

Seaver And Palmer Starters For Star Game

By The Associated Press
Opposing All-Star Managers Gil Hodges and Earl Weaver will open with their own aces Tuesday night with New York's Tom Seaver and Baltimore's Jim Palmer the starting pitchers in the 41st annual baseball All-Star Game.

Set in Cincinnati's spanking new Riverfront Stadium—the first ball park to be entirely covered with an artificial surface—the mid-summer clash of the two leagues is expected to attract an overflow crowd of more than 51,000 with millions more watching on national television (NBC).

Seaver, 14-5 with a string of seven straight complete game victories, will have his normal four days rest Tuesday and although Hodges hasn't officially named the Met ace, the manager smiles coyly whenever the subject is brought up.

Palmer, 12-6 for Baltimore, is one of seven Orioles chosen for the AL squad. He'll be making his All-Star debut.

Seaver and Palmer join the eight starters for each league selected in nationwide balloting by the fans. Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned the All-Star vote to the fans this season following 13 years of having the major league players, managers and coaches elect the teams.

Both starting teams—which will play a minimum of three innings before Hodges and Weaver start substituting—feature lineups dominated by right-handed sluggers. Both Seaver and Palmer also are right-handers.

The only left-handed batters in the American League starting line-up are Boston's Carl Yastrzemski and Baltimore's Boog Powell. Joining Yastrzemski in the American League outfield will be Frank Robinson of Baltimore and Frank Howard of Washington.

Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew at third, Luis Aparicio of Chicago at shortstop, and Baltimore's Dave Johnson at second are the starting infielders along with Powell at first base and Detroit's Bill Freehan catching. Johnson, fifth in the voting, was named to start by Baltimore Manager Weaver in place of Minnesota's Rod Carew, outwith a knee injury.

The National League right-handed brigade is headed by Cincinnati's 1-2 slugging punch of third baseman Tony Perez and catcher Johnny Bench, who have split 56 home runs between them so far. Another right-handed slugger, Rich Allen of St. Louis, will be at first base and three more—Atlanta's Rico Carty and Hank Aaron and Willie Mays of San Francisco—will man the outfield.

Chicago's double-play combination of switch-hitting Don Kessinger and righty Glenn Beckert complete the NL starting team.

Behind Seaver, Hodges has Cincinnati's rookie ace, Wayne Simpson, Bob Gibson, ace of the St. Louis staff, Atlanta's ageless Hoyt Wilhelm, Joe Hoerner of Philadelphia, Gaylord Perry of San Francisco, Claude Osteen of Los Angeles, and Jim Merritt of Cincinnati to complete his pitching staff.

Besides Palmer, Weaver named Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally of Baltimore, Fritz Peterson and Mel Stottlemyre of New York, Oakland's Jim Hunter, Cleveland's Sam McDowell, Jim Perry of Minnesota and Clyde Wright of California to round out the American League staff.

The two teams will work out Monday at the Riverfront Stadium with the game scheduled for 8:15 EDT Tuesday night.

Willie Mays 6 Hits Short of Coveted 3,000 Plateau

By The Associated Press
Willie Mays, poised on the threshold of one of baseball's greatest achievements, needs only a hot weekend against the Houston Astros to celebrate the 3,000-hit plateau in Tuesday night's All-Star Game at Cincinnati.

Mays, who'll be the starting center fielder for the National League All Stars, cracked two hits Friday night in San Francisco's 8-5 victory over Houston. That left him with a career total of 2,994—six away from the magic 3,000 mark.

When Willie gets there, he'll be the 10th player in history to reach 3,000 hits and the second this season. Hank Aaron of Atlanta made it on May 17 and now has 3,048. He'll be in right field alongside of Mays Tuesday night which helps explain why the NL rates as 7-5 favorite.

In other National League action Friday, Montreal stood off New York 9-7, Pittsburgh whipped St. Louis 6-2, Chicago blanked Philadelphia 2-0, Los Angeles topped San Diego 9-7 and Atlanta split a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning 11-9 before losing 3-1.

Coco Laboy cracked two doubles and a single to drive in four runs and some clutch relief work by Claude Raymond helped Montreal end New York's seven-game winning streak.

