

Tiger Win Streak To 5 On Brechler 1-Hitter

DOW CITY — Steve Brechler, Carroll's one-man baseball exhibition, personally ran roughshod over the Dow City-Arion Greyhounds in a non-loop clash here Wednesday evening. The Tiger stalwart drove in seven runs with a grand slam and a three-run homer, and stopped the Greyhounds cold with a one-hit mound performance as the Carroll club extended its winning streak to five games with an 11-1 victory.

was mangled by the Tigers, 10-0, a week ago, is plagued by inexperience, according to Greyhound manager, Ray Beck, a former CHS athlete. "This is our first year in baseball and we don't have a little league program to back us up," Beck lamented before the game. Beck pointed to the number of young ball players on his Boyer Valley team.

But the Carroll club did not seem to have much sympathy for the Dow City-Arion woes, as they exploded for four runs in the top of the first frame. Ron Anderson and Bruce Pettitt led off for the Tigers with back-to-back doubles before Brechler fanned for the first out. Doug Peterson cracked a single up the center to plate the first two tallies.

Jim DeBower got into the power-hitting act with a two-bagger down the third base line to score Peterson for the third run. Wayne Hill went down on strikes for the second out and Bob Baudler drew a pass to join DeBower on the sacks. Randy Plotz pulled a single past first base to plate DeBower for the fourth run and Gary Lehrkamp whiffed for the final out.

The Greyhounds could not get a man on the bases through the first four innings and the Tigers were not having much better luck after their initial rally. The Carroll batting order went down in succession during the second and third frames, but the scorekeepers got busy again in the fourth as the Tigers mounted another four-run outburst.

Lehrkamp opened the way for the rally with a sharp crack down third base line and Anderson followed with a one-bagger to right field. Pettitt drew a pass to jam the sacks with Tigers, and Brechler unloaded the gilded grand slam over the right-center field fence to push the Carroll lead to eight runs.

Both teams mounted unsuccessful threats in the fifth frame. Hill and Baudler rapped consecutive singles and advanced on a pair of passed balls, but both baserunners were stranded. In the Dow City-Arion half of the inning, Wayne Malone and Clayton Keiner walked in succession and advanced on a passed ball and sacrifice, but again the baserunners were left on the sacks.

Brechler got Carroll into the scoring column again in the top of the sixth inning. Anderson led off with a base on balls and Pettitt smacked his second double of the evening. Brechler smashed a long one over the left fielder's head and raced around the bases with a three-run, inside-the-park home run.

The Greyhounds finally forced their way into the scoring column in the bottom of the sixth after Tom Sharp spoiled Brechler's no-hit bid with a single over third base. A pair of passed balls sent Sharp around to scoring position. Dan Sharp's tap to third base was muffed and Tom Sharp scrambled over the plate for the lone Dow City-Arion tally.

The game was discontinued after the sixth inning with the Tigers on the top end of an 11-1 margin.

Dual Sites For City Golf Meet

The first annual Carroll City golf tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, September 12 and 13. Play for the tournament will be held on both the Municipal and Carroll Country Club courses.

All golfers must enter the tournament at the Municipal course clubhouse. Entries will close September 10.

Any golfer can declare himself in the championship flight. The entry fee for the championship flight will be $6.

A $4 entry fee will be charged for the 10 "lower" flights. Lower flight players will play nine holes each day at both courses, for a total of 36 holes. A drawing will be held after the first day's play Saturday to determine if the round at the Municipal course or the round at the Country Club will be used as the qualifying round.

The city championship will be decided over 45 holes of play. The championship flight will play nine holes at both courses on Saturday and nine at the Country Club and 18 at the Municipal on Sunday.

After 36 holes of play, the low 16 and ties will play the final nine holes at the Municipal course to determine the champion. The remainder of the original championship flight entries will go into the President's flight for the final nine holes of play.

Separate trophies and prizes will be awarded the top finishers in both the championship and President's flights.

The finishing round for this year's championship will be awarded to the Municipal course on a flip of the coin. In 1971, 18 holes of the final day's play will be held on the Country Club course and nine at the Municipal course.

89ers Rap Iowans, 8-4

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Oklahoma City 89ers blasted Iowa righthander Fred Talbot for five runs in the seventh inning Wednesday night to come from behind and down the Oaks 8-4 in American Association baseball.

Two singles and an intentional walk loaded the bases, and Larry Howard's single put the 89ers ahead 5-4, when Derrel Thomas and Rich Chiles crossed the plate.

Talbot had retired eight men in a row until the roof fell in, and things got worse—three runs worse.

