Testraining orders, but only against the attorney general. Greiner told the court he was told "by my county attorney" that there would be steps taken to halt any alleged gambling activities because of Turner's announcement that the games should be stopped.

"But regardless of what happens to me in this suit," Turner asked Greiner, "your county attorney might still close you down?"

"Yes, that's a possibility," Greiner conceded.

"And yet you haven't sued him — you've sued me," Turner charged."
