

Carroll drops two; faces Breda tonight

Carroll closed out their Midwest Conference season over the weekend, dropping two games.

On Saturday night, the Tigers lost 11-0 in five innings at home to Jefferson and on Friday, they lost a 9-4 decision at Audubon.

Carroll, which finished at 4-10 in loop action, faces St. Bernard of Breda at 8 p.m. tonight at Carroll Stadium in a first round Class A sectional tournament game. Manning and Lake City square off at 6.

Jefferson's big inning was the third when they scored seven times.

The Tigers maaged just three singles. They were by Keith Peterson, Jim Molitor and Chris Wilkins.

Jefferson also won the junior varsity game, 7-5. Bill Peterson led the young Tigers with two hits and two rbi's.

AUDUBON GAME
Carroll and Audubon each had eight hits, but the Wheelers won their sixth conference game.

Duane Onken led the Tigers with two hits, while Molitor had three runs batted in.

Carroll scored a run in the second and three in the sixth that cut Audubon's lead to 5-4, but the winners tallied four runs in their sixth off of reliever Brad Edwards to sew the contest up.

Audubon also took the jv game, 5-4. Tracy Buck and Scott Steffen each had two hits for Carroll.

Audubon gals clip young Tigerettes, 9-3

AUDUBON — Audubon built up a 9-0 lead in the first five innings and downed the Carroll girls in softball play here Friday night, 9-3.

The Tigerettes only managed four hits off of Carroll pitchers Debbie Watts and Lisa Gross, but eight walks and seven errors hurt the young Tigerettes.

Carroll, now 2-11 on the year, heading into a 8:15 p.m. home contest Tuesday night against another first-year team, St. Edmond of Fort Dodge, tallied twice in the sixth inning.

With two outs, Sheryl Hoffman and Tammy DeLance walked. Brenda Brincks then singled home Hoffman. Then Gloria Gipson and Lisa Gross walked to force in DeLance.

In the seventh for Carroll, Lori Norgaard singled and then Beth Blohm reached on a throwing error, allowing Norgaard to come home.

"We left too many on base and the walks hurt us in the early innings," Carroll boss Dale Schmidt commented. "Audubon played great defense," continued Schmidt, "and we just couldn't get the key hit."

Schmidt said the defensive play of the game for his girls was when Blohm nabbed a line drive and doubled up a Wheelerette at third.

Audubon also took the junior varsity game, 6-5. The young Tigerettes are now 3-5.

Gute wins Fonda Open by 2 shots

FONDA — Dave Gute, a 16-year-old junior at Kuemper, captured the Fonda Open golf tournament by two shots Sunday. There were 317 golfers in the tourney.

Gute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Gute of Carroll, had to come from behind to win it as he finished with a one-under-par 104 total for 27 holes.

Gute was four strokes behind with only seven holes to play when he started his winning effort.

Gute eagled the par five fourth hole, birdied No. 8 to tie Reilly and a Webster City golfer and won on the final hole with a par as the other two took double bogies.

Gute, who was recently named to the All-Northwest Iowa high school golf team for the second straight year, will compete in the Iowa Independent Insurance Agents Classic Tuesday and Wednesday at Jester Park near Des Moines.