Iowa had scored three runs in the third after an opening-frame score, and the 89ers could manage only two in the second and another in the fifth.

Best nine-hole score on the 1969 PGA golf tour was turned in by Charles Sifford in the Los Angeles Open. He shot a 28.

ARCADIA DEFEATS WILLEY

Phil Collison's base hit netted Arcadia's slow-pitch softballers a 8-7 win over Willey in an 8-inning game Wednesday night. Arcadia will put a record of 8-2 on the line against Gray at Arcadia on Monday at 9 p.m. The Arcadia girls' team will play a team from Carroll in the curtain-raiser at 7 p.m.

Jim Hart Ties 59-Year Old Record

By The Associated Press

Attention National League pitchers! Jim Ray Hart's back from the minors and the once-feared hitting star is again wielding a big bat.

Hart, recalled from Phoenix earlier in the week when Jim Davenport retired, staged a slightly delayed celebration Wednesday night by driving in six runs in one inning to equal a 59-year-old National League record as the San Francisco Giants bombed the Atlanta Braves 13-0.

Troubled most of last year by a shoulder injury, Hart was shipped to Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League by the Giants during spring training. He appeared in a San Francisco uniform for the first time in the 1970 campaign Tuesday night and was hitless in four appearances. He more than made up for it Wednesday night.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets opened up a 1½-game East Division lead over Pittsburgh by beating St. Louis 7-5 as the Pirates fell 2-0 to Philadelphia; San Diego defeated Cincinnati 3-1, Los Angeles edged Houston 6-5 and the Chicago Cubs split a twin bill with Montreal, winning the first game 5-1 and dropping the nightcap 5-4.

In the American League, it was Cleveland 6, Washington 5; Baltimore 9, New York 8; Detroit 3, Boston 2; Chicago 2, Milwaukee 1; Minnesota 8, Oakland 1, and California 3, Kansas City 2.

"It's great to be back," chorled Hart after his Wednesday night performance, which included a single, double, triple and home run in five at bats.

"Six RBI — that's a week's work in one inning," said Atlanta slugger Hank Aaron and Luman Harris, the Braves' manager, added: "You mean the record he tied was set in 1911? It's hard to believe that anyone could get six RBIs in one inning with the dead ball they played with back then."

The NL inning record for RBI was set May 13, 1911, by Fred C. Merkle of the old New York Giants. The major league record is seven, by Edward Cartwright of St. Louis in 1890 when the second loop was known as the American Association.

Since the formation of the American League in 1901, six players have driven in six runs in a single inning. Hart is only the second NL player to achieve the feat.

Hart had seven RBI for the evening. He had an RBI single in the third and his six RBI featured the Giants' 11-run fifth. He homered with two on in his first trip to the plate in the inning and when he came back up again later in the inning he smashed a bases-loaded triple.

The Mets, in beating the Cards, racked up their sixth straight victory, longest winning streak for the defending world champs this season. Rookie Ken Singleton's third-inning homer with two on put the Mets out front to stay after St. Louis had gone ahead 3-0. Carl Taylor homered for the Cards.

Deron Johnson's ninth-inning homer with one on broke up a scoreless pitching duel between Philadelphia's Rick Wise and Pittsburgh's Steve Blass. It was Johnson's 16th clout of the season and the fourth off Blass. Wise also yielded four hits.

Cincinnati's four-game victory skein was snapped by the Padres but the Reds still maintain an 8½-game West Division lead. San Diego's runs all came in the third with Clarence Gaston and Ollie Brown hitting run scoring singles and Steve Huntz scoring on a Cincinnati error.

The Dodgers exploded for five runs in the ninth to beat Atlanta with Maury Wills' pinch double driving in a pair. The Cubs' first-game victory over Montreal was highlighted by two-run homers by Ron Santo and Billy Williams.

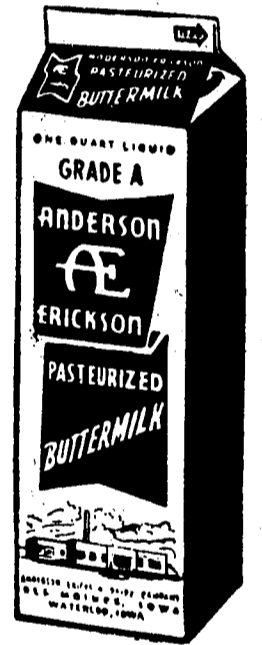

John Bocabella's pinch single drove in two runs in the eighth to give the Expos the nightcap triumph.

Bill Young, a starting forward for West State's varsity basketball team last season, is coaching the Nittany Lion freshman basketball team.
