

Knights Whip Rival Carroll, 11-1

Kuemper sent 13 batters to the plate in the fifth inning and scored seven runs and whipped city rival, Carroll, 11-1, in five innings. The game was called after five because of the 10-run rule.

Ted Nam seeing his first pitching duty of the year for the Tigers hurled courageous ball for four innings before tiring. In fact, it was the first time he had pitched in three years.

Nam only gave up three hits and four runs through inning No. 4, but the roof caved in as the Knights got four hits and six bases on ball in the fifth.

After Nam got pinch-hitter Jerry Hermesen on a pop out, winning pitcher Dean Heisterkamp singled and Phil Baldus and George Neil walked to load the bases. Neil raced home on a wild pitch to make it 5-1 and then Terry Kasperbauer drilled a single for two more runs to make it 7-1.

Kasperbauer's single knocked Nam out and Rick Beyer came into pitch. Mark Heithoff walked to once again load the bases. After Beyer got John Heithoff to fly out, pinch-hitter Mike Gule singled to center. The ball got through Pete Marz' legs and three runners scored to make it 10-1. Gule then came home on a single by Mark Hermesen to make it 11-1.

The Knights jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the top of the first as Baldus walked, stole second and came home on a single by Neil.

Kuemper made it 3-0 in the top of the third inning as Mark Heithoff walked, went to third on a ground out and scored on a pass ball. After two walks, Craig Zimmerman lined a single to score Steve Garbier.

The Tigers got their lone run in the third as Tom Nam singled and stole second and third. He scored on one of two Kuemper errors.

Kuemper, now 3-2 on the season and 1-1 in Midwest Conference play, host league favorite Perry Friday night at 8 p.m.

Carroll, now 3-3 on the year and loser of three straight, travels to Jefferson Friday night for an 8 p.m. game.

NO NETS IN COVES

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission has banned the use of commercial fishing nets in the coves of Kentucky and Barkley lakes in Western Kentucky. Sport fishing interests and tourists had urged the ban.

One-Hitter for Cardinals' Wise

By The Associated Press

The National League, the only major baseball league in the universe without designated hitters, got down to basics Wednesday night and proved why there are no additives or artificial ingredients in its product.

The St. Louis Cardinals' Rick Wise came within two outs of pitching a no-hitter.

The Atlanta Braves' Darrell Evans continued a streak which gave him 19 straight plate appearances without an official out.

The Montreal Expos pulled off a triple play.

The Atlanta Braves scored 18 runs.

The Philadelphia Phillies scored 16 runs.

Not bad for a league that thinks DH means double header, eh?

And in the National League, St. Louis shut out Cincinnati 8-0; Atlanta embarrassed Pittsburgh 18-3; Montreal edged San Diego 3-2; Philadelphia punished Los Angeles 16-3; New York beat San Francisco 3-1 and Houston defeated Chicago 6-1.

The scores in the American League were: Kansas City 2, Baltimore 0; Texas 4, Cleveland 2; Chicago 10, Detroit 2; Milwaukee 3, Minnesota 2; California 7, Boston 5 and New York 8, Oakland 3.

"By the way Luis, nice hit," Joe Torre joked to Luis Melendez, who hit a grand slam homer, but was lost in the shuffle because of Wise's no-hit bid. "You just picked the wrong night." So did the Cincinnati Reds, who were handcuffed by the Cardinal right-hander all night. Joe Morgan's sharp single up the middle with one down in the ninth was Cincinnati's offense for the evening.

Evans' 14th homer of the season highlighted a six-run fourth which erased a 3-2 Pittsburgh lead and Atlanta went on to collect a total of 17 hits and the victory.

The Phillies also built up their batting averages as every starter except Cesar Tovar hit safely. The Phils rolled sixes in each of the first two innings and coasted to an easy victory over the Dodgers.

Winning pitcher Ken Brett, who joined the offensive fireworks with a solo homer, boosted his record to 5-2.

The hockey fans in Montreal might have called it a hat trick, but in baseball parlance, it's known as a triple play. The Expos made their contribution to conserving energy when they reduced all the necessary outs in one inning on the same play during their victory over the Padres.

