Carroll girls now second

BREDA—The Carroll girls took over second-place in the Midwest Conference softball race with a 10-4 win over Audubon here Friday night. Jane Petersen led the Tigerettes with three hits and three rbi's. Christy Griffith added two hits and two rbi's. "Everyone contributed,"

Carroll coach Lisa Stoffers said. "It was a team win. It was a very big win for us." The Tigerettes, who play at league-leading Perry tonight, are now 4-1 in Midwest play and 7-2 overall. Carroll got three runs in the third, highlighted by a two-run double by Griffith. In the fifth, Carroll got four runs to take an 8-2 lead. A two-run single by Petersen and a run-scoring single by Lori Norgaard were the big blows in that inning. Audubon won the jv game, 26-8, to drop Carroll to 1-7 on the year.

Tourney to St. Edmond

St. Edmond of Fort Dodge, who had their 10-game winning streak snapped against Perry Friday night, 10-0, in five innings, captured the Carroll Invitational baseball crown Sunday with a 3-2 victory over Kuemper.

got both of their runs in the seventh. The Gaels' Dick Mikos scored in the third on an overthrow at second base. In the fourth, Kirk Yung made it 2-0 as he singled, stole second and was sacrificed to third. He later scored on a single by Dan Dowd. In fifth, winning pitcher Steve Nielsen, who allowed just two hits, singled home Mikos. In the Kuemper seventh, Scott Cawley and Jim Hinners walked. Pinch hitter Dale Oswald then singled to load the bases. Steve Nurse and Al Loew then drove home runs with fielder's choices. Kuemper, now 8-7 on the season, travels to Ames Tuesday with the jv game starting at 5:30 p. m.

Skatetown of Marshalltown is shown after winning the championship in the First Annual Carroll Budweiser Open 16 inch slow pitch tournament Sunday. Skatetown went unbeaten in the three-day tournament. They won the title with a 10-7 win over Reames Frozen Noodles of Des Moines. Standing with Skatetown are tournament director Bob Fasbender and David and Jim Auen of Auen Distributing who sponsored the meet.

Crouse third in Ogden meet

OGDEN—Crouse Cartage finished third out of 16 teams in the Ogden fast pitch softball tournament over the weekend.

Crouse went 3-2 in the tournament as they whipped the Ames Boosters, 11-0, in five innings; beat the Backstage Lounge of Marshalltown, 8-2; and beat Creston, 6-5, in nine innings.

Crouse, now 18-6 on the year, lost to Exira 10-0 and to Levens of Fort Dodge, 7-3.

Jerry Spieler hit three homers during the tournament for Crouse. He hit one in the ninth to beat Creston.

Also getting homers were Dan Lally, Tim Bell, Mick Kent and Dick Muhlbauer.

In pitching, Jim Russell was 2-2 for Crouse and Larry Siebert was 1-0.

Crouse has a doubleheader at Kiron Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m.

Carroll all-tourney team

Two players from Kuemper and two from Carroll were named to the Carroll Invitational all-tournament baseball team announced Sunday after St. Edmond of Fort Dodge edged Kuemper in the title game, 3-2. Dean Steinkamp and Scott Cawley were named from Kuemper and Jim White and Scott Steffen from Carroll. St. Edmond led the team with four selections. They were Dick Mikos, Jim Winter, Steve Nielsen and Steve Shanks. Also named to the team were Jim Gray of Denison, Kevin Skalla of Scranton and Keith Crowe of Audubon.

Tigers improve to 3-2 in loop

AUDUBON—Carroll improved their Midwest Conference record to 3-2 here Friday night with a 12-8 triumph over Audubon.

The Tigers, who are now 5-5 overall and winners of two in a row host Perry tonight, starting with a jv game at 6 p. m., were led by Gary Benedict.

Benedict went three-for-three with four rbi's and three runs scored.

Scott Steffen, Roger Bock and Jim White also had two hits for the winners. Also, Steffen scored three times, Bock four times and White had three rbi's.

Carroll jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first as Benedict drilled a two-run single.

