Carroll Upsets Perry, 7-2

PERRY — Steve Brechler, Carroll's southpaw ace, hurled a superb two-hitter and the Tigers scattered eleven base hits to upset second-place Perry, 7-2, in a Mid-West League, eastern division contest here Monday.

Brechler and his teammates owned the game from start to finish, both offensively and defensively. In the offense department, the Carroll club chalked up eleven hits, including three two-baggers in one inning. Defensively, while Brechler fanned sixteen Bluejay batters, the remainder of the club limited itself to only two miscues, while the Perry club was charged with six errors.

The Tigers rushed to an early lead in the top of the third inning behind a five-hit attack. Ron Anderson opened the four-run rally in that frame with a tap to second that was bobbled and thrown late. Bruce Pettitt followed Anderson to the plate and greeted Bluejay hurler, Mike Murphy, with an arching shot to the right-center wall for a double. Brechler duplicated Pettitt's feat for the first two Carroll tallies.

However, the second run was scratched for failure on Pettitt's part, to tag third base. Doug Peterson kept things going, with a sharp tap up the center to replace Pettitt's lost score.

Roger Fuller blasted the third double of the inning to score another run, and Jim DeBower rapped a single to right to cap the scoring for the inning, with Carroll ahead by a score of 4-

Perry threatened in the bottom of the fifth after Brechler issued passes to Gary Darveau and Scott Whiton. A passed ball advanced the runners, but Brechler pulled himself out of the fire by striking out the power end of the Bluejay batting order.

The Bengals added a pair of cushion runs in the top of the sixth. Wayne Hill led off with a high arching shot into shallow center field that dropped to the ground between four sets of searching hands. Hill picked up the only official stolen base of the ball game. Anderson's blooper to shallow right field plated Hill for the fifth tally and settled Anderson on the second base. Brechler laced a grounder up the right side and beat out the throw. A moment of confusion ensued in the area of first base, following Brechler's safe arrival, at first base and Anderson took advantage of the Perry infielders' preoccupations to score the sixth run.

The Tigers cashed in on a hit, a costly error, and a passed ball to register their seventh run in the top of the final frame. Hill drew a pass to get things started and raced to second on a passed ball, Gary Lehrkamp sent a sharp single past shortstop to advance Hill into scoring position. Lehrkamp took the steal sign for second base. Whiton's pick-off throw from the plate sailed over the second baseman's outstretched glove, leaving the way open for Hill and Carroll's seventh tally.

The Bluejays spoiled Brechler's bid for a shutout.

Dill Wins With a 66 at Amana

IOWA CITY (AP) — Terry Dill of Austin, Tex., shot a six-under-par 66 over the University of Iowa's Pinkbine Course Monday to take $2,500 top money in the third annual Amana VIP Golf Tournament.

George Archer, Miller Barber, Bob Goalby, Larry Ziegler and Frank Beard finished in a tie for second with 68. Johnny Pott, Bill Collins and Billy Maxwell tied for third at 69.

In fourth at 70 was two-time tournament champ Lee Trevino, along with Marly Fleckman, Gardner Dickinson and Frank Boynton.

Dick Crawford, Gene Littler, Don Bise, Al Geiberger, Lou Graham and Dave Stockton shot 71s to tie for fifth place.

HE KNEW MAD HATTER

NEW YORK (AP) — Earl Sande once disclosed his success aboard Mad Hatter, a most contrary horse with whom he won the Suburban, the Westchester and two Metropolitans in the 1920s. "When I wanted to rate him I'd give him his head, and he'd slow down," said Sande. "When I wanted him to run I took a choking hold — and he'd take right off." Many other thoroughbreds react this way.

Ron Perranoski had 31 saves for the Minnesota Twins in 1969.

Carroll Tankers Zip Past Denison

The Carroll swim team chalked up its third win this season in as many meets with a 246½ to 150½ triumph over Denison at the municipal pool here Monday.

