Carroll Rips Manning in 5

Todd Pettitt scattered four hits as the Carroll Tigers snapped a three-game losing streak here Monday night as they whipped Manning, 10-0.

The Tigers, now 8-7 on the year, who face Kuemper tonight in a city rematch, avenged an earlier season loss to the Bulldogs, now 3-10.

The Tigers jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first as second

Carroll made it 3-0 in the third as Lehrkamp doubled to left center to drive home the walking Brad Edwards to make it 2-0 and the third run came home as Eric Siemer's fly ball to left was dropped by Jay Drees.

The Tigers wrapped things up in the final two frames with seven runs.

The big blow in the fourth was a two-run single by Edwards and the key hit in the fifth was an infield hit by Todd Buck that made it 10-0.

Lehrkamp led for Carroll in the game by going 2-for-2 and driving in three runs.

Big Red Machine Beats Phils For Fourth Straight

By The Associated Press

The Big Red Machine is in high gear, rolling along so smoothly that even the man at the controls can't quite believe it.

"It's incredible," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson after his Reds' latest triumph, a 7-3 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies Monday night. That gave Cincinnati four wins in a row, seven in the last eight games and an amazing record of 35 victories in 44 outings dating back to May 21.

"No one is supposed to win like that," added Anderson. But the Reds are doing it, and as a result have opened a gaping 8-1/2-game bulge over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League West.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Chicago Cubs 5-0, the New York Mets beat the Atlanta Braves 3-1, the Houston Astros defeated the Montreal Expos 5-1 and the St. Louis Cardinals outscored the San Francisco Giants 8-6.

What turned the Reds, stumbling along at the .500 mark seven weeks ago, into the winning team in the majors? "You've got to go back to the move — shifting Pete Rose to the third," said Anderson. "It's not just that one thing, but that set off a lot of other things that happened. Getting George Foster's bat in there has been tremendous."

Foster got his 15th homer against the Phils, a two-run shot over the center field fence in the seventh inning that broke the game open.

But the big blast of the game came in the first inning, off the bat of Tony Perez. The Reds' slugging first baseman got hold of a Steve Carlton delivery and deposited it in the upper tier of Riverfront Stadium, more than 500 feet away.

Astros 5, Expos 1

Houston got only four hits against Montreal, but all came in the fourth inning when the Astros sent 10 men to the plate and scored all their runs. Wilbur Howard's two-run single capped the uprising in support of Larry Dierker, who scattered eight hits.

Mets 3, Braves 1

Home runs by Rusty Staub and Dave Kingman backed the six-hit pitching of rookie Hank Webb, who posted his second major league victory — both over Atlanta.

"I needed this game," said Webb. "It's my first complete game in the big leagues, and it builds my confidence. There are such good pitchers on this staff, when I do get in I like to contribute."

Cards 8, Giants 6

Ted Simmons drove in three runs and Luis Melendez triple highlighted a four-run first inning for the Cards, who collected six hits off Giants starter Mike Caldwell, 5-8, in the opening inning.

Afterwards, Giants Manager Wes Westrum became enraged at a question put to him by a local reporter, shouted and cursed at the writer and had him ejected from the San Francisco clubhouse.

Ruffian Buried

Ruffian, the fabulous filly whose life was filled with the sounds of cheering and victory, has been laid to rest in the quiet of darkness.

Ruffian was buried at Belmont Park Monday night before a small, subdued gathering that included her trainer, Frank Whiteley, and her last rider, Jacinto Vasquez.

"Frank Whiteley requested that we make it as private as possible and we think that is only right," said New York Racing Association Board Chairman Jack Dreyfus Jr. Only a few friends of racing came to watch Ruffian's private burial at Belmont, the site of her final, abortive race. The digging, done by an automatic crane, began at sundown and ended 90 minutes later in the dead of night as Ruffian was lowered into the ground on Belmont's infield.

The burial party dropped a bouquet of roses into the grave, the final resting place for the filly said by many to be the best ever to grace a racing program.

