LeMars got what proved to be the winning run in the fifth as Tom Lorenzen reached base on a fielder's choice. Then Dale Arens lined a two-out triple down the right field line to score Lorenzen for a 2-1 lead that held up.

Carroll had a good chance to tie things in their fifth as Randy Heller led off with a towering double to right. He moved to third on a ground out, but Arens got tough and ended the inning by fanning Lengeling and Kruse.

The All-Stars, who finish tournament play at 4-2, got excellent pitching from Lengeling. The tall right hander yielded just four hits and fanned three.

The winners sent batters to the plate in the sixth when they scored five times. The big hits in the inning were run-scoring singles by Marty Snyder and Steve Nieland.

Steinkamp, who has been bothered by a sore shoulder, struck out seven in pitching the first four frames. The only hits off him were a triple to Lonny Lehrkamp in the fourth and a single by Jim Petersen in the second.

Nieland relieved Steinkamp in the fifth and was hardly touchable. He fanned seven batters and allowed only one base runner, Brad Edwards. who was hit by a pitch in the sixth inning.

Eric Siemer didn't pitch bad for Carroll. The sophomore lefty allowed seven hits and fanned four. Four Tiger errors didn't help his effort.
