Jim Middendorf, Kuemper's sophomore pitching star, 2 Times Herald, Carroll, la. avenged an early season setback as he pinned a 3-1 defeat on Fort Dodge with a nifty three-hitter here Friday night.

The non-league triumph hiked Kuemper's season record to 12-3 and sent the Dodgers home with a 7-11 mark.

Coach Lou Galetich shook up the Kuemper line-up for the second straight night, and the new-look Lancers responded with their best game of the lacked a foot of clearing the season. In a contest that zipped fence. With Badding at second to conclusion in one and a on a stand-up double. Schroedquarter hour, the shining light er chopped a grounder toward was the new outfield alignment | third base and the ball hopped with Terry Schroeder and Mike past both the third baseman Neary flanking dazzling Dave and short stop and Badding Daeges in centerfield.

Mike Neary supplied the game-winning blow with a two-run single in the sixth. Daeges came up with the defensive gems. Dave Schmitz and Joe Badding supplied the extra-base hitting power.

Kuemper waited until the fifth, and then the Knights go back on an even keel.

Badding blasted a towering drive to left field and the ball scored the tie run with ease.

Schmitz, who had tripled in the first and then got stranded at third, led off the bottom of the sixth with a walk and stole second with Louie Billmeier at the plate. control trouble in the seventh frame. He started the inning by walking Edmundson and Tim Trace. Bass came in as a pinchhitter for Goodman and lived on a fielder's choice with a grounder back to the mound as Middendorf got Edmundson on the force at third.

Dave Tuttle came in as a pinch-hitter for Steve Sears and was plunked by an inside pitch to load the sacks with one down. Spittal went down on strikes for the second out. Dangerous Del Blankenhagen, Dodger lead-off batter, represented the last hope for the visitors and he belted a long shot to left field where Schroeder gathered it in for the final

The first of the three hits allowed by Middendorf was garnered by Trace, hitting sixth in the order, in the sec-1 ond inning. He singled to center on what appeared to be a cinch double, but the fleet-footed Daeges flagged the ball down as it headed for the fence and forced the astounded batter to make a hurried retreat to first o base.
