DenAdel Scores Lone

The Audubon Wheelers dealt the Carroll high Tigers an 8-1 setback Monday night in the last game of regular season competition. Five Audubon runs came in the top of the seventh.

Carroll's lone run was scored in the second frame when catcher Scott Richardson lined a double to left center field scoring Phil Den Adel who had walked and gone to second on a wild throw from Wheeler catcher Mike Garber to first baseman Jim Crouse. tom Subbert led off the inning with a strike out, Mark Mabler lined to center and lead off hitter Terry Wenck struck out to end the second.

In the Audubon seventh, Doug Taggart, third baseman, lined a double to left and John Klever was thrown out at first. Dave Taggart bunted to Tiger pitcher Gary Sunderman whose throw to first was wild.