Felix Millan of the Mets celebrated the one-year anniversary of his last home run with another one to help Tom Seaver record his eighth victory.

Ironically, the homer Millan hit last June 13th came off Seaver when the Met second baseman was playing for the Braves.

Houston Manager Leo Durocher got a measure of revenge over the team which fired him last season as Don Wilson and Jim Ray combined to six-hit the Cubs. Cesar Cedeño belted a two-run homer.

The Milwaukee Brewers used to live in the cellar but now find themselves in the penthouse.

Long an American League doormat, the Brewers have discovered room at the top in the East Division.

"We've proven we can play with all the clubs in both divisions," said Johnny Briggs after the upstart Brewers nipped the Minnesota Twins 4-3 Wednesday night for their sixth straight victory and 11th in 12 games.

The triumph put Milwaukee into a tie for second place with the Detroit Tigers, just a half-game off the New York Yankees' East-leading pace.

In the other American League games, the Texas Rangers whipped the Cleveland Indians 4-2; the Kansas City Royals blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0; the Chicago White Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers 10-2; the California Angels downed the Boston Red Sox 7-5 and the New York Yankees belted the Oakland A's 8-3.

National League scores: Philadelphia 16, Los Angeles 3; Montreal 3, San Diego 2; New York 3, San Francisco 1; Atlanta 18, Pittsburgh 3; St. Louis 8, Cincinnati 0 and Houston 6, Chicago 1.

Jim Spencer and Toby Harrah each hit home runs and Spencer drove in another run with a single to lead Texas over Cleveland and Gaylord Perry.

Cleveland Manager Ken Aspromonte, noting Perry's unimpressive 6-7 record, said: "I'm not worried about Perry. He has been in slumps before and has worked out of them."

Lou Piniella knocked in two runs with a double in the eighth inning and Dick Drago scattered eight hits to pace Kansas City over Baltimore.

Chicago belted four home runs, including a three-run shot, to overwhelm Detroit.

Frank Robinson's base-loaded double keyed a four-run rally in the second that helped California beat Boston.

Fritz Peterson and Sparky Lyle combined on a nine-inning, lead-winning New York over Oakland.

Sports Glances

Slow pitch

Red Carpet of Carroll defeated Breda Standard, 8-7, at Breda Wednesday night. Winning pitcher was Jim Carroll.

In another slow pitch game, Glidden No. 1 edged Breda Zekers by the same score.

Congratulations

Congratulations go out to Carroll's Robin Evans who was named the Omaha World Herald's female athlete of the year last week.

Swim Notes

The Carroll swim team hosts league favorite Manning at 6 p.m. Monday in their first meet of the season.

According to manager Don Templemeyer, the pool will be open from 7 to 8 a.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for adult men who would like to get a swim in before going to work.

So far 500 kids have signed up for group lessons. The pool staff is also providing lessons for the Developmental Day Center kids. Later on there will be lessons for the special education children.

College World Series

Baseball dynasties aren't dead, just ask Arizona State. The top-rated collegiate team suffered a 4-3 loss in Omaha Wednesday night to Southern California and for the fourth straight year the Trojans carted home the national collegiate baseball title.

"We were young and scrappy, but we said we could play anybody," said USC coach Rod Dedeaux. "And that's the way we won it. We scrapped." Southern California, 51-11, didn't wow anyone with hitting, but won the College World Series in its typical methodical manner — with good defense and by taking advantages of the breaks.

The new BOAR POWER Sales Center at Atlantic opens the week of June 18.

Now, there's a new way to buy boars in Iowa. Beginning the week of June 18, pork producers in western Iowa will be able to select boars in air conditioned comfort at the new BOAR POWER Sales Center at Atlantic.

It's convenient, comfortable, and fast. In fact, you can see more good boars in a half day at the BOAR POWER Sales Center than you could see in a week of shopping around the countryside.

One of the five breeds of BOAR POWER boars you'll see at the Sales Center are genetically matched to produce pigs with an extra measure of hybrid vigor when mated with your sows. You get a performance pedigree on the ancestors of the boars you select, and BOAR POWER boars will settle your sows, or we replace them free.

You're invited to stop in and get acquainted during our open house the week of June 18. We think you'll really like this better way of buying boars.
