Atlanta sweeps Padres to go up seven

By The Associated Press
Atlanta second baseman Glenn Hubbard was hurting, but not enough to stay out of the second game of a crucial doubleheader with the San Diego Padres.
"I had to talk to him a little," said Hubbard of Atlanta Manager Joe Torre, who had not listed his second baseman in the lineup after a slight muscle pull in Tuesday night's 9-2 opening-game victory over the Padres.
"I told him I could make the plays in the field and that it only hurt when I swung," added Hubbard.
It obviously didn't hurt him enough, though, to keep him from hitting a two-run homer in the 10th inning to provide the Braves with an 8-6 victory and a sweep of the doubleheader. The two victories boosted Atlanta's lead over the Padres in the National League West to seven games, their biggest of the season.
Dale Murphy, who had a homer for the Braves in each game to boost his major league leadership to 26, helped set the stage for Hubbard's winning hit in the second game when he reached above the center-field fence to rob Ruppert Jones of a two-run homer in the top of the 10th.

Murphy belted a two-run homer and Bob Walk hurled a five-hitter to help the Braves win the opener. Murphy's homer off Tim Lollar, 10-5, came in the third inning following a walk to Hubbard.
Walk, 9-7, also had two hits, including an RBI double in the fifth when Atlanta also scored three runs. He walked five and struck out two.
In the nightcap, pinch-hitter Jerry Royster opened the Atlanta 10th with a walk off Gary Lucas, 0-7, and following a sacrifice by Rafael Ramirez, Hubbard drilled his seventh homer.
Elsewhere, Houston beat Cincinnati 3-2, Montreal nipped Chicago 4-3, St. Louis pounded New York 9-4, Pittsburgh blanked Philadelphia 4-0 and Los Angeles turned back San Francisco 7-3.
Astros 3, Reds 2
Nolan Ryan won his 200th career game, pitching a five-hitter and striking out 13, as Houston beat Cincinnati on Terry Puhl's run-scoring single in the eighth inning.
The 13 strikeouts were a season-high for Ryan, 11-9, and extended his own major league record of career games with 10 or more strikeouts to 143. It was the eighth time this year the Houston right-hander has reached double figures in strikeouts. Ryan walked only two batters.

Puhl's tie-breaking single in the eighth came off Charlie Leibrandt, 3-6.
Expos 4, Cubs 3
Gary Carter's three-run homer in the first inning powered Montreal over Chicago. Carter's 21st homer came off Randy Martz, 4-7, after Andre Dawson and Al Oliver had singled. The Expos scored their eventual winning run in the second on Tim Raines' RBI single.
Cardinals 9, Mets 4
Darrell Porter homered, doubled and singled to lead St. Louis over New York. Porter's two-run homer, his sixth of the season and first since June 11, keyed a 13-hit attack as the Cardinals extended their winning streak to five games.
Pirates 4, Phillies 0
Larry McWilliams and Rod Scurry combined on a three-hitter and Jason Thompson knocked in two runs to lead Pittsburgh over Philadelphia.
Dodgers 7, Giants 3
Right-hander Joe Beckwith, recalled from the minors last week, didn't allow a hit in 52-3 innings of relief and Ron Cey belted a two-run homer as Los Angeles beat San Francisco.
Beckwith, 1-0, took over for starter Vicente Romo in the second inning after Romo left the game with a knee injury. Beckwith faced 18 batters, retiring 17 before leaving for a pinch-hitter in the seventh.
Steve Garvey drilled three hits and knocked in two runs for the Dodgers.

Outdoor Recreation Corner

By David Olson, Executive Officer
Carroll County Conservation Board

New gun policy
The Carroll County Conservation Board adopted a new gun policy in April of 1982. This policy stated that to carry a loaded assembled gun or to shoot firearms in the county park and recreation areas from March 1 through Sept. 1, except at the Bennett Access Rifle Range, is illegal.

The purpose of this rule was to eliminate unnecessary shooting which was creating safety and vandalism problems during the non-hunting months. Signs have been posted in all county recreation areas where hunting is allowed.
These signs say that no guns are allowed in that area. Guns that are in a case or disassembled are legal, but cannot be shot, unless you are at the Bennett Rifle Range. This range is located at the west end of Bennett and is open to all the public for target practice.

Make sure you keep your loaded gun pointed down range and shoot at the back stop provided for you. Your cooperation will be appreciated.
Fishing improved at Swan Lake
The fishing at Swan Lake for bullheads has improved over the weekend. Reports of nice size bullheads are being caught. Night crawlers are working good for bait.
Letting let on Swan Lake
The Swan Lake Restoration Project big letting was held last Tuesday. Giese Construction, Eagle Grove, was low bidder at $418,000.
The awarding of a contract will be Aug. 6 at the commission meeting to be held at Spirit Lake Fish Hatchery.
The dewatering could take place as soon as Aug. 9th. The approximate time to drain the lake is 40 to 50 days.
Turkey hunters successful
Iowa's wild turkey hunters had another successful spring season in 1982, in spite of poor weather and generally uncooperative turkeys during the April 13-May 9 hunting period.
An estimated 6,244 hunters scored a success rate of 27 percent, down from last spring's record 36 percent. In traditional turkey hunting states 10 per-