Robbins Returning

Country music singer Marty Robbins reportedly has decided to return to Grand National automobile racing.

Robbins had said in early May he was giving up racing, a hobby, because it was too dangerous. He had been involved in a crash a few days earlier at the Talladega 500.

He was unavailable for comment Monday, but a spokesman at his office said he was wavering about a decision. He also said he has ordered a new race car from Cotton Owens, who has built his cars previously.

Forbes Enters Not Guilty Plea in Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — "It seems like being arrested and taken to court for a parking ticket," said Boston Bruins' hockey player Dave Forbes.

Forbes, 26, entered a not-guilty plea to an aggravated assault charge in Hennepin County District Court Monday, then watched the rigorous process of selecting a dozen jurors to decide his fate.

"I'm just looking forward to when it'll be all over," said Forbes. "It isn't any vacation with something like this hanging over you."

The Forbes case, which is the first of its kind in professional sports, stems from a Jan. 4 incident when he allegedly butted former Minnesota North Stars' player Henry Boucha in the eye with a hockey stick.

"I can't believe I'd ever have wound up in a courtroom for something that happened in a hockey game," said Forbes. "Sure I think about jail."

Forbes, who was suspended from 10 games without pay by National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell following the altercation with Boucha, faces a maximum penalty of five years in jail and a $5,000 fine if convicted.

"All kinds of things have gone through my mind, but I've gotten a lot of support from my parents, friends and teammates, which has helped tremendously."

Forbes' defense is in the hands of widely known Minneapolis trial lawyer Ronald Meshbesher and co-counsel Joe Keough of Boston.

"I can't imagine that our legislature envisioned that the assault statutes would be applicable to any type of professional athletic contest," said Meshbesher, who unsuccessfully asked for dismissal of the indictment.

"If that's true, then everyone who engages in boxing is guilty of assault every time they punch the other participant."

Milwaukee Rookie Keys 4-3 Triumph

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee's Bob Sheldon and Boston's Jim Willoughby, who were in the minors last week, made major contributions to their new teams Monday night.

Second baseman Sheldon, who committed a costly error in the fourth inning, singled home one run in the fifth and two more in the sixth, lifting the Brewers to a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals.

Meanwhile, Willoughby came on in the seventh inning of the Red Sox' 6-3 triumph over the Minnesota Twins, struck out Eric Soderholm with two runners aboard and went on to earn his first save, fanning five in two and one-third innings.

Elsewhere in the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Texas Rangers 5-2 to remain one game behind Boston and one percentage point ahead of Milwaukee in the East Division, the Oakland A's trimmed the Cleveland Indians 7-3 and the Detroit Tigers edged the Chicago White Sox 2-1. Baltimore and California were not scheduled.

Sheldon's error helped Kansas City score all three runs in the fourth inning — two on a single by Cookie Rojas — for a 3-1 lead, but he made up for it with his clutch hit off Al Fitzmorris.

Red Sox 6, Twins 3

Jim Rice belted a three-run homer as the Red Sox scored four times off Jim Hughes in the first inning. Jim Burton, who relieved Rick Wise in the seventh, issued a single and walk, putting two Minnesota runners aboard and bringing up the dangerous Soderholm. Willoughby not only struck out Soderholm to end that inning, but fanned him again to end the game after the Twins scored a run in the ninth.

Yankees 5, Rangers 2

Home runs by Roy White, Graig Nettles and Jim Mason and run-scoring singles by Nettles and Rich Coggins rallied the Yankees to victory after Texas nicked Doc Medich for both their runs in the first inning on Jeff Burroughs' two-run single.

Tigers 2, White Sox 1

Tom Walker, 3-6, scattered eight hits and outduelled Chicago's Jim Kautz, 13-5, who was named to the AL All-Star team earlier in the day. The only run off Walker, 3-6, was Ken Henderson's homer in the second inning. Detroit scored both runs in the fourth.
