Denison clips Tigers in 6, 11-1

Sports Shorts

DENISON — Denison moved into sole possession of the Midwest Conference baseball lead here Wednesday night with an 11-1 victory in six innings over Carroll.

The Monarchs wrapped up the contest with four runs in the fourth and the same number of runs in the fifth.

Carroll, which faces Kuemper tonight at 8 p.m., scored their lone run in the sixth on a run-scoring single by losing pitcher Jim Molitor. Molitor's hit drove in Brad Edwards who had doubled.

"We hit the ball well and played good defense," Tiger boss Tim Ryan said. "The inexperience of our pitching staff decided the game."

Terry Cooper and Dave Wiebers led Denison. Cooper went three-for-three with two rbi's and Wiebers went two-for-four with three rbi's.

Brian Wellendorf was the winning pitcher, allowing four hits and striking out six.

Tigerettes commit 17 errors; bow to Denison

By DAVE DONOVAN
Times Herald Staff Writer

Too many errors by the Carroll girls gave the Denison Monarchs an easy 24-8 victory over the Tigerettes in Midwest Conference play Wednesday night.

Carroll, now 0-2 in conference play and 0-3 for the season, started out well in the first inning as Tigerette pitcher Deb Watts struck out the Monarchs' first batter, but Denison followed up with six runs on seven errors by the Tiger outfield.

Denison, now 2-1, kept the Tigerettes to only four runs in the first two innings, committing just two errors to Carroll's 10.

The game's score was 16 to 5 when the Monarchs really poured it on, scoring eight more runs in the fourth while Carroll committed more errors.

The Tigerettes' last three runs in the fourth didn't do much to improve their score.

although for a moment it looked like Carroll might try to rally. But with three runners already in and a girl on second, Denison kept their cool and threw out the last three runners at first base.

Denison faces Manilla tonight at Denison, while the Tigerettes get a short rest until they play at Lake City at 8 p.m. Friday night.

JV WINS
The Tigerettes evened their record at 1-1 as they beat Denison by a narrow 8-6 edge in five innings.

Carroll pulled ahead in the first inning on good hits by Nancy Beck and Kathy Jandt and never lost their lead over the 0-2 Monarchs.

Bullets claim NBA championship

SEATTLE (AP) — Finally, Wes Unseld can look in the mirror and see the face of a champion.

"I don't know how I'm supposed to act," Washington's veteran center said with a sideburn-to-sideburn smile and a shrug of his massive shoulders following the Bullets' thrilling 105-99 victory over the Seattle SuperSonics Wednesday night in the deciding game of the National Basketball Association championship series.

The triumph before a disappointed capacity crowd of 14,098 at the Seattle Center Coliseum ended 10 years of play-off frustration for the Bullets, the only team to make the NBA playoffs every year in the past decade.

And Unseld has been a Bullet each of those 10 years.

"This is the first time for me on this side," said the 6-foot-7, 245-pound Unseld, who was voted the Most Valuable Player in the championship series that went the limit, creating a winner-take-all situation in the seventh game to determine the league champion.

Unseld, who scored 15 points and sank two big free throws in the final two minutes, twice before had been to the finals with Washington only to lose in four straight games — to Milwaukee in 1971 and to Golden State in 1975.

The loss put a damper on an incredible season for the Sonics, who got off to a disastrous 5-17 start but turned around under the guidance of Coach Lenny Wilkens and came within one game of the coveted championship.

Guard Charles Johnson and forward Bobby Dandridge led the Bullets' victory in the title game with 19 points apiece. But it was a three-point play by second-year reserve forward Mitch Kupchak and Unseld's free throws that cooled a Seattle rally in the final, frantic minutes.

The Sonics, who shot just 39 percent for the game to Washington's 45 percent, trailed 79-66 after three periods. Seattle closed to within 98-94 in the final two minutes before Mike Kupchak hit a three-point play with 1:30 to go.

Fred Brown sank a free throw and hit a bank shot and Paul Silas hit a layup to bring the Sonics to within 101-99 with 18 seconds on the clock. But six seconds later, Unseld sank two free throws to clinch the victory that ended, once and for all, the Bullets' status as the NBA's perennial bridesmaid.

"That was a big play for Washington," said Wilkens. "It was a super play on Kupchak's part. Things were going well until then."

Then, with 12 seconds left and the Bullets ahead by two points, Unseld was fouled intentionally and had three chances to make two at the free throw line. He missed the first but made the next two.

"I just stand up there and shoot and hope they go in," said Unseld.

"The Fat Lady is singing for us tonight," said Bullets Coach Dick Motta in the noisy Washington locker room.

Throughout the playoffs, the Bullets' battle cry has been, "The Opera Ain't Over 'til the Fat Lady Sings."

Cindy Ericson led the Knights with a solo homer in the fifth and also added a single.

Bock and Becky Draves led Glidden-Ralston at bat with two hits each.

Glidden-Ralston, now 2-2, travels to Bayard Friday night.
