Kuemper girls fall to St. Albert

ELK HORN—St. Albert handed Kuemper their second loss in five games here Friday night, blanking the Lady Knights, 13-0, in five innings in the Elk Horn-Kimballton tournament.

In the other contest, the host Lady Dances walloped Audubon, 21-5, in three innings. The consolation and championship games were scheduled for Saturday night, but were rained out. They tentatively will be made up on June 22.

St. Albert, now 3-4 on the year, used two innings to score all of their runs against Kuemper. The winners got four runs in the third and added the other nine in the fifth. Kuemper only got one hit. That came from Beth Sibenthal who singled with two outs in the second inning.

Kuemper hosts Dayton tonight, starting with the junior varsity game at 6 p. m.

Gaels blank Knights for Carroll title, 6-0

BY DENNIS O'GRADY Sports Editor

Unbeaten St. Edmond captured the Carroll Invitational baseball championship for the second straight year here Sunday night, blanking Kuemper, 6-0.

The Gaels, now 11-0 on the season, also defeated the Knights in last year's title game.

The Gaels got superb pitching not only in the title contest, but also in an afternoon win over Audubon.

Mark McCurdy fired a two-hitter and struck out three in beating Kuemper and earlier in day, Terry Ressler scattered five hits in shutting out Audubon, 8-0.

Kuemper had advanced to the championship game by beating Lake City, 23-11, in a wild six inning game. On Saturday, the Knights knocked off Denison, the state's fifth-ranked Class 3A outfit, 7-4.

St. Edmond Game

St. Edmond decided the contest early with the Knights, scoring all of their runs in the first two frames.

In the first inning, Ressler led off with a single, stole second and came home on a single by Dave Lang.

Then first baseman John Stein sent a long drive over the left center field fence for a 3-0 margin.

In the second inning, the Gaels got the rest of their runs as they managed only one hit, a single by Lang to center. The Gaels took advantage of four Kuemper errors.

While the Knights only got two hits, a double by Jon Heisterkamp in the first and a single by Jim Ericson in the seventh, Kuemper had several good opportunities to score.

Kuemper stranded two runners on base in the first frame. They left bases loaded in the fourth and stranded runners at second and third in the fifth.

Jeff Louis started for the Knights and took the loss. Ken Murray relieved and pitched well the final three innings, allowing just two hits and striking out four.

Kuemper, now 4-3 for the season, hosts Lewis Central of Council Bluffs Tuesday night at Breda, starting with a
