Tigers Move Closer to First Midwest Title

By Dennis O'Grady (Sports Editor)
DENISON — Carroll took a giant step toward the Midwest Conference baseball championship here Wednesday night, blanking Denison, 4-0.
The Tigers now own a 10-0 loop mark to the Monarchs' 8-2 mark with four games left. Overall, Ted Edwards' club is 14-1 heading into a rematch with Kueemper tonight at 8 p.m. "Pettitt (Todd) was super." commented Edwards afterwards. The junior right hander scattered eight hits and fanned nine to record his seventh victory against no losses.

"It's the biggest win in Carroll High School baseball history," added a smiling Edwards. "There's no question about that!" The Tigers have never won the league title. "I was proud of the way our kids bounced back," continued Edwards, referring to a 9-2 loss to Denison last Sunday.

The Tigers poured across all of their runs in the fifth as Gary Luchtel walked and Todd Pettitt and Tom Reiman singled to load the bases off of losing pitcher Terry Denker. Then Todd Buck laced a sharp single that got by left fielder Doug Wiebers, allowing all three base runners to score. The fourth run came home on Brad Edwards' second hit of the game, a single to center.

Pettitt was strong in clutch situations.
The Monarchs, now 14-3 overall, two of the losses to Carroll, loaded the bases in the second, fourth and sixth innings, but each time Pettitt worked himself out of trouble.

Times Herald, Carroll, Ia. Thursday, June 24, 1976
Outside of the fifth, the Tigers' other serious threat was in the sixth when Mark Steffes reached second on a drop fly to right and Luchtel singled and stole to put runners at second and third.
But relief pitcher Pat Millea ended things by getting Pettitt to pop out to the catcher and got Tom Reiman on strikes.

Moody Allen Having Fun With Phils

By The Associated Press
Life among the Philadelphia Phillies is finally agreeing with Dick Allen. The Phils are running away with the National League East and the sometimes moody, controversial Allen is thoroughly enjoying the trip.
"This is really fun," said Allen after Philadelphia dumped Cincinnati 4-2 Wednesday night. "Whether I'm 0-for-12 or 0-for-1,200, I'm having fun."
"I'd pay to watch a playoff between these two teams and I can't stand to watch baseball." Allen, in his second go-round with Philadelphia after turbulent stints with St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox, has got his batting average up to .286 and is regaining the earlier form that made him one of the game's most feared sluggers.

He got the Phils' winning rally going in the ninth with a leadoff double and took third on an infield out. After a walk, pinch-hitter Bob Boone grounded to third and Pete Rose bounced his throw off first baseman Tony Perez' chest, allowing Allen to score the tie-breaking run. Dave Cash singled in an insurance run as Philadelphia beat the NL West leaders for the fifth time in seven games this season.

Elsewhere in the National League, Los Angeles blanked Houston 1-0. San Francisco beat San Diego twice, 7-6 and 8-7. Atlanta swept a doubleheader from Montreal, 5-2 and 3-0, the New York Mets edged St. Louis 5-4 and the Chicago Cubs shaded Pittsburgh 6-5.

Giants 7-8, Padres 6-7
Newly-acquired Darrell Evans belted a two-run homer and a triple in the first game and clubbed a grand slam homer in the nightcap for San Francisco. The Padres had 31 hits to 17 for the Giants in the doubleheader, but San Francisco made theirs count more. Gary Thomsen hit a three-run homer for San Francisco in the opener and Bobby Murcer had a three-run shot in the second game.
Braves 5-3, Expos 2-0
Andy Messersmith and Phil Niekro turned in a pair of sparkling efforts for Atlanta. Messersmith, 7-5, continued to pay dividends on his million-dollar contract with a five-hitter and a two-run single in the opener. Niekro, 6-4, tossed a four-hitter and struck out 10 batters in the nightcap.

McCardell, DiPaglia Head Masters Entries

AMES — Bud McCardell, Newton, and Floren DiPaglia, both former champions, head the early list of entrants for the 1976 Iowa Masters Invitational Golf Tournament. The meet, thirty-ninth in the series that began in 1938, will be played over the George Venker Memorial Course at Iowa State July 9-11.
One member of that original field in 1938 is also among the first 32 entries in the meet. Bill Hall, then from Boone, will have played in a total of 11 meets including the 1938 inaugural.
J.D. Turner, Council Bluffs, and B.G. Campbell, Oskaloosa, were the first professionals to file entries for the 1976 meet.
The entry list includes the following:
Bill Barnett, Ray Gustafson, Dave Ross, Bob Wershay,

