Carroll vs. Breda Friday

St. Bernard of Breda and Carroll turned up for their semifinal round Class A sectional game here Friday night at 8 p.m. by scoring lopsided victories Wednesday night at Carroll Stadium.

St. Bernard, the state's seventh-ranked team, routed Glidden-Ralston in the opener, 12-0, in six innings and Carroll romped by Manilla, 10-1.

Breda-Glidden Game
The Bobcats backed pitcher Ken Schettler with 13 hits as the hard-throwing right hander fired an one-hitter at the Wildcats who close at 6-10.

Schettler, who fanned nine and had not allowed a hit through the first five innings, gave up a leadoff double to Brian Johnson in the bottom of the sixth.

Outside of that, the Wildcats had only three base runners, all via the walk.

Breda, now 18-3 on the season, built up a 4-0 bulge through the first five frames as third baseman, Tim Nieland, led the way by smashing two long triples, good for two RBIs.

Then the powerful Bobcats unloaded in the sixth off of losing pitcher Jim Schon.

The Bobcats sent 13 men to

the plate in the sixth, scoring eight times on seven singles.

Collecting run-scoring singles for Dale Leslie's club in the big inning were Marty Snyder, Steve and Kevin Nieland, Koster, Tim Nieland, Rob Geier and Dale Steinkamp.

The only player who didn't do any damage in the inning was Schettler, but he didn't have to as he upped his mound mark to 4-1 on the year.

Leading the hitting attack for St. Bernard were Kevin and Tim Nieland and Steinkamp, all with three hits each. Koster added two.

Carroll-Manilla Game
For the second sectional game in a row, the Tigers, now 11-8, used a big second inning to put the game away early.

Carroll sent 13 batters to the plate in the second, scoring seven times on six base hits, an error and a pass ball.

Getting run-scoring hits in the inning were Gary Luchtel who doubled in Todd Pettitt for a 2-0 lead. Later in the inning, Todd Buck and Brad Edwards came up with singles to make it 4-0 and then winning pitcher Lonny Lehrkamp drilled a two-run single to make it 6-0.

Eric Siemer finished the scoring in the inning by doubling in Lehrkamp from second.

Lehrkamp was in command all the way as the senior right hander scattered four hits and struck out 10.

The only run he gave up came in the sixth inning when Carroll committed their only error of the game.

Lehrkamp and Siemer each had two hits to lead the Tigers and Lehrkamp added three RBIs.

Carroll made it 8-0 in the third as Jim Molitor tripled and came home on a sacrifice fly by Tom Reiman.

After Manilla, which finishes at 13-5, scored, Carroll got their final two runs as Buck walked and stole second. He moved to third on a ground out and scored on a perfect bunt by Lehrkamp.

The 10th run in the sixth scored on a ground out by Jim Petersen.

Koster Steals Another

Tom Koster of St. Bernard of Breda slides safe into third base during Wednesday night's 12-0 six-inning romp by Glidden-Ralston. Putting the tag on Koster is Mike Chapman. Koster stole four bases in the game for the No. 7 Bobcats. He now has 37 steals on the season in just 21 games. The umpire on the play is Doug Schuld of Audubon.

Trades Haven't Hurt Athletics

By The Associated Press
Baseball's open market — the preseason trading flurry — is a little like shooting craps in Las Vegas. "C'mon seven... snake-eyes!"

Take the American League, for example.

The Detroit Tigers and the Cleveland Indians took their turn at the table and the dice came up snake-eyes.

The Oakland A's took their roll and, lo and behold, lucky seven.

Like Vegas, Monte Carlo or the racetrack, some clubs came out ahead and others were big losers. But those who played it right, played it carefully, came out about even or slightly ahead — the Boston Red Sox, Milwaukee Brewers, New York Yankees and Baltimore Orioles.

The Tigers wound up the 1973-74 season in last place in the AL Eastern Division and went to the trading block with gusto. They're still last in their division.

They dealt pitcher Woody Fryman to Montreal of the National League for catcher

Terry Humphrey and pitcher Tom Walker. Humphrey, who's now out with a shoulder injury, has played in only 10 games and Walker has a 3-6 record. On the other hand, Fryman is 7-6 for the Expos with a respectable 3.07 earned run average.

Detroit also began Ed Brinkman's winding route to the Yankees by trading the shortstop to St. Louis through San Diego and getting first baseman Nate Colbert. Colbert, hitting around .150 and headed for what appeared to be a team knockout record, then was sold to Montreal.

