra innings in the first place when Earl Wilson, making his first start since injuring a heel May 24, capped a four-run uprising in the fifth inning with a three-run homer.

The White Sox had taken a 4-0 lead with a brief and surprising show of power as Tom McCraw hit a three-run homer.

Harrelson, a 6-2, 190-pounder who had 12 homers in part-time duty last season, has really turned on the voltage this year by blasting 13 homers with 37 runs batted in.

He struck out and grounded out his first two times at bat against Cleveland as Boston fell behind 1-0, but then he ignited, blasting two-and three-run homers in the fifth and sixth innings off Luis Tiant, 9-5. He belted another with a man on in the eighth off Eddie Fisher in his last time at bat, making it easy for Dick Ellisworth, 5-4, who coasted with a five-hitter.

Minnesota ended a six-game losing streak, although the Orioles' Tom Phoebus, 5-6, allowed only two infield hits in his six innings. Cesar Tovar beat out one of them in the first inning, stole second, took third on a grounder and scored on a wild pitch. Tony Oliva walked in the fourth, reached third as Ted Uhlaender's line drive hit Phoebus and scored on a force play.

Skins Get Beban And Pat Fischer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Quarterback Gary Beban, the 1967 Heisman Trophy winner from UCLA, couldn't come to terms with the Los Angeles Rams but he certainly talks the language of the Washington Redskins and Kathy Hanson.

Beban has a couple of new contracts today — one with the Redskins, the other with former Miss Hanson, who he married in Alhambra, Calif., Friday.

About seven hours before the couple were married, the Redskins announced they had acquired the rights to negotiate with Beban from the Rams in a trade for their 1969 No. 1 draft choice.

Club President Edward Bennett Williams said Beban had agreed to terms—something he couldn't do with Los Angeles. He'll sign Monday.

The Redskins, who also announced the signing of St. Louis defensive back Pat Fischer, were enthused with the acquisition of Beban, even though it gives them five quarterbacks—veterans Sonny Jurgensen and Jim Ninowski and rookies Beban, Harry Theofiles and Danny Talbot.

Fischer, a 5-foot-9, 170-pound seven-year veteran, is expected to strengthen the Redskins in an area where they've had problems.

Pupils Return From Colorado

COON RAPIDS — The seventh and eighth grade pupils of Annunciation School, Coon Rapids, and their pastor, the Rev. Harold Cooper, returned Friday from a week's trip to Estes Park, Colo., where they were guests at Camp St. Malo 10 miles east of Estes Park.

Highlights of the trip were a drive on Trail Ridge Road through Rocky Mountain National Park, a trip to the Denver Zoo and Denver Museum of History, hikes up the mountain slides including Twin Sisters Peak with an elevation of 11,034 ft. and fishing for trout.

Drivers of cars assisting Fr. Cooper in taking the young people were Gary Van House, MaLinda Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meiners of Coon Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Montagne of Sioux City.

Registered Trap Shooting Tonight

A registered trap shoot will be held at the Carroll County Gun Club tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The shoot includes 50 targets at the 16-yard line, 50 handicap targets to be determined by the 16-yard results, and 25 pair of doubles.

"We will try to shoot all the 16-yard targets in daylight and thus avoid twilight shooting," Jim Buchholz, club official, said.

A hot lunch will be served in the clubhouse during the shoot. The next registered shoot here will be on July 4.
