Denison Racks Tigers

One-hit pitching of Denison's Terry Stoll marked the downfall for the Carroll Tigers as they dropped their second West Central League Game here Friday night by a whopping score of 15-3 in five innings.

Whereas pitching was the trump card for the Monarchs, it was just the opposite for the Bengals. Ben Rogers opened on the mound for Carroll and was relieved in the fourth inning by Dave Henning. Henning only lasted through two batters and surrendered his pitching duties to Denny Wilkins. The chart shows 13 Denison batters were walked by Carroll as opposed to only 5 strike outs. On the Denison side of the chart, 5 walks were surrendered and seven batters were sent down on strikes.

Howie Henningsen started things off for the Monarchs with a sharp single down the third base line. Dick Neumann took a base on balls and was advanced by Craig Johnson's single. A wild throw to second by the Carroll catcher, Scott Richardson and a pair of steals by Neumann and Johnson brought a run across the plate for Denison. Wilkins executed the third double play for the Tigers in the past two games to quell the threat.

Jeff Beneke and Denny Vetter were the only Carroll batters to reach base in the first three frames, both on infield errors. Beneke led off in the third with a tap to the second baseman which was juggled and thrown late. Vetter followed up with a grounder to third, but a second error was charged to the Monarchs. Everett and Henning went down on strikes to retire the side.

The Monarchs went scoreless in the second, but ran up two more runs in the third. Larry Cose took a base on balls and advanced on two pass balls. Mike Miller took a free ride to first on balls, stole second, and rode in safely on Jim Simon's clean single over second.

The Bengals finally made the scoring column in the bottom of the fourth with a pair of runs. Den Adel opened things with a walk. Wilkins followed with the solo hit for the Tigers, a clean single to center. A steal and a pass ball at home plate brought the two runners around.

The Monarchs turned on the steam in the fourth and fifth frames, tallying 12 runs on 12 hits. Pitcher, Stoll led off with a long triple to right field. Henningsen's sacrifice fly to center brought Stoll in safely. An error on the Carroll second baseman put Neumann on first. Johnson followed up with his second single of the night. John Sharp was walked by Rogers and Henning was brought on to relieve the lanky hurler. Henning's luck wasn't much better on the mound so Coach Bill Tryon summoned Wilkins from his short-stop position for pitching duties. Wilkins gave up a walk to Simon, but finished up by throwing John Curnyn out at first and striking out Stoll.

Wilkins got himself in trouble in the fifth by walking the first three Denison batters. Successive errors by the Tiger infield added heat to the flame. Wilkins gave two more free rides and a pass ball brought in more runners. Fleneran struck out and Steve McGinn went out at first to end the scoring for the victorious Monarchs. The Tigers will be in action again on Monday, June 19 at Jefferson for a doubleheader.

Elsewhere around the circuit, Jefferson moved into third place in the league standings with a 6-4 decision over Breda. Lake City was scheduled at Audubon, but that game was called because of wet grounds.

Rick Kendall unloaded run-scoring doubles in the first and fifth innings to pace Jefferson past the Bobcats. Dave Carlson, sophomore relief hurler, also got into the doubles act in the fifth as the Rams sacked the game away with a five run explosion.

Breda garnered a first inning tally off of Dean Timmerman's double. The Bobcats broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth and went up 4-1 on three walks and run scoring singles by Gaffney and Reising.

Al Lehman started on the mound for Jefferson and lasted three and one-third frames. Carlson came on to quell the uprising in the fourth and finished off with no hit pitching for three and two-thirds innings.

Only one game is on the league card for Saturday with Perry at Jefferson. The Kuemper Knights were slated to host Fort Dodge in a non-league affair in Carroll at 8 p.m.

Doubleheaders will be the feature next Monday with Breda at Kuemper for two, Denison at Audubon for a pair and Carroll at Jefferson in a twin-bill.

Angels Win Pair On Held's Homers

By The Associated Press

Woddie Held, an old Oriole with new wings, has come straight home to roost...and the feathers are flying in Hank Bauer's not-so-cozy nest.

Held, dealt from Baltimore to California Thursday, smacked a game-winning home run in the first game and a two-run homer in the second Friday night, powering the hot Angels to a 2-1, 5-3 doubleheader sweep over the Orioles.

"You get old sitting on the bench. In fact, I'm old already."

The sweep extended the Angels' winning streak to five games and gave them 10 victories in their last 11. The double setback stretched Baltimore's losing string to five and dropped the defending American League champions into a tie for sixth place.

Last-place Washington edged Boston twice, 1-0 and 4-3, while Cleveland nipped Minnesota 2-1 in 11 innings in the only other AL game played. A scheduled doubleheader between Kansas City and Detroit and a single game between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox were rained out.

Held, a utility infielder-outfielder who had gone hitless in his last 22 at-bats for the Orioles, got into Friday night's opener as a second inning replacement for shortstop Jim Fregosi, who complained of muscle spasms in his back.

After striking out and singling in his first two trips to the plate, Held led off the ninth with a shot into the left field bleachers off left-hander Pete Richert, snapping a 1-1 deadlock. "Nobody said anything to me when I was running the bases," he said. "I didn't smile . . . somebody might hit me in the nose."

In the second game, Held's second homer of the night...and third of the year...staked right-hander Jim McGlothlin to a 2-0 lead. Jose Cardenal also hit a two-run homer as the Angels moved ahead 5-0, but a two-run Baltimore burst in the fifth chased McGlothlin.

Rookie Ken Turner then blanked the Orioles until the ninth, when Frank Robinson unloaded his 19th homer. The Senators started their sweep over Boston behind right-hander Bob Priddy, who blanked the Red Sox for seven innings in his first AL start and squeeze-bunted a run across in the third inning. Dave Baldwin replaced Priddy in the eighth and completed the shutout.

