

Kuemper Mark 8-1 With 6-1 Win Over Tigers

The Kuemper Knights squandered numerous scoring opportunities but managed to tally six runs on eight hits for a 6-1 victory over the Carroll Tigers here Monday night.

The win kept Kuemper's Mid-West Conference record unblemished at 5-0 and hiked the season mark to 8-1.

Kuemper will be back in conference action again on Wednesday with a trek to Perry and will return home Friday to host Lake City.

Bill Henkenius, Kuemper's junior southpaw, bested Carroll High's hard-throwing Doug Peterson, a sophomore, in the game here Monday. Henkenius yielded five hits but set down 12 Tigers via the strike-out route. The Knights broke through in the first frame with a single run on one lone hit. Don Baldus led off with a single to center and took second on a passed ball. Jerry Hermesen grounded to first and was safe on a fielder's choice when the Tigers were unsuccessful in an attempt to get Baldus at third.

Hermesen chalked up the first of three base thefts when he fled to second. Rich Golwitzer lived on another fielder's choice.

The sacks were jammed when Henkenius drew a walk to force Baldus home with the first run. Steve Auen chopped a grounder to the mound and was safe on a third fielder's choice in the initial frame when Hermesen was thrown out at the plate.

With the bases still loaded with Knights, Jim Nurse was called out on strikes and Pat Riddle went down swinging.

The Knights picked up the ultimate winning run with a pair in the third. Hermesen led off with a single to left and stole second.

After Golwitzer fanned, Henkenius singled to plate Hermesen and continued to third base when the throw home was cut off and a subsequent attempt to pick-off. The threat was quelled on a tap to the mound for the third out.

Carroll High got to Henkenius for three hits and a run in the fifth. Ron Anderson led off with an infield dribbler down the third base line. Gary Lehrkamp fanned, but Bob Baudier kept things alive with a single. Then Wayne Hill popped to short.

Pettitt drilled a pitch off the outside corner into right field and the Tigers had their first and last run. Brechler ended the inning with a smash to the mound and was thrown out at first.

The Knights came back with a two-run salvo in the bottom of the fifth. Nurse was safe on a pop single to short right when the second baseman and right fielder lost the ball and it dropped between them. Nurse advanced on a ground-out and took third on a wild pitch. Dentlinger walked and stole second.

With two down, Schmitz singled to center and was safe on a fielder's choice when the Tigers were unsuccessful in an attempt to get Baldus at third.

Orioles Rally To 9-8 Win Over Sox

By The Associated Press

The television reception was fine, thank you, but the Baltimore Orioles weren't exactly enjoying the program plot. So nobody squawked when their monitor show of Monday night's game against Boston was shut off in the second inning.

They should have left the monitor on. The show got interesting later.

The Orioles, perhaps too busy watching the TV, spotted Boston six runs in the first inning and then rallied twice—after the tube was turned off and they could concentrate on the game—to overtake the Red Sox 9-8 in a nationally televised game Monday night.

Elsewhere in the abbreviated American League schedule, Oakland nipped Kansas City (2-1) and Minnesota edged Milwaukee (4-3).

The Orioles' TV set was sitting on the third step of their dugout, giving the Baltimore players instant replays, slow motion and stop action of Boston's six-run first inning which included a towering home run by Carl Yastrzemski and four unearned runs.

A Red Sox official complained about the set in the second inning and it was shut off. Too bad. The Baltimore bench would have enjoyed the five-run seventh inning with homers by Curt Motton and Chico Salmon moving the Orioles into a 6-6 tie.

Boston battled back, taking a modest two-run bulge on Tony Conigliaro's seventh inning homer and an eighth inning run built around singles by Mike Andrews and Billy Conigliaro and an infield out.

But in the ninth Boog Powell doubled with one out and scored on Merv Rettenmund's single. Paul Blair doubled and Brooks Robinson walked, loading the bases for Frank Robinson, who doubled home the deciding runs.

It was the fifth straight victory for the Orioles, who now lead the American League East by 3½ games. Minnesota, front-runner in the West, opened its lead to 4½ games by knocking off Milwaukee.

Thirty years ago Eddie Popowski, third base coach for the Boston Red Sox, played second base for the House of David team.

Cards And Bucs Split Twin Bill

By The Associated Press

Outside of the fact that they've both made two major league starts, have 2-0 career records, pitched complete game victories Monday night, don't mind challenging the hitters and served military reserve duty early this season, rookies Jerry Reuss and Jim Nelson are as different as night and day.

Reuss, a 6-foot-5, 200-pound blond lefty, scattered nine hits as St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 6-1 in the opener of a two-night doubleheader. Nelson, a 6-foot, 180-pound dark-haired right-hander, then took the mound for the Pirates and blanked the Cardinals 1-0 in the 10-inning nightcap.

In other National League action, San Francisco outslugged Cincinnati (13-6), Los Angeles downed Atlanta (4-2), the New York Mets trimmed the Chicago Cubs (9-5), Philadelphia took two from Montreal (4-0) and (3-2) and Houston beat San Diego (4-1).

The Cards made it easy for Reuss, who was making his first 1970 appearance but pitched seven innings of two-hit ball to beat Montreal last year in his other big league game. They ripped into Dock Ellis for five runs in the second inning, handing him his second straight defeat since he hurled a no-hitter against San Diego.

Reuss worked out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the fifth by getting Freddie Patek on a short fly and Matly Alou on a pop to the infield.

Alou got revenge in the second game, driving in the only run with a single after Gene Alley led off the 10th with a single off reliever Frank Linzy and was sacrificed to second.

It was the first complete game for Nelson since July 1968, a year he spent in the Eastern League. He developed arm trouble in spring training that year and has been plagued by it off and on ever since.
