

Bobcats Whip No. 5 Carroll, 13-0, in 5

By Dennis O'Grady
(Sports Editor)

St. Bernard of Breda was knocked down to ninth in the Des Moines Register-Iowa Coaches poll this week after suffering two losses over the weekend in the Storm Lake Invitational.

Breda Head Coach Dale Leslie said, "Our club just seemed to run out of gas," referring to the losses.

Well, the Bobcats, 18-4 on the season, refueled themselves here Tuesday night, whipping fifth-rated Carroll, 13-0, in five innings.

The Bobcats built up a 4-0 bulge through the first four innings and then exploded with some bicentennial fireworks in the fifth off of losing pitcher Eric Siemer, who suffered his first defeat in five decisions.

In the wild fifth, the Bobcats sent 13 men to the plate, scoring nine runs on six hits and three Tiger errors.

Right fielder Kevin Nieland, who doubled deep to right center in the third, duplicated that feat in the fifth, chasing Bart Bricks and Tom Koster home.

The Bobcats also got RBI hits in the frame from winning pitcher Dale Steinkamp's triple and singles by Koster, Ken Schettler and Marty Snyder.

Koster also had a run-scoring single in the fourth and Rob Geier in the third.

Carroll, now 19-2, had chances to score in the first four innings, but stranded nine runners as Steinkamp scattered four hits and fanned nine.

Carroll's Brad Edwards and designated hitter Gary Luchtel each collected two singles apiece.

Leslie said afterwards that the Tigers are much better than what they showed.

Carroll Head Coach Ted Edwards' only comment was, "they're a fine club."

Breda hosts Wall Lake tonight, while Carroll, now

19-2, meets Storm Lake at 6 p.m. Saturday in a first round Denison Invitational game.

The two Carroll County clubs will play again Monday night in opening round sectional play at Carroll Stadium.

Blue Looks Like a Million Dollars

By The Associated Press

Vida Blue looked like a million-dollar pitcher Tuesday night but the Oakland A's still have Blue and the New York Yankees still have their $1.5 million.

Making his second start after three weeks of Charlie Finley-enforced idleness following his voided controversial sale from the A's to the Yankees, Blue hurled the A's to a six-hit 2-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. It was his first victory since June 6 and his 23rd career shutout.

"It was my best game of the season," said Blue, who evened his record at 7-7.

In other American League games, the Kansas City Royals split with the Yankees, winning 3-1, then losing 7-4; the Texas Rangers edged the Detroit Tigers 3-2, the Boston

Red Sox blanked the Chicago White Sox 4-0, the Cleveland Indians trimmed the California Angels 7-3 and the Milwaukee Brewers downed the Minnesota Twins 6-2.

Blue had to be good in out-dueling Baltimore ace Jim Palmer, who also allowed six hits. The A's scored in the fourth inning on Don Baylor's single, a stolen base and a single by Gene Tenace. They got their other run in the eighth on a walk, a double by Joe Rudi and a bases-loaded walk to Tenace.

Blue's best was a 2-2 pitch on which Reggie Jackson became his ninth strikeout victim.

Royals 3-4, Yankees 1-7
Roy White delivered a tie-breaking two-run single and Chris Chambliss added a decisive three-run homer as the Yankees erupted for five runs in the eighth inning of the nightcap. In the opener, Kansas City's Doug Bird and Steve Mingori combined to pitch a three-hitter and the Royals came from behind on run-scoring singles by John Mayberry and Hal McRae in the sixth inning.

Rangers 3, Tigers 2
Joe Lahoud, a .168 hitter, doubled home Toby Harrah with the winning run in the eighth inning while Steve Barr, whose only other victory came way back on April 13 and who had a 6.27 earned run average, scattered six hits.

Red Sox 4, White Sox 0
Ferguson Jenkins pitched a four-hit masterpiece for his 198th career triumph and 39th shutout while Rick Burleson delivered a two-run single. Chicago Manager Paul Richards ignored the designated hitter option and Brett became the first pitcher to bat regularly in a meaningful game since the American League adopted the DH rule four years ago. Brett went 0-for-3, although he lined to short, grounded sharply to first and lined to first.

Southpaws Head National Staff

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Southpaws Randy Jones of the San Diego Padres and Jon Matlack of the New York Mets, who have a combined record of 25-5 this season, will head the National League's eight-man pitching staff at next Tuesday's All-Star baseball game.

The other pitchers, chosen Tuesday by Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson, include Tom Seaver of the Mets, Andy Messersmith of Atlanta, Woodie Fryman of Montreal, Ken Forsch of Houston, John Montefusco of San Francisco, and Rick Rhoden of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Jones, who will be making his second all-star appearance, is the winningest pitcher in the major leagues this year with a 15-3 record and a 2.51 earned run average in 165 innings.

Matlock, who has put together a 10-2 mark and ERA of 2.61, will be making his third all-star appearance.

Right-hander Tom Seaver, 8-5 with a 2.92 ERA, was named to the all-star team for the ninth time. Messersmith, a righthander with an 8-6 record and 2.37 ERA, will make his fourth appearance. Lefty Woodie Fryman, also 8-6 with a 3.71 ERA, will be playing in his second all-star game.

Three right-handers — Rhoden, Forsch and Montefusco — will be playing in the midseason classic for the first time. Rhoden is 8-0 with a 2.77 ERA while Forsch, a reliever with a 1-2 record and 1.94 ERA, has 14 saves this year.

John "The Count" Montefusco, last season's rookie of the year, is 7-8 with a 3.25 ERA.

Gullett to Bullpen as Borbon Starts in Reds' 10-7 Victory

By The Associated Press

For years Pedro Borbon has been following Don Gullett to the mound and usually serving as a nightcap for Cincinnati Reds' victories.

But Manager Sparky Anderson is shaking up his pitching staff these days. Gullett is the chaser now.

One of the most successful relief pitchers in baseball, Borbon made his first start in four years Tuesday night. Gullett — relegated to bullpen duty of late — came on to finish the Montreal Expos 10-7.

The start was only the

O'Connor, Suzuki Take Early Lead

Bulletin

SOUTHPORT, England (AP) — Christy O'Connor Jr. of Ireland, Norio Suzuki, a Japanese playing outside his native country for the first time, and 19-year-old Spaniard Severiano Ballesteros shot three-under-par 69s today for the early first-round lead in the British Open Championship.

Ballesteros gained a tie for the top spot with a birdie on the 13th hole. He also birdied Nos. 3, 7 and 12 and bogeyed No. 8.

O'Connor, a British Ryder Cup player, was the first finisher on the 7,001-yard, par-72 course which was playing tough for the majority of early finishers. The Irishman made the turn in two-under-par 32 but then fell victim to a triple-bogey eight on No. 13.

Suzuki, 24, went out in one-over 35, then charged home with five birdies, three of
