Tigers snap losing streak, 7-2

By DENNIS O'GRADY
(Sports Editor)

Carroll snapped an eight-game losing streak here Wednesday night, downing Sac City, 7-2.

The Tigers' last victory incidentally was June 16th at Sac City when they beat the Indians, 7-6, in nine innings.

Brad Edwards pitched the distance for Tim Ryan's club. He scattered five hits and struck out nine. His record is 4-1 and the Tigers are now 4-8 in loop action and 4-12 overall. Carroll closes out their regular campaign this weekend, traveling to Audubon Friday night and entertaining Jefferson Saturday night. On Monday night they open Class A sectional play against Breda at Carroll Stadium.

The Tigers got all the runs they needed in the opening frame as Roger Bock led off with a double. After Dan Volk reached on a fielder's choice, Edwards was out on a ground out, but Buck and Volk both scored on an error. Duane Onken then made it 3-1 with a single to right that scored Jim Molitor who had tripled.

Carroll upped their lead to 4-0 in the second as Keith Peterson walked, went to second on a pass ball and to third on a ground out. He scored on a single to right by Volk.

Carroll made it 6-0 in the third, using a walk, a single by Onken, a fielder's choice, an error and a ground out.

A walk to Bock and two errors made it 7-0 in the fourth. The Indians, now 1-11 in conference play and 1-13 overall, were held to one hit during the first five innings.

But in the sixth, successive singles by Steve Pannier, Doug Samuelson and Mike Martin scored a run and then a fielder's choice and an error scored the other run.

SURGERY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia 76ers' center Darryl Dawkins was scheduled to undergo surgery today at Temple University Hospital to repair a shoulder separation suffered during the 1977-78 National Basketball Association season, a team spokesman said.

Evert, Navratilova in women's final

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Who's No. 1 will be decided, at least for the moment, on Friday when Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova meet in the finals of the Wimbledon tennis tournament.

Evert reached the finals for the fourth time in six years by defeating defending champion Virginia Wade of Britain 8-6, 6-2 Wednesday while Navratilova wore down an injured, limping Evonne Goolagong of Australia 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Navratilova, a Czechoslovakian who defected to the United States three years ago, is appearing in the finals at Wimbledon for the first time.

While Evert took a vacation at the beginning of the past indoor season, Navratilova established herself as the game's top player, crushing any pretender to the crown worn for the last several years by Evert.

Then Evert returned and beat Navratilova in their first meeting. But two weeks ago, in the Eastbourne International, Navratilova defeated Evert in a marathon three-setter.

"The match at Eastbourne should give me confidence," said Navratilova, the No. 2 seed, of Friday's pending battle. "I can win if I can produce my best."

Top-seeded Evert feels she could be just reaching her peak.

"I still haven't reached top form," she said after disposing of Wade, who won last year. "I hope it will happen in the final — it's leading up to that."

"Martina is playing awfully well. I think the only vulnerable part of her game is her backhand."

Navratilova has lost only three matches this year while Evert is a two-time Wimbledon champion. The men's semifinals today sent defending champion Bjorn Borg of Sweden against unseeded Tom Okker of the Netherlands and Jimmy Connors, the 1974 champion who lost to Borg in the finals last year, against fellow American Vitas Gerulaitis.

Flanagan and Kerrigan gain revenge against Jays

By The Associated Press

Last week, Mike Flanagan and Joe Kerrigan were for the birds. Wednesday night, they gave the bird to the Toronto Blue Jays and pitched the birds of Baltimore — alias the Orioles — to a 3-1, 8-6 double-header sweep. Flanagan and Kerrigan were the principal victims June 26 as the Blue Jays shelled the Orioles by that incredible 24-10 score in Toronto.

This time, the scene was Baltimore. Flanagan pitched a five-hitter in the opener and Kerrigan notched his first victory of the season in the nightcap with 3-13 innings of one-hit relief.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Oakland A's downed the Seattle Mariners 5-3 and regained first place in the West, the Texas Rangers edged the New York Yankees 3-2, the Kansas City Royals trounced the California Angels 10-1, the Boston Red Sox drubbed the Chicago White Sox 9-2, the Minnesota Twins shamed the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1 and the Detroit Tigers crushed the Cleveland Indians 13-3.

A's 5, Mariners 3

Mario Guerrero slammed a tie-breaking two-run homer with one out in the ninth inning off Shane Rawley following Dave Revering's infield hit. Jeff Newman also homered while All-Star selection Matt Keough was the winner, with help from Dave Heaverlo in the ninth.

