Bluejays Blank Tigers, 8-0

PERRY - The Perry Blueays exhibited near-faultless de fensive baseball and scattered eleven hits to blank the Car roll Tigers, 8-0, in a West Cenral League showdown here Monday evening.

Ron Pennington went the distance on the mound for the Bluejays, allowing seven Carroll hits. Bruce Pettitt took his turn in the mound rotation for the Tigers, but the Carroll hurler couldn't stop Perry's sharp hitting attack and was forced to turn the mound duties over to relief pitcher, Roger Fuller, after allowing eight runs over the plate on eleven hits. Only two of Perry's eight runs were

The Perry club added another run in the next frame on a pair Frazier's relentless, buzz-saw of singles by Jeff Miner and Pennington.

The spirited Tigers began to put the pressure on in the top of the fifth. Roger Fuller led off with a slow tap between shortstop and third that lived for a base hit. Ron Anderson's sacrifice bunt pushed Fuller to second, and Gary Lehrkamp's one-bagger to right SULPHUR shoved Fuller into scoring position at third. The Carroll hopes were short-lived, however, as was quickly fielded and thrown this spring by W. T. (Wes) to first, and a throw from first to home nailed Fuller for the third out.
