

White and Petersen spark Carroll past Scranton, 10-0

Carroll Swim

Team sends record to 3-0

ATLANTIC—The Carroll Swim Team ran their record to 3-0 here Tuesday night, beating the host team, 527 to 437.

Carroll Swim Team coach Trent Steffen didn't have any individual or relay results because Atlantic didn't furnish any.

There were some results from the diving competition. Daryl Baier and Janelle Steffen got seconds for Carroll. Jill Pluckhahn, David Goreham, Angie Goreham, Jackie Webber and Tom Anderson picked up third-places.

Fourth-places went to Paul Fisch, Andi Drees and Tim Stockert.

Carroll's next meet will be Thursday, July 1, at 6:30 p. m., in the Denison Invitational.

Also in the meet besides Carroll and Denison are Missouri Valley and Holstein.

SCRANTON—Jim White and Steve Petersen sparked Carroll to their second straight baseball victory here Tuesday night as the Tigers blanked the Trojans, 10-0.

White was superb on the mound, firing an one-hitter, walking just two and striking out 11.

Mike Squibb got the only hit for the Trojans, now 3-9, heading into a game Friday, July 2, against YJB at Yale.

Petersen had the big bat. He went two-for-three with two runs scored and three rbis.

The Tigers jumped to a 4-0 lead in the third as Petersen and White each had two-run singles.

The Tigers then made it 9-0 in the sixth inning with five more runs.

Tracy Teague's sacrifice fly drove in Dan Dreessen who had singled. Petersen singled home Jay Savery who had reached on a single. Bobby Dirck, who had two hits, then singled home a run.

The other two runs scored on an error and a balk.

Carroll got their last run in the seventh as Dreessen reached on an error and scored later on a ground ball hit by Jeff Lehman that went for another error.

The Tigers return to Midwest Conference action tonight, traveling to Jefferson. The junior varsity game will get things going at 6 p. m.

No-hitter for Norgaard
Jay Norgaard fired a five-inning no-

error and scored later on a ground ball hit by Jeff Lehman that went for another error.

The Tigers return to Midwest Conference action tonight, traveling to Jefferson. The junior varsity game will get things going at 6 p. m.

No-hitter for Norgaard
Jay Norgaard fired a five-inning no-

hitter as the Carroll junior varsity gained a 7-0 triumph to improve their season mark to 7-5.

Norgaard walked three and struck out eight.

Lehman led the Tigers, going two-for-two with two rbis. Kevin Lux and Jeff Hackett both went two-for-three and Jeff Reinart had one hit, a double.

Lady Knights snap two-game skid, 11-10

WEBSTER CITY—The Kuemper girls snapped a two-game losing streak here Tuesday night, holding on for a 11-10 triumph.

The Lady Knights built up a 9-3 bulge after the first three innings and led 11-3 going into the last of the sixth, but then Webster City scored five runs in the sixth and added two more in the seventh to almost pull it out.

Betty Seidl led the Lady Knights, now 6-7 on the year, with two hits and four rbis. Joan Brown and Beth Sibenaller also collected two hits and Cindy Badding scored three times.

Kuemper got a run in the first as Badding was hit by a pitch and later scored on a single by Brown.

The Lady Knights, who play at Harlan tonight, starting with a jv game at 6:30 p. m., added three runs in the second, highlighted by a run-scoring single by Sibenaller and a two-run single by Seidl.

Kuemper got five runs in the third. The big plays were a run-scoring single by Badding, a two-run sacrifice fly by Seidl and Sibenaller who walked to force in a run.

Kuemper got their final two runs against 3-11 Webster City in the sixth frame on run-scoring singles by Lu Lynch and Kim Beidler. Beidler's hit was a bunt single.

Junior varsity wins
Kuemper upped their junior varsity mark to 6-3-2 with an 8-7 triumph as Paula Koster was the winning pitcher.

Julie Haverman went two-for-three with a home run and two runs scored for Kuemper. Teammate Teresa Koster was perfect, going three-for-three.

Kuemper falls at FD; No. 1 Spencer next

FORT DODGE—Fort Dodge handed Kuemper a 6-1 setback in baseball here Tuesday night in a game that lasted only one hour and 15 minutes.

The Dodgers, now 13-3 on the season, opened up a 5-0 lead after the first four innings.

All-state guard Dave Sjurson led the winners, going four-for-four with three rbis, including a double. He also scored twice.

Kevin Dencklau was tough on the mound for Dodgers who are in third-place in the tough Big Eight Conference. He allowed only three hits.

The Knights, now 6-8, got their lone run in the fifth as Russ Nieland, who had two hits, singled with one out. He then stole second and scored one out later as Dale Oswald reached on an error.

Jon Heisterkamp got Kuemper's only other hit in the game.

Next up for Kuemper is the state's top-rated Class 4A team, Spencer, here Thursday night, starting with the junior varsity game at 6 p. m.

"The kids are really excited about playing the No. 1 team," Knight head coach Bill Wieland said. "We're going to give it our best effort and we hope to come up with the big upset."

Junior varsity loses
Kuemper also dropped the junior varsity contest, 10-4, in seven innings.

John Sievers was the losing pitcher as the young Knights fell to 4-3-1 on the year.

Marty Fay had a run-scoring double and Doug Leiting and Lee Wuebker had run-scoring singles for Kuemper.
