

Tiger baseball wins at Dallas Center-Grimes

DALLAS CENTER - Carroll moved to 6-2 on the season with a 5-2 win over Dallas Center-Grimes Monday night.

At the plate, Schulz went 2 for 3 with a two-run single in the first inning. Ben Gossett stroked a double for Carroll.

The Tigers scored two runs in the first, one in the fourth and two in the seventh. DC-G scored both its runs in the fourth frame.

"Overall it was a very good game for us as a team," Carroll coach Dirk Troutman said. "Every player contributed in some way - Kyle Christensen had a good relay to home to get a runner out in the fourth inning. Marc Hempstead did a great job behind the plate and called a great game. We had key base running that allowed us to score in Brock Bengtson in the seventh. On a dropped third strike he stole home and gave us a good insurance run. It was nice to see a lot of kids contribute, a nice team win."