Cleveland, one game ahead of the Tigers at the All Star break, was in the market for fresh pitching, and they couldn't have started out worse. They gave up pitchers Jim Perry and Dick Bosman to Oakland for Blue Moon Odom, who wanted nothing to do with the Tribe. Finally Odom was traded to Atlanta for Roric Harrison, 4-2 with a 4.10 ERA.

In all, the Indians traded for pitchers Harrison, Jim Bibby, Jackie Brown, Don Hood and Dave LaRoche, "virtually our entire pitching staff," a spokesman said. But in the Hood deal, the Indians also got first baseman Boog Powell from the Baltimore Orioles, and that hasn't disappointed them.

Besides getting Jim Perry, 3-1, with Oakland, and Dick Bosman, 6-1 with the A's, from Cleveland, the Western Division leaders picked up pitchers Stan Bahnsen from the Chicago White Sox and Sonny Siebert from San Diego. But the A's most significant trade may have been the one for designated hitter Billy Williams, which sent to the Chicago Cubs infielder Manny Trillo and relievers Bob Locker and Darold Knowles.

Williams has been in all but one of Oakland's games, has 44 RBIs and 12 home runs.

The Red Sox, whose inexplicable slide at the end of last season dropped them from first to third in the AL East, stayed out of the market this year, making only a minor deal that sent veteran Tommy Harper — and his big salary — to California for utility man Bob Heise. And the Red Sox are back in first.

Milwaukee's most notable trade, of course, was the one that brought Hank Aaron back to County Stadium from Atlanta for Dave May who had an abysmal 1973-74 season for the Brewers and now is a Braves' backup.

The most even-up trade in the majors involved the Yankees, who went to the NL's San Francisco Giants to get Bobby Bonds for Bobby Murcer — All-Star for All-Star. Bonds is hitting only .238 but has 47 RBIs, 20 homers and 16 stolen bases. Murcer is hitting .307 with 51 RBIs and 10 homers.

Besides Bonds and Brinkman, the Yanks also got reserve catcher Ed Herrmann from the White Sox and outfielder Rich Coggins from the Expos on waivers.

Coggins came to the Yanks by way of Montreal. He started out the season with the Orioles, who unloaded Coggins, pitcher Dave McNally and minor leaguer Bill Kirkpatrick to the Expos for pitcher Mike Torrez and Ken Singleton in what turned out to be one of the most disastrous trades the NL made with the junior circuit.

Knights Win Homer Contest, But Lose, 11-7

DENISON — You couldn't fault Kuemper's Joe Roetker and Brian Tigges here Wednesday night as the Knights dropped a "wierd" slugfest to Denison, 11-7.

Roetker, the Knights' right fielder slammed consecutive homers in the first and third innings, good for five RBIs and Tigges belted a two-run shot in the sixth.

But Denison won the game in the first inning as Kuemper's Mike Gute walked six batters. But Gute didn't have any help defensively either as Lou Galetich's club committed four errors.

The result of Denison's first inning was eight unearned runs on just one hit, a two-run double by Millea.

It marks the first losing season for Galetich at Kuemper.

Kuemper had grabbed the lead in the top of the first as Gute singled and then Roetker slammed the first of his home runs.

After Denison went ahead,

8-2, the Knights closed to within 8-5 in the top of the third as Roetker got his second blast, driving in Russ Ruppier who had reached base on a fielder's choice and Gute who had singled.

But Denison countered in their third as Pat Sullivan homered and Mike Curnyn singled in a run for a 10-5 bulge.

Kuemper came back on Tigges' home run in the sixth, but it was just too much to make up.

Denison is now 12-7 on the year, while Kuemper slipped to 9-13, heading into a Friday night game at St. Edmond of Fort Dodge.

The Knights' final regular season contest is Monday at Audubon. They'll open district tournament play in Carroll Thursday, July 24th facing Perry.

Ivan Prediger, who spent most of his hockey career with the Des Moines Oak Leafs, has been named general manager and coach of the North Battleford Barons in the Saskatchewan Junior League.

Prediger, 34, said Wednesday he has signed a three-year contract. North Battleford plays a 70-game schedule in a 16-team league.

He earned the nickname "Ivan the Terrible" because of his rugged play as a defenseman for the old Oak Leafs, predecessors of the Capitols in the International Hockey League.
