City Title to Tigers, 3-2

Carroll southpaw Eric Siemer had five strikeouts after the first three innings, but didn't get any in the next three innings, but his sixth strikeout for the final out in the seventh inning gave the Tigers a 3-2 victory over Kuemper.

The win gave Ted Edwards' Tigers the city baseball championship as they won two of three meetings.

Ironically, Carroll's other triumph also was by a 3-2 score.

Also, Brad Edwards drove in what proved to be the winning run again for the Tigers as he singled home Jim Petersen in the second inning for a 3-1 lead.

Siemer was superb in upping his record to 4-2 on the year in beating the Knights for the second time.

Siemer pitched five and one-third innings of no-hit ball before giving up a single to first baseman Craig Bellinghausen who lined the ball off of Siemer's glove and went into centerfield.

Al Kohorst pitched well for the Knights too as he allowed just four hits and fanned eight.

Kuemper took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first as Tim Roetker reached on an error. With two outs, Bellinghausen flied deep into center, but Carroll outfielder Todd Buck dropped the ball to score Roetker.

Carroll grabbed the lead in their half of the first as Buck singled to right. After Edwards walked, Lonnie Lehrkamp's sacrifice bunt moved the runners to second and third.

A Siemer ground out scored Buck and Edwards came home on a single to left by Ron Bernholtz.

The Tigers made it 3-1 in the second on a single by Edwards. Then Kuemper threatened to tie the game in the seventh.

Russ Rupiper tripled with one out. Tim Roetker then reached second on an infield error to score Rupiper to make it 3-2 Carroll.

After Gute grounded out, Siemer came up with the big knockout to end the game.

Carroll, now 9-8, opens Class A Sectional Tournament play here tonight against Ar-We-Va at 8 p.m.

Kuemper, now 9-12, plays Denison there Wednesday.

Eagle Paces Watson to British Title

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Any golfer who birdies Carnoustie's feared par-five 14th can feel pleased with himself.

Jack Newton of Australia did it in Sunday's playoff for the British Open. But Tom Watson went him one better. He eagled it.

Watson, who was earning a history of choking in major tournaments, went on to win the crown and he said his eagle chip at the 14th was the stroke that counted the most toward the title.

"I hit a good wood for my second shot, and it landed in short grass just off the green, about 30 feet from the pin," Watson said. "I took a chipping wedge for my third shot and it ended in the hole."

Watson went on to a one-under-par 71 over the 7,065-yard, par-72 course and edged Newton by one stroke. It was the fourth time in five days that Watson had shattered par on the famous course, and it helped ease bitter memories of two consecutive U.S. Opens when he blew chances to win.

The 488-yard 14th, where the playoff turned in Watson's favor, is called "the spectacles" because two big round bunkers peer out in front of the green. Watson steered past the bunkers with his second shot but missed the green. The chip, however, was one of the outstanding shots of a memorable tournament.

Carnoustie is a dragon when the wind comes up, but for the first three days there was scarcely a breath of wind. Watson had scores of 71, 67 and 69 on the first three rounds; Newton shot 69, 71 and a course-record 65.

Then a westerly wind came up, and in the fourth round, the title was up for grabs as player after player bowed in the stiff breeze. Watson made 72 and Newton 74. The scores put the two 25-year-olds even at 279, one stroke ahead of Jack Nicklaus, Johnny Miller and Neil Coles, and they went to an 18-hole playoff.

Sunday the wind blew again, but from the east. "I guess we saw Carnoustie in different conditions," Watson said. "But I know we haven't had real Carnoustie weather. I expected it to blow 100 miles per hour."

Watson won the title, the first major victory in nearly four years as a pro, along with the $16,500 first prize. Newton owned the course record and $13,200 as runner-up.

Watson was the sixth American to win the British Open in the last seven years.

'New' Bowling Lanes to Open Soon

Iowa's newest city is not through building yet. Soon Carroll will have new, spacious bowling lanes located in the old Starline Ballroom located just east of the city on U.S. Highway 30.

The new bowling lanes will be called Carroll Bowl Incorporated and the Starline Lounge. It is owned by Bus and Betts Behn who are moving east away from their former building, located on U.S. Highway 30 west.

Two reasons for the shift to the east was parking space and a roof that leaked.

But bowlers you won't have to worry any more come August when the Behns are scheduled to open.