The Mets had whittled a five-run Expo lead down to two and had the bases loaded with one out when Raymond came on the shut off an eighth inning rally. After Montreal added two more runs in the ninth, the Mets loaded the bases against Raymond again, but the veteran reliever pitched his way out, allowing only one run to score.

Pursuing Pittsburgh took advantage of New York's loss to chop one game off the Met NL East lead by beating St. Louis.

Al Oliver's ninth inning homer broke a tie and the Pirates rushed three more runs across —two on a triple by reliever Dave Giusti, who won his sixth straight game.

Ferguson Jenkins fired a five-hitter and struck out 11 as Chicago blanked Philadelphia.

The Cubs scored both their runs in the second inning when Jim Hickman opened with a single and scored on Ron Santo's double. Cleo James sacrificed Santo to third and Johnny Callison delivered the run with a single.

San Diego threw a scare into Los Angeles, bunting four home runs in the ninth inning. But the late explosion fell short as the Dodgers held on to beat the Padres.

Orlando Cepeda crashed a pair of two-run homers and Cleto Boyer also tagged one as Atlanta hung on to whip Cincinnati in the first game of their doubleheader. It was the third straight defeat for the Reds—their longest losing streak of the year—and the second straight loss in which they scored nine runs.

Wild Wind In British Open Final

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Wild, gusty winds roared in from the sea and turned the famous Old Course into a virtual nightmare for the 57 finalists in the British Open Golf Championship today.

Early starters chasing Lee Trevino, Tony Jacklin, Jack Nicklaus and Doug Sanders in the final 18 holes were unable to cope with the blow and scores skyrocketed.

If this is what Tex-Mex Trevino meant when he said "I hope it blows, and blows and blows," he certainly got his wish.

Trevino's long, low irons learned the winds of Texas as Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson learned before him—will be required if he is to keep his two-shot lead at eight under par 208.

Skilled players like Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Ga., illustrated the problem. Aaron needed 42 shots going out into the wind on the front nine, six over par, and since he started 13 shots off the pace Aaron was well out of it that early.

The first dozen competitors out skied into either the high 30s or 40s. Bright sun was of little benefit in the biting wind.

Steve Meinik, U.S. Amateur champion from Jacksonville, Fla., suffered 41 shots going out and having started the day only three over par suddenly found himself at eight over.

Bruce Devlin of Australia was in about the same shape with an outgoing 39.
Dale Douglass, Fort Morgan, Colo., required 40 strokes and the way it was going anyone who broke 80 did not have to apologize.

Resuscitation Program Held Here by the IPS

Mrs. Shirley Sondrol, director of nurses, Mary Greeley Hospital, Ames, and J. A. Hamilton IPS safety director, Sioux City, conducted a training program on heart-lung resuscitation Friday in the community room of Carroll County State Bank.

IPS conducted the program for its employees with policemen, firemen, ambulance personnel and funeral directors as guests. Thirty-one people were present.

Emphasis in the program was placed on closed chest massage and sensation of the rate, rhythm and forcefulness of the heart action. Purpose of the program is to expand knowledge and increase skills in cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Following a film and lecture, the group practiced the techniques demonstrated on a life-size manikin, "Resusci-Anne" which is equipped with instruments to measure breathing and heartbeat conditions.

This program is a service of the Heart Association. Any church group, club or other organization desiring a "Heart-Health" program should contact the Iowa Heart Association in Des Moines.

The Heart Association will present a similar program Aug. 10 at the Carroll City Hall for the firemen.

Helping Hands Hold Meeting

(Times Herald News Service)
WESTSIDE — Fourteen members of the Helping Hand and two guests, Viola Suverkrubbe and Rev. Ronald Swedberg, had dinner Friday noon in Westside.

Following the dinner, a brief business meeting was held at the United Presbyterian Church basement. The group's next meeting will be held August 7 at the church with Mrs. Ralph Bilsten as hostess.

Denison Forfeits Game To Carroll

A non-conference baseball game at Denison between the Carroll Tigers and the Denison Monarchs was cancelled Friday evening due to adverse baseball diamond conditions, it was announced late Friday afternoon.

