Hempstead Takes Over AA Lead

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Dubuque Hempstead and Northe second Iowa high school baseball poll of the season.

The ratings are compiled by Chuck Burdick of the Des Moines Register with the assistance of the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Association.

Defending Class AA champion Hempstead moves to first in the large school rankings, replacing perennial powerhouse Council Bluffs Jefferson.

The latter suffered its first loss to an Iowa team this summer in losing to Sioux City Heelan 8-7 in the Wakefield, Neb., Invitational. Hempstead won four games last week. Rounding out the Top Ten in Class AA are Fort Dodge, Sioux City Heelan, Des Moines

Wiese Hit Lifts Manning, 3-1

Manning hosts Dow City at 8 p.m. Wednesday before swinging into conference action Friday against Audubon. Monday night's game was unusual in at least one respect: A coach won an argument with an umpire.

After Manning had apparently picked Gary Luchtel off first base in the raised his record to 1-1. pitching the only two Bulldogs fifth, Edwards stormed onto the field to protest. He Carroll's record fell to 1-1 as claimed the home plate it prepares for a home contest umpire had called the ball with Scranton Wednesday at 8 dead. The base umpire was over-ruled by his partner and Luchtel remained on first. The argument paid off. Luchtel later scored Carroll's only run when Lehrkamp belted a bases-loaded single. Wiese's run-scoring double in the second came after a pair of Tiger infield errors let Marc Arp and Bob Johnson reach base.

The other Bulldog run came in the fifth when Johnson drew a walk and pinch runner Scott Stripling stole a base and scored on an error. Box Score: .