Audubon then took a 4-2 lead in the second, but the Tigers came back with four runs in the third as Benedict, White, Rex Mitchell and Tim Rotert had run-scoring singles. Carroll picked up two runs in the fourth as Audubon committed two errors.

In the fifth, the Tigers got three more runs, highlighted by a two-run single by White.

In the seventh, Bock tripled and scored on a single by Benedict.

Audubon won the junior varsity contest.

Bayard blanks G-R gals

GLIDDEN—Lora Deeth spun a five-hitter and struck out six as Bayard blanked Glidden-Ralston, 3-0, in girls softball play here Friday night.

Glidden-Ralston won the boys baseball game by forfeit after Bayard had built up a 3-0 lead.

Bayard had to forfeit when their catcher Todd Dahl suffered an injury in a collision at first base in the third inning. Bayard then didn't have enough players.

Tammy Kopaska led the Redettes with two hits and a rbi. One of her hits was a double.

G-R is now 2-5 in the league and 5-8 overall, while Bayard is 6-0 in the Central Valley Conference, tied for first with Scranton. Overall, Bayard is 8-4.

Glidden-Ralston is at Scranton tonight for softball and baseball play.

G-R's baseball mark is 2-5 in the league and 3-5 overall. Bayard is 0-6 and 0-7.

Ar-We-Va bows, 10-6

DUNLAP—Ar-We-Va lost 10-6 in Boyer Valley Conference baseball play Friday night here to Dunlap.

Doug Ehlers led Ar-We-Va with two singles, including three rbi's. Also getting two hits were Jim Stoelk and Brian Luft.

Losing pitcher Jay Stoffers

also scored twice and Mark Luft had a double.

"Theodore Hawley relieved Stoffers in the second inning and did a respectable job," Ar-We-Va coach Bob Gress said.

Ar-We-Va, now 2-4, hosts Logan-Magnolia Tuesday at 6:30 p. m.

Vonnahme's downs Willey

WILLEY—Vonnahme's Bar of Arcadia downed Willey, 11-5, here Friday night in co-ed

Prep basketball

Three games were played Sunday in the Carroll Recreation Center's high school basketball league.

Farner-Bocken whipped the Fifth Quarter, 67-31; Country Kitchen dumped the Cougars, 79-41; and Larson Insurance walloped the Blackhawks, 82-27.

Games set for Sunday, June 28: Country Kitchen vs. the Cats at 5:30 p. m.; Farner-Bocken vs. the Blackhawks at 6:30; and Fifth Quarter vs. the Cougars at 7:30.

softball play. Vonnahme's Bar hosts Casey's at 7:30 p. m. tonight at Arcadia.

Also, Arcadia will have a co-ed 14 inch softball tournament, July 20-26.

Teams interested should contact Vonnahme's Bar, 689-2470.

The entry fee will be $5 and one 14 inch ball, but the $5 will be returned to the teams after their first game.

Willey Giants get sixth

Skatetown beats Reames for title

BY DENNIS O'GRADY Sports Editor

Skatetown of Marshalltown captured the First Annual Budweiser 16 inch slow pitch softball title at the Little League complex Sunday afternoon, beating Reames Frozen Noodles of Des Moines, 10-7, in the championship contest of the 21-team double-elimination meet.

Skatetown, which had lost to Reames in all previous games this season, finished unbeaten in the tournament.

Krantman's of Marshalltown took third-place, followed by another Marshalltown team, Cecil's.

Lancer Lanes of Cedar Rapids placed fifth and the Willey Giants led the eight-team Carroll contingent by placing sixth.

The Willey Giants pulled off the big upset in the tournament, knocking off Reames, 9-8.

Rightfielder Doug Ray's inside-the-park home run in the sixth inning sewed up the title for Skatetown.

Perry Lipe led the way for the winners with three hits. Reames, who got off to a 5-2 lead after the first two innings, was led by Pete Spoden who had two hits.

From this writer's standpoint, it was a great tournament and Auen Distributing, Bob Fasbender and the rest of the city and softball crew should be complimented for a fine job.