A Stock Car Race Held in the Area of the Baseball Park

The previous evening, resulted in unfavorable playing conditions, school officials said. The Denison team forfeited the contest to Carroll, 7-0.

The Carroll and Ar-We-Va reserve squads are scheduled to meet this afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Carroll Stadium.

How Letty Made It Big in Man's World

By JOYCE GABRIEL

NEW YORK (NEA) — Letty Pogrebin breezed into her office, her blond hair straight and streaming. She wore a red, white and blue mini-culotte jumpsuit. She was smiling as she surveyed her office — modern, airy, sunny. Like Letty Pogrebin.

Letty Pogrebin is vice president of Bernad Gais Associates, a New York publishing firm. She is also the author of a new Doubleday book, "How to Make it in a Man's World." And she is a wife and mother of three children.

Her book tells, literally, how to make it in a man's world, not as a secretary, but as a productive, contributing woman. Letty gives advice like, "Type, but not too well, otherwise you'll never get out of the typing pool." And she suggests reading every piece of correspondence that comes into the office before you file it.

"At one of the places I worked," Letty said, "I read all the correspondence between one of the editors and (the late) Bertrand Russell. It was fascinating."

What's most interesting about Letty's book is that it's the story of her success.

At 28, Letty has worked for 11 years in publishing. She was head of book promotion at Bernad Gais by the time she was 21. And she has managed to maintain a little girl quality — an innocence and exuberance — that caused acid-tongued critic Rex Reed to say of her, "Letty looks like Dorothy on her way to Oz... she is there."

But the "little girl" has a woman's mind and uses it. Letty takes copious notes on a legal pad and she rapidly quotes figures on foreign syndication rights and schedules authors on television talk shows. She has done promotion for such books as Helen Gurley Brown's "Sex and the Single Girl" and Jacqueline Susann's "Valley of the Dolls."

"In 1957, I got my first job at $5 a week," said Letty. "I couldn't believe it. I was just a child (15) — AND I was being given responsibility."

Letty didn't start out to be a vice president and an author. She started out to be an exception.

Letty Pogrebin

"When I was growing up," she said, "I always felt I wanted to be different. But going into publishing wasn't a conscious decision at that time."

It wasn't until Letty graduated from Brandeis University at 19 that she started working on her career full time. Her rise is chronicled in "How to Make It, etc."

The main focus of her book is that a woman should enjoy her work — not settle for some easy, unchallenging job and get into a rut.

But where Women's Lib members raise their voices (and sometimes their fists) in protest, Letty uses charm and persuasion and her bubbly, enthusiastic little girl's voice.

To men who defensively maintain that women are "too emotional" in work situations or that women are "poor employment risks because they can always get married and leave to have babies," Letty tosses her head. She has been involved in her career actively for 11 years. During that time, she has married and had three children and neither she, nor her husband, nor her children nor her employer seem to have suffered.

"Women should be paid on their ability to do the work," she maintains.

And Letty firmly believes in asking for raises and looking out for one's own interests.

To women who claim their place is in the home. Letty says fine, as long as a woman has thought out her goals and has decided that home is where she belongs. The women who silently suffer are those who stay home because they feel "trapped" and do nothing to help themselves.

As to being a good wife and mother, Letty feels all women can find the time to get domestic chores done without giving up a career.

And the organizational techniques you learn at the office can be applied to the home to make the job easier.

Letty sees her work as fun. "This job is a kind of whimsical, frivolous sideline of my life," she chirped. "I don't view it as a life-or-death issue. I think a woman needs balance in her life. I have my husband and children to love."

Pinochle Card Club Meets

(Times Herald News Service)
WESTSIDE — Mrs. Art Brotherson entertained her pinochle card club Thursday afternoon in Wall Lake, with Hilda and Malinda Rickers as guest players. First prize was awarded to Hilda Rickers; second to Mrs. Alvin Clausen; and low to Malinda Rickers.

Mable Wilken of Harlan called on Mrs. Henry Wilken and Mrs. Lloyd Lamp Saturday.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Luetje and family Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGuire and Mike from Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Musfeldt, Stan and Carol of Manning.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Walters and family of Anita were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Holdsworth and family.

