Starting Nod to Rookie Fidrych

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — If ABC, televising the All-Star game, ever wants to add some zing to the coverage, it could hang a microphone around the neck of young Mark Fidrych and tune in on the rookie pitcher's conversation with the baseball.

Fidrych, 9-2 with Detroit, will open for the American League in Tuesday night's 47th clash with the two leagues. He'll be opposed at the start by San Diego's sensational Randy Jones, who reached the All-Star break with a National League record 16 victories and only three losses.

Jones is just 26, but he's been around. He lost 22 games two years ago, but turned that around by winning 20 last season. The fans are familiar with the frizzy-haired left-hander.

But Fidrych is a new act. A 21-year-old right-hander, he has captivated Detroit fans with his exuberance. When he works, he thinks nothing of going down on all fours to smooth out the pitcher's mound to his specifications. He cheers for his fielders and perhaps most important are his exhortations to the baseball.

Before he delivers the pitch, Fidrych discusses direction and location with the baseball. No one except the Tiger rookie knows if the ball answers him.

Can the expected capacity crowd of 61,000, including President Ford, expect the usual antics from the rookie who is nicknamed "The Bird"?

"I hope I won't change," he said. "It'll be the same game."

Fidrych will be only the second rookie pitcher to start an All-Star Game. The only other one was Dave Stenhouse of the Washington Senators, who pitched the first two innings in what developed into a 9-4 AL victory in 1962.

Those were the days when the Americans still held the upper hand in All-Star competition. Since the 1962 victory, the AL has won only once while the Nationals have taken a dozen games for an over-all 27-18-1 edge in the series.

Recent NL domination of the All-Star series has been a growing source of embarrassment for the Americans.

"I am sick and tired of the National League beating us," said AL Manager Derrell Johnson. "We'll use the best players who give us the chance to win. I think we have the pitchers who can do the job they're supposed to do."

Canadians Refuse Taiwan to Compete

MONTREAL (AP) — Taiwanese Olympic officials said today they will stay in Montreal until the full session of the International Olympic Committee decides their fate in the Olympic Games.

They have rejected a request by the IOC executive board that they march in the opening ceremony behind an Olympic flag and an IOC plaque in place of their own insignia, and said they would pull out of the games.

But M. H. Tang, second in command of the delegation said: "Any decisions have to be ratified by the full IOC, and we are not leaving until the IOC session has taken place."

The full meeting of the 77-strong IOC starts Tuesday. Meanwhile, the main body of the Taiwanese team remains in the United States because it was not allowed into Canada.

The IOC executive board decided that the Games, due to open next Saturday, will go on. But the hopes of the Taiwanese and the spirit of the Olympic movement lie buried beneath a million bushels of Canadian wheat.

Canada's vast overseas trading interests are the underlying factor behind one of the worst crises in Olympic history.

The International Olympic Committee bowed on Sunday to the Canadian government which, under pressure from Peking, refused to allow Taiwan's athletes into the country because they would not change their official name or their flag.

It is the first time since the Games began in 1896 that a host country has shut out athletes recognized by the IOC.

Harlan Ends Knights' Bid, 4-3

DENISON — Harlan rallied for two runs in the bottom of the seventh to edge Kuemper, 4-3, here Sunday afternoon in the semi-finals of the Monarch Invitational.

The Cyclones, who had previously lost twice to the Knights, scored their winning runs with no outs.

Tom Leinen, who had doubled in the fifth, tripled down the right field line to lead off the seventh.

Moments later he stole home to tie the game.

Gary Schneider then walked, moved to second on a wild pick off throw off of losing pitcher Kirk Lengeling.

Schneider, who hit two homers in a Saturday win over Perry, went to third on a wild pitch and scored the game-winner on Larry Stein's single to left.

Kuemper broke up a scoreless game in the fifth, tallying three times off of Stein.

Three Harlan errors led to Kuemper's runs.

John Loew scored the first run; Marty Meshek scored run No. 2 as he was forced in when Don Nieland walked and Ken Nurse's single to center scored Rich Berg with the final run.

Harlan made it 3-1 in their fifth as Terry Fenster scored on a run down.

The Cyclones made it 3-2 in the sixth as Fenster singled home Ron Doran.

All-Star Hurlers Get Big Workout

How well a pitcher does is up to the man himself. But when he does it is up to his manager, especially around All-Star time in the National League, anyway.

The American League, having dropped 12 of the last 13 midseason classics, has been given an order by AL President Lee MacPhail the last three years — "don't use any of your All-Star hurlers on the Sunday before the game."

But in the NL, anything goes — which is why Jon Matlack, surprise reliever Tom Seaver and Dick Ruthven went.

None of the hurlers picked for Tuesday night's All-Star Game got anything but a workout in Atlanta's 9-8 victory over the New York Mets. But Don Sutton, normally another starter, found himself in an uncustomed relief role — and found a victory in the process as Los Angeles beat St. Louis 9-6.

In the rest of the NL, Ed Halicki baffled Chicago with a two-hitter as San Francisco beat the Cubs 2-0. Jim Kaat pitched a nine-hit shutout in Philadelphia's 3-0 victory over San Diego, Joaquin Andujar did the same in Houston's 1-0 squeaker over Montreal and Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 8-5.

Matlack, the winner of last year's All-Star Game, had an easy time with the Braves until they bombed him during a five-run seventh inning. One of his successors was Seaver.

"I volunteered to relieve," the Mets' ace right-hander said. "If they thought they could use me, I wanted to play. If I had expected to start the All-Star Game it would have been different. But I won't start. Randy Jones (of San Diego) will. He didn't pitch today purposely so he could start the All-Star Game."

Seaver did his job, facing two batters and shutting off the Braves' seventh-inning burst. "I didn't want to use him anymore so I took him