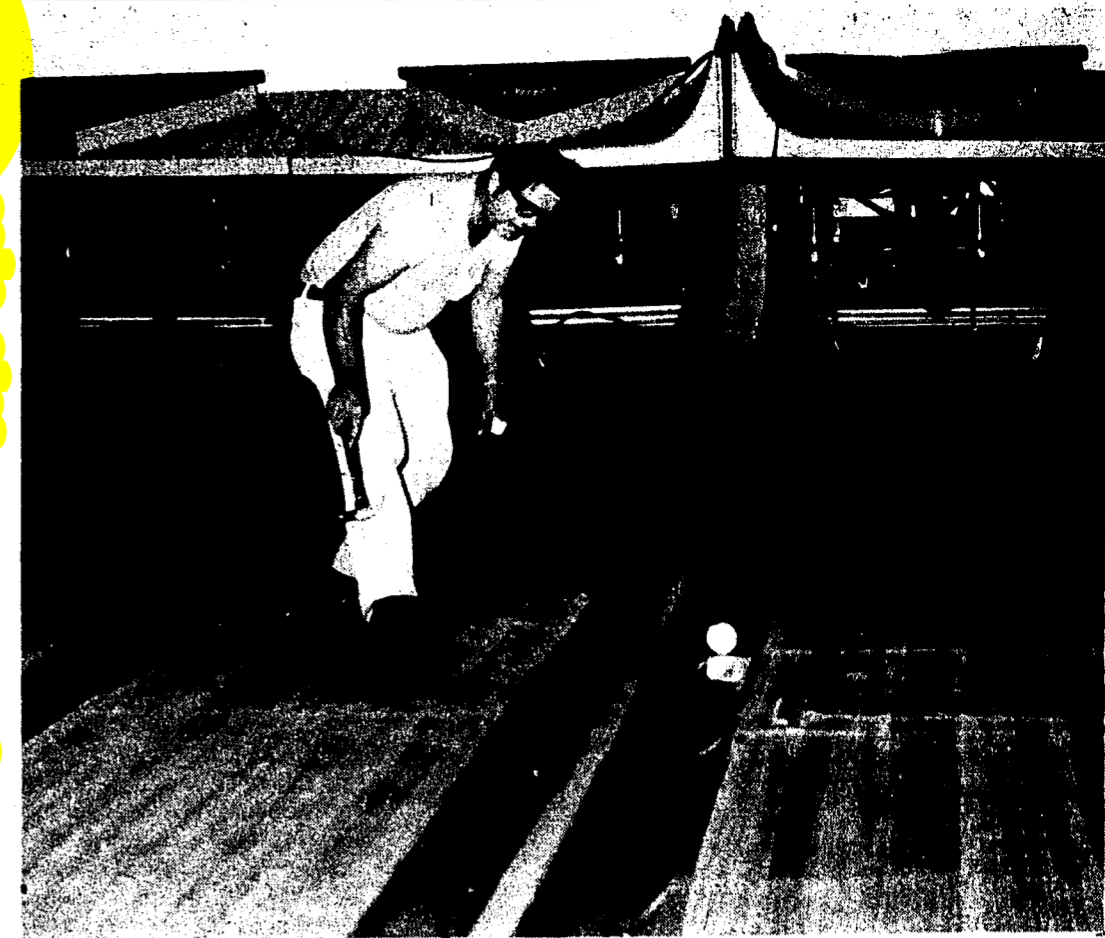

The new location will offer approximately three acres for cars, according to Betts. The old parking lot at the "old" place may be offered half an acre if that.

"No more pails," joked Bus, who purchased the Starline almost two years ago from Bill Otto.

"Our roof leaked all the time and we had 14 pails keeping the water from reaching the floor."

The new location will offer 14 AMF lanes, eight of which will be new. Six lanes are coming over from the other lanes.

"In the near future we hope

New Bowling Lanes —

The new Carroll bowling lanes will open after the first of August and shown above are some of the new lanes. The lanes will be located in the old Starline Ballroom, located east of Carroll on U.S. Highway 30.

The lanes are owned by Bus and Betts Behn. The worker is Jim Suiter of Suitco Company of Omaha, installers of the lanes.

The new lanes will also have a pro shop, a lounge area, a snack bar along with a game room that will feature pool and foosball.

The move to the new location is being made possible by Suitco Company of Omaha and Curt Jeffrey. They're doing the moving and installation of lanes.

The electrical work is being done by Tom Seidl and other work is being handled by Rotert Construction of Halbur.

Bus didn't want to forget his wife or Marge. Betts sister. "We would never be ready if it wasn't for them. They've done a tremendous amount of work painting and cleaning-up."

And bowlers and curious onlookers, the Behns welcome everyone to come out and see the progress the lanes are making.
