Love and Happiness Behind Tribe's Streak

By The Associated Press "Love and happiness" is behind the Cleveland Indians' eight-game winning streak, according to Rico Carty. But the four-hit pitching of Wayne Garland and the timely hitting of Buddy Bell and Carty figures in, too.

Indians to a 4-0 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays Thursday night. "But Jeff (Torborg) is a former catcher and understands me as a pitcher better." "The Indians won their last two games under Robinson and have won all six since Torborg took over last Sunday.

10-6, Boston downed Baltimore 7-3 and Seattle took 10 innings to nip Kansas City, 8-6. There were no National League games scheduled. Bell and Carty belted home runs to back Garland's pitching. The right-hander held Toronto hitless until the sixth, but said he didn't think about the possibility of throwing a no-hitter.

as Minnesota hammered Texas. Larry Hise drove in two runs for the Twins, while winner Dave Goltz, 7-5, celebrated his 28th birthday by scattering nine hits. The loss spoiled the debut of Rangers interim manager Connie Ryan, who took over when Eddie Stanky quit after managing only one game.

Red Sox 7, Orioles 3. Butch Hobson drove in two runs with his 11th home run and a double as Boston continued its record-breaking slugging. Hobson's homer extended Boston's record streak to 30 round-trippers in nine games. The Red Sox have won seven in a row and 16 of their last 18. Ferguson Jenkins, 7-5, tossed a six-hitter for the victory.

Angels 10, White Sox 6. California scored three runs in the sixth inning and five runs in the seventh to power past Chicago. Mario Guerrero drove in three runs with a pair of singles and a sacrifice fly and Bobby Bonds and Terry Humphrey both had two-run singles to lead the attack.