Dave Coe, all of Ames; Dick Canier, Boone; Bud McCardell, Newton; Curt Schnell, Milford; Jim Carney, Jim Mitchell, Ed Lanning, Floren DiPaglia, all of Des Moines; Harry Parsons, Webster City, Ron Manske, J.D. Turner, Kim McKeown, Mike McKeown, Dick Stuntz, all from Council Bluffs; Dave Sergeant, Fort Dodge.
Larry Lockridge, Ken Whitehead, both from West Des Moines; Kevin Burich, Creston; Harvey Wissler, Nevada; Mike Brake, Mike Irvine, Mike McDonald, all from Cedar Rapids; Ford Clark, Coralville; Bill Hall, Monticello; B.G. Campbell, Oskaloosa; Bob Appenzeller, Lancaster, Ohio; Gerry Summa, Larchwood; Jerry Johnson, Marshalltown.
Deadline for entries is July 5.

Until Rose's throwing error in the ninth, the Phils and Reds had battled on even terms. Mike Schmidt clubbed his 20th homer of the year for a 1-0 Philly lead in the fourth, then Johnny Bench tied it for the Reds in the bottom of the inning with a sacrifice fly.
Cincinnati went on top 2-1 on George Foster's homer in the sixth, his 16th, then the Phils got even in the seventh when Allen got aboard on a forceout and came around on Jay Johnstone's double and a groundout. Ron Reed, 6-2 was the winner and Pedro Borbon, 0-1, the loser, both in relief.
Dodgers 1, Astros 0
Rick Rhoden, 6-0, fired a three-hitter to outduel J.R. Richard, 7-8, who allowed just two hits through eight innings. Rhoden scored the game's only run in the sixth when he singled, raced to third on Bill Buckner's double and scampered home on a sacrifice fly by Ted Sizemore.

Grich's Bat Makes Palmer a Winner; Tribe Nip Yanks

By The Associated Press
Bobby Grich isn't Baltimore's designated hitter, but you'll have forgive Jim Palmer if he doesn't buy that.
It seems that when Palmer is pitching, Grich is usually doing something useful with his bat.
Last year, the Baltimore second baseman hit home runs to provide Palmer with a pair of 1-0 triumphs. Wednesday night he was back at it, slamming a two-run homer with two out in the bottom of the 10th inning, transforming Palmer from loser to winner with one swing and lifting the Orioles to a 3-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox.
In other American League action, the Cleveland Indians topped the New York Yankees 4-1, the Texas Rangers downed the Kansas City Royals 7-5, the Oakland A's trimmed the California Angels, 8-2, the Chicago White Sox won a pair from the Minnesota Twins 4-3 and 9-5 and the Milwaukee Brewers outslugged the Detroit Tigers 9-5.

Baltimore's sudden rally — Tony Muser's two-out single preceded Grich's first-pitch homer off Jim Willoughby — gave the third-place Orioles their eighth triumph in nine games, pulled them within seven games of first place and made Palmer the first nine-game winner in the AL. Jim Rice hit solo homers for both Boston runs.
Indians 4, Yanks 1
Don Hood checked New York on six hits over the first eight innings while ex-Yankee Charlie Spikes drove in a pair of runs with a fourth-inning single off Ken Holtzman. The Indians scored twice in the first inning before Holtzman could retire a batter. Rick Manning led off with a single. Larvell Blanks tripled and George Hendrick singled.

Rangers 7, Royals 5
Texas pulled within three games of Kansas City in the AL West behind Steve Foucault's clutch relief pitching and Toby Harrah's three-run homer in the opening inning. The Rangers broke a 5-5 tie in the sixth when Mike Hargrove singled, took third on Harrah's single and scored on Dennis Leonard's wild pitch.
A's 8, Angels 2
Bert Campaneris lashed four straight singles and pitcher Mike Norris gained his first victory since early last season as Oakland made it six straight over California this season and nine in a row over a two-year span. Sal Bando slammed a two-run homer off Andy Hassler, 0-5, who was saddled with his 16th successive loss. Three short of the American League record, White Sox 4-9, Twins 3-5
Jorge Orta slammed a decisive triple in the first game and added a two-run homer in the nightcap. In the opener, Bart Johnson won his first game in exactly a month with relief help from Terry Forster. Jack Brohamer, who homered in the opener, doubled two runs across in the nightcap.
Brewers 9, Tigers 5
George Scott, misfed at being dropped from fourth to sixth in the batting order, collected his seventh home run and two singles and drove in two runs to spark Milwaukee over Detroit. Sixto Lezcano capped a three-run fourth-inning with a two-run double and Robin Yount knocked in two runs with two singles as the Brewers broke a four-game losing streak.