Rangers 3, Yankees 2

Jon Matlack scattered seven hits while Bobby Bonds hit a two-run homer in the third inning and started a winning rally in the eighth with a single. Bonds went to third when loser Don Gullett threw wildly to first on Toby Harrah's sacrifice bunt, putting runners on second and third.

Royals 10, Angels 1

Hal McRae rapped a two-run triple and a solo home run for his 1,000th major league hit. Darrell Porter singled home two runs and every Kansas City starter collected at least one hit as the Royals bombed Nolan Ryan and two relievers. Amos Otis also homered.

Red Sox 9, White Sox 2

Fred Lynn drove in three runs with a pair of homers and Carl Yastrzemski capped a sixth seventh inning with a two-run blast as the Red Sox increased their AL East lead. Bill Lee pitched six innings for his ninth victory.

Twins 3, Brewers 1

Rod Carew went 4-for-4 and Mike Cabbage 3-for-3 while Dave Goltz scattered eight hits. Trailing 1-0, the Twins scored all their runs in the sixth against Lary Sorensen on singles by Carew and Cabbage. Butch Wynegar's sacrifice fly, Dan Ford's triple and Rich Chiles' sacrifice fly.

Tigers 13, Indians 3

Lou Whitaker, Rusty Staub, Jason Thompson and Steve Kemp drove in two runs each while Jack Billingham scattered 10 hits. The Tigers, trailing 2-0, erupted for seven runs off Rick Wise in the second inning on four hits — including a two-run homer by Staub — three errors and a sacrifice fly.

TOURNEY OFF

The Kuemper Invitational baseball tournament won't be finished. There was some speculation that the tourney would be finished.

McCovey's pinch homersaves Frisco

By The Associated Press

When you need a home run, Willie McCovey will certainly do in a pinch.

The biggest giant of the San Francisco Giants was called on in another clutch situation Wednesday — and as he has done so often in the past, came through for the National League West leaders.

McCovey belted a dramatic game-tying home run with two out in the ninth inning, allowing the Giants go on to beat the San Diego Padres 5-4 in 10 innings.

"It was gone the moment I hit it," said the jubilant San Francisco Giant veteran. "I got all of it."

McCovey, whose 425-foot blast was the 14th pinch-hit homer and the 502nd of his career, could hardly contain his exuberance while helping the Giants win only their second game in the last eight.

"It's a good feeling to battle back after almost blowing the game," said McCovey.

The Giants had a 3-0 lead after seven innings behind right-hander Ed Halicki before the Padres caught the Giants and rallied to go ahead 4-3 in the top of the ninth. Then McCovey did his thing, victimizing San Diego relief ace Rollie Fingers, who gave up both the Giants' tying and winning runs.

In other National League action, the Cincinnati Reds edged the Houston Astros 2-1; the Atlanta Braves defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 9-8; the Philadelphia Phillies stopped the New York Mets 7-5 and the Chicago Cubs turned back the St. Louis Cardinals

Reds 2, Astros 1

Paul Moskau and Doug Bair combined on a seven-hitter to lead Cincinnati over Houston. Moskau, 1-2, making his ninth start of the season, had not posted a victory since September 28.

Bair had to pitch out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam in the ninth inning before gaining his 13th save.

Braves 9, Dodgers 8

Barry Bonnell's RBI single capped a six-run rally in the ninth inning as Atlanta overtook Los Angeles. Dale Murphy's two-run single had tied the game 8-8 before Bonnell singled home Cito Gaston with the winning run.

The Dodgers had built an 8-0 lead after six innings, with Steve Garvey driving in three runs with his 12th homer and a single, and Joe Ferguson hitting his eighth homer and knocking in two runs before the Braves staged their comeback. Phillies 7, Mets 5

Greg Luzinski knocked in two runs with a triple and his 19th home run, helping Philadelphia beat New York. Warren Brusstar, 2-0, was the winner in relief of Steve Carlton, who was knocked out by the Mets in the third inning.

Cubs 5, Cardinals 1

Mike Krukow and Bruce Sutter combined on a five-hitter and Krukow triggered a two-run rally in the third with a single, pacing Chicago over St. Louis.

WHAT'S IT LIKE TO HAVE A CHIMNEY FIRE?

It's No Fun. If it Doesn't burn the house down, it will probably wreck your chimney and scare you half to death. Here's how it happens.

It begins with a dirty chimney and fireplace not cleaned for a couple of years. The soot lining the chimney flue is saturated with a flammable substance called creosote. It doesn't take much to ignite creosote — a newspaper fire sending flames up to the damper is enough.

Once kindled, creosote burns with joyous abandon in a matter of seconds the fire spreads up through the flue creating a draft that only helps things along.

Woods containing the highest concentration of Creosote are elm and pine. These two should not be used in a fireplace.