Coach Rob Perschau's swimmers grabbed a 35-21 lead in the medley relays, hiked the edge to 74-54 in the free style individual and increased the lead to 127½-72½, 171½-100½ and 204½-136½ going into the final free style relay.

Next action for Carroll in the Iowa West Swim Conference will be at Coon Rapids on Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Clendenon's Fly Nips Pirates, 3-2

By The Associated Press

Donn Clendenon thinks Pittsburgh is the team to beat in the National League . . . and it seems he's determined to do it all by himself.

Clendenon drove in the winning run with a pinch hit sacrifice fly Monday night as the New York Mets rallied in the ninth inning to nip the Pirates 3-2 in a first place showdown between West Division contenders.

It was the Mets' second victory in five meetings with Pittsburgh this season . . . and ex-Pirate Clendenon has provided the margin each time in the pinch.

The part-time first baseman, hero of the Mets' World Series triumph over Baltimore last October, shook up his teammates . . . and Manager Gil Hodges . . . on the eve of the season opener at Pittsburgh by picking the Pirates to take the pennant. The next day his two-run pinch single in the 11th gave New York a 5-3 victory.

His sacrifice fly in the ninth Monday night capped a two-run comeback, nailed Tom Seaver's 12th victory of the season, snapped the Pirates' winning streak at seven and gave the Mets a one-game edge in the division race.

Pinch hitters also supplied the punch as the St. Louis Cardinals struck for four runs in the eighth to down Chicago 8-6 and move past the skidding Cubs into third place in the East, 3½ games off the pace. Vic Davalillo and Jose Cardenal came off the Cards' bench to deliver two runs apiece in the eighth, sending the Cubs spinning to their 11th consecutive loss.

Houston whipped Los Angeles 1-5 in the only other NL action. Philadelphia's scheduled game at Montreal was rained out.

The Mets trailed 2-1 when rookie Ken Singleton singled to open the bottom of the ninth. He took third on Art Shamsky's single and scored the tying run when Dave Marshall bounced a single through the Pirates' drawn-in infield.

Joe Gibbon replaced Pittsburgh starter Steve Blass and hit Ken Boswell with his first pitch, filling the bases with none out. Orlando Pena came out of the bullpen and got pinch hitter Cleon Jones to tap into a force at the plate. But Clendenon, swinging for Jerry Grote sent Marshall across with a fly to deep right, breaking the knot.

Nats Whip Birds, 5-3; Twins Win

By The Associated Press

Baltimore's ailing Orioles are getting quite good at snatching defeat from the jaws of victory after three straight doses of Washington's newest medicine — late-inning lightning.

The Birds came out on the short end of a 5-3 decision Monday night—the third straight game in which Washington came from behind in its final at bat to win the game.

Saturday night it was Wayne Comer's bases-loaded eighth inning double that did the damage. Then Sunday, Rick Reichardt rifled a pinch two-run homer to turn the game around in the 12th. And on Monday night it was a three-run homer by Aurelio Rodriguez that wiped out a Baltimore lead.

Elsewhere in the light American League scheduled Monday night, Minnesota tripped Kansas City 5-4 and California battered Milwaukee 10-3.

The Orioles' American League East lead was trimmed to two games over idle New York as they lost their fifth game in the last seven starts.

Frank Howard had poled an early two-run homer for the Senators but Baltimore battled back, tying the score in the fourth on a walk, Frank Robinson's infield hit and RBI-singles by Boog Powell and Paul Blair.

Then the Birds went ahead in the seventh—a fatal mistake—on singles by Brooks Robinson and Ellie Hendricks and a sacrifice fly by Mark Belanger.

Washington bounced right back when Ed Brinkman opened the eighth with a single and Howard walked with one out. Reichardt, Sunday's hero, bounced out but Rodriguez followed with his 12th homer of the year to win the game.

The Bluejays spoiled Brechler's bid for a shutout.