Five Share Top In Iowa Amateur

MARSHALLTOWN (AP) — Five Iowans shared the lead as they went into second-round play Saturday in the 72-hole Iowa Amateur Golf Tournament here.

Scoring 3 under par 67s in first-round play Friday were last year's champion Brad Schuchat and Ralph Campiano and Bill Heldmar, all of Des Moines, and Jim Davis and Mike Hall of Cedar Rapids.

The 125 competitors in Saturday's round will be cut to the low 50, who will play 36 holes Sunday for the title.

One stroke behind in Friday's play with 68s were Rick Shepard of Waterloo, John Menda of Humboldt, Dave Vermer of Pella and Mark Rhode of Marshalltown.

MANNING BEATS ROSELLE

The Manning softball team defeated Roselle, 4-2, Friday. Manning got five hits and committed one error while Roselle settled for three hits and made two miscues. Stregar was the winner and Behrens the loser.

Softball Tourney At Dedham Starts With 2 on Monday

DEDHAM — The 14th annual second district softball tournament will get underway here Monday at 7:45 p.m.

Atlantic, with Glenn Nelson on the mound, has been tabbed the tourney favorite. The veteran Nelson has pitched in two state tourneys.

Dark-horses include Dedham, Audubon and Roselle. Elmer Hoffman keys Dedham's chances and Cleto Behrens paces Roselle.

Denison, Willey, Gray and Manning each have beaten tournament favorites in regular season play.

Both the winner and runner-up will advance to sub-state play in Sioux City.

Previous winners include Irwin in 1957; Dedham in 1958-59-60-61-67-68; Gray in 1962-65; Hancock 1963; Halbur 1964; and Audubon 1966-69.

First round games on Monday pit Atlantic against Gray at 7:45 p.m., and Manning tangles with Roselle at 9 p.m. Winners of those games play on Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

In Tuesday action Dedham plays Willey at 7:45 p.m., and Denison plays Audubon at 9 p.m. with the winners meeting Thursday at 9 p.m.

The winner bracket semifinal will be played Friday at 9 p.m. The loser bracket games in the double elimination tourney are scheduled Friday at 7:45 p.m. and July 19 at 7 p.m.

The championship final will be played July 19 at 8:30 p.m.

Tournament officials include Ron Findley, chairman; Don Pletchette, manager; and Jim Sporrer, sponsor.

Oaks Drop 4 In Row To Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma raced to an 11-3 victory over the Iowa Oaks here Friday night, giving the Western Division leader a 9-8 edge in the teams' season series.

It was Oklahoma's fourth straight win over the Oaks, the Eastern division's frontrunner.

Scipio Spinks pitched a four-hitter and Don Bosch smashed two home runs, a double and a single to pace the 11-hit attack.

Oklahoma City won all eight games here and Iowa won eight of nine at Des Moines.

Cain And Timmerman Clip Birds

By The Associated Press

Denny McLain isn't the only pitcher the Detroit Tigers needed back to make a run for the pennant. Don't forget Les Cain and Tom Timmerman... if you had ever heard of them.

While they might be well known in Toledo, Ohio, neither one had made much of a splash in the big leagues. Their names were about as familiar as that of a batting practice pitcher.

But while McLain was getting all the headlines first in Florida and then when he rejoined the team this month, Cain and Timmerman have quietly and steadily pulled the Tigers to within five games of first place Baltimore in the American League East.

The pair combined Friday night to cut the lead to that figure by pitching the Tigers past the Orioles 4-2 at Detroit, and Cain also chipped in with a decisive two-run single.

In the West Division, California also sliced Minnesota's lead to five games with a 2-1 victory over the Twins at Anaheim.

In other games, Washington tripped the New York Yankees 2-1 in Frank Howard's homer, Boston hammered Cleveland 7-1, Milwaukee trimmed Oakland 2-1 and Kansas City swept a pair from the Chicago White Sox 8-6 and 2-0.

Andy Messersmith pitched California past the Twins with a six-hitter, giving up a run in the first when Billy Cowan allowed a routine fly to drop for a double. Jim Fregosi gave him his victory with a two-run homer, his 15th, in the first.