Trailing 3-0 in the ninth inning of the nightcap, Washington closed the gap on run-scoring singles by Frank Howard and Ken McMullen. The Senators tied the score on a bases-loaded throwing error by third baseman Joe Foy, then won it when McMullen beat first baseman George Scott's throw to the plate on a grounder by pinch hitter Paul Casanova.

The Indians broke a 1-1 tie in the 10th when Larry Brown singled, took second on Max Alvis' infield hit and scored on Chuck Hinton's single.

George Washington was the first person to formally propose the creation of a board of agriculture, but it was not until Lincoln's administration in 1862 that the U.S. Department of Agriculture was created, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Palmer Charges To 1st in Open

SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Billy Casper.

Like cream, the three superstars of the game moved to the top in the most prestigious of all the world's golf tournaments, the United States Open Championship, and are poised for the final two climactic rounds today and Sunday.

Palmer, his jaw jutting in determination and his game in harness, looked like the charger of old when he swept over the steaming Baltusrol Golf Club course in a two-under-par 68 Friday for 137 and a one-stroke lead over Nicklaus.

Big Jack, the sweat streaming from his pink face, pounded out a 67 on the sweltering, 7,015 yard layout for 138. He was one stroke up on Casper, the first of the trio in the clubhouse, and appeared unconcerned about the heat, Palmer, Casper or anything else.

The cautious Casper, who beat Palmer in a playoff for the title last year after Arnie's now-famous collapse, took a careful, par 70 for 139 and declined to make a comment.

"I'd rather wait and see what the other guys do," the two-time champion said. Behind him, at 140 came reed-slim Bruce Devlin of Australia, who had a solid 68; rookie pro Deane Beman, who had a 71, and Marty Fleckman, the 23-year-old amateur from Port Arthur, Tex., who led the first round with 67, then went to 73. Don January was alone at 69-72 —141.

Today's pairings have Nicklaus and Palmer as the last two-some away. Casper plays against Devlin and Beman against Fleckman.

Both of the last two rounds are scheduled for national television coverage over ABC. Today's round will be televised from 5:30-7 p.m., EDT, and the final round from 5-7 p.m. Sunday.

In all, 66 of the original field of 150 survived the cut to the low 60 and ties. It took a 148 to make it. Among the major casualties are former Open champions Gene Littler, 151, Tommy Bolt, 149, and Jack Fleck, 149. The contrasting styles of the big three of Palmer, Nicklaus and Casper was more than evident.

Palmer, the golfing millionaire from Latrobe, Pa., was again the charger, challenging the course, gambling, putting body English on every shot and jerking cheers and groans from his vast army.

Nicklaus plodded sedately over the course, looking neither left nor right, except to note distances in his little black book, the book that goes with the swing that makes him perhaps the most feared golfer in the world today.

Casper was bland as ever, and as colorless as the oatmeal he can't eat. He picked up a birdie on the second hole, stumbled to two bogeys on the back nine, then got even again on 17.

"I liked my round," Palmer said. "I hit every green but one and I missed a few fairways. I that failed to fall. But, in all, I liked it."

Houston Slows Arizona State's March in Series

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Houston pitcher Rick Brewer halted Arizona State's unbeaten march in the 21st college world series title with a four-hit 3-0 victory Friday night.

Houston won a drawing at home plate and drew a bye into to the championship finals. Stanford faces Arizona State Saturday night.

It was only the fourth start of the season for Brewer, a senior who was seldom used against the top clubs on the schedule this season. He walked only one, struck out eight and permitted only two runners to reach second base.

Houston slugger Tom Paciorek was three-for-four scored a run and tripled in a tally. Houston 010 200 000-3 6 0 Arizona 000 000 000-0 4 1 Rick Brewer and Larry Strelau; Jeff Pentland and Ron Davini. W—Brewer (4-0). L—Pentland (14-6).

Solid Lead For USC in NCAA Meet

PROVO, Utah (AP)—An unhappy winner and a remorseful loser showered their class in the NCAA Track and Field Championships Friday night, while Southern California began building a solid lead in team competition.

The 46th annual meet ends tonight with finals in 14 events. The unhappy winner was Charlie Greene of Nebraska, who proved his class by winning his third straight NCAA 100-yard dash championship. He did it by beating back a challenge from Southern California sophomore Lennox Miller, who matched him until the final 30 yards.

Greene was clocked in 9.2 seconds. But he questioned the time. He said he felt he ran faster than he did Thursday night, when he tied the world record of 9.1 in a qualifying heat.

"I'd just like to see who got what time," Greene snapped. "It's the little things that have thrown me all my career—just the headline stuff. But I don't worry about it any more."

Ruiz beat out an infield single for Cincinnati's first hit and woke up the Reds with baseball's oldest ruse—the hidden ball trick—spanking a 3-2 victory over the Dodgers.

In other National League action, Chicago shaded New York 4-3 in 10 innings. Atlanta nipped Houston 9-8 in 10 innings. Philadelphia dropped Pittsburgh 5-3 and St. Louis took San Francisco 5-3.

Ruiz purchased his alligator shoes last winter while playing in the Venezuelan League. The Reds' No. 1 handyman, explains his expensive footwear simply. "You sit on the bench, you have to look pretty."

He didn't look so pretty to Roseboro in the second inning Friday night. Ruiz, playing second base, had just taken the throw at first, covering on Singer's sacrifice.

Chico carried the ball with him as he returned to second and before Roseboro knew what was happening, Ruiz played what was happening. Ruiz played what was happening. Ruiz played what was happening.
