Two Killed in Iowa Traffic Over Weekend

By The Associated Press Two persons were killed in traffic accidents in Iowa over the weekend.

Ollie Barton, 61, of Fort Dodge, died Sunday in a twocar collision at the intersection of U.S. 169 and a rural road near Ogden in Boone County.

Gary Gravy, 17, of Defiance, was killed Saturday when his motorcycle collided with a train about a mile northeast of Defiance. Authorities said Barton's car was struck on Highway 169 by a car driven by Clifford Winebrenner, 23, of Boone. They quoted Winebrenner as saying the brakes on his car failed. Barton's wife, Irene, 51, and son, Clifford, 25, were hospital-.00 ized at Boone. Hospital attend-36 ants said both received internal 09 injuries and Clifford also had a fractured skull.

Two other persons died in Sioux City hospitals Sunday of injuries suffered earlier in Iowa traffic accidents.

They were Marilyn L. Woodward, 18, and Ward H. Swanger. 83, both of Sioux City. Miss Woodward was injured

July 2 in a one-car accident on Interstate 29 south of Salix. Highway patrolmen said the car, driven by Franklin U. Lambert, 25, of the Sioux City

Air Base, went out of control for no apparent reason and over-.43 turned in a ditch. Lambert escaped serious injury. Swanger died of injuries suffered last Wednesday in the collision of his car and a truck 6.19 driven by James Turner, 66, of 8.64 Kansas City, as Swanger was making a left turn from U.S. 20 5.00 into the town of Lawton. Turner
