Mathews Hits 500th Career HR

By Associated Press If Ed Mathews could call his shots, the Atlanta Braves would be a lot more embarrassed than Juan Marichal today.

"I wish it would have come against the Braves," Mathews said Friday night after smashing the 500th home run of his major league career-a-threerun shot off Marichal that carried Houston to an 8-6 victory

It was the seventh homer of the season for Mathews, who hit 493 in 15 years with the Braves John Donaldson drove in two in Boston, Milwaukee and runs with a pair of singles and Atlanta before being dispatched to the Astros in a winter trade.

The 35-year-old third baseman thus became the seventh member of the elite 500 club, joining the Giants' Willie Mays and the New York Yankees' Mickey Mantle as the only active players who have reached the magic Babe Ruth heads the all-time list with 714 lifetime homers. Mays has 555, Jimmy Foxx, 534, Ted Williams, 521, Mantle, 512, and Mel Ott, 511.

Elsewhere in the National League, Cincinnati nipped the New York Mets 1-0 in 10 innings, St. Louis edged Pittsburgh 2-1, Atlanta topped Philadelphia 4-2 and Los Angeles downed the Chicago Cubs 5-2.

Mathews connected on Marichal's first pitch following singles by Jim Wynn and Rusty Staub in the sixth inning, giving the Astros a 6-4 lead they never relinquished. Rookie Norm Miller had tagged Marichal for a three-run homer in the fourth, helping foil the Giant ace's bid

Although confident he can surpass Ott's homer total this year, Mathews expects to see future. "No matter how many homers you hit," he said, "some one else will come along to pass
