Steffes Paces Tigers, 7-2

By Paul Holley
Mark Steffes' first-inning two-run homer set the pace as the Tigers romped over Lake City 7-2 in Midwest Conference baseball Friday night.

The inside-the-park hit which brought in Brad Edwards was Steffes' second home run of the season.

Two other runs were also scored in the high flying inning. The first of a double by Edwards brought in Todd Buck. Eric Siemer's fielder's choice scored Jim Petersen

Lake City's hits, although few and far between, did provide some action. Scott Hucka blasted a two-run triple in the fifth only to be tagged out at home.

Center fielder Tim Roller chalked up a third-inning double but was left on base.

Carroll's second bout of scoring came in the fourth inning when Edwards' second double of the evening brought in Tom Reiman and Buck. Gary Luchtel tripled earlier in the inning and later scored on a passed ball.

Edwards held the mound for Carroll giving up five hits, walking two and striking out six.

Lake City's Craig Rock gave up eight hits, walked one and struck out five in six innings.

Errors did not cause much difficulty for either team in the contest. Carroll committed two and Lake City tumbled only once.

Tiger Coach Ted Edwards was pleased with his team's 16-1 performance. "Brad Edwards pitched well even though he gave up several hits," he said. "I was real happy to see Steffes' second home run."

Carroll will travel to Lansing tonight for a return Midwest Conference contest.

Finley Says He'll Battle With Kuhn

OAKLAND (AP) — Explosive Charles O. Finley capitulated to his Oakland A's baseball players while vowing there will be no surrendering of his stand against Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

Minutes before his A's were slated to strike on Sunday, after a close vote authorizing a walkout, Finley made the move that automatically called it off. He finally gave permission for Joe Rudi, Rollie Fingers and Vida Blue to play.

Relief pitcher Fingers shared the hero honors with veteran third baseman Sal Bando, who kept two homers and drove in three runs as the A's beat Minnesota 5-3.

Finley had sold outfielder Rudi and pitchers Fingers and Blue on June 15 only to have Kuhn void the deal and send the three back to Oakland. Finley wouldn't allow Manager Chuck Tanner to play them, saying it might be an admission by the owner that he hadn't truly made the sales.

He asked $10 million in damages from the commissioner.

But when he kept the trio on the bench, the players threatened the walkout, saying that action was unfair to the 22 remaining since they'd had to take up the slack.

With the strike slated for 1:30 p.m., PDT, the Finley announcement came right at that time.

"Everybody gave a cheer," said pitcher and player representative Jim Todd, who said the strike situation made him as nervous as he had ever been — much more nervous than in a game.

Finley maintains he'll win his big damage suit and also get the sales approved by the courts — Rudi and Fingers to the Boston Red Sox at a million-dollar price tag each and Blue to the New York Yankees for $1.5 million.

Kuhn ruled those big prices and the sale of three stars simultaneously weren't in the best interest of the game.

On the matter of the sale, the players back their owner even though there have been many clashes in the past involving the outspoken Finley.

The player representative said the A's voted to strike even though Executive Director Marvin Miller of the Players' Association advised against it. The two were on the phone when Manager Tanner announced that Rudi would be in Sunday's starting lineup.

The outfielder didn't get a hit, but turned in four catches in left field — two of them outstanding.

With Oakland leading 4-0, the Twins staged a three-run rally in the sixth and had two on with two out when Tanner called in Fingers. He got Larry Hisle to bounce back to the mound with his first pitch. Then he finished up to notch his ninth victory.

"I didn't know if I could go that long in this heat after the layoff," said Fingers, the outstanding player in the 1974 World Series. "I was a little nervous at first, but after getting Hisle, I wasn't nervous anymore. I'd been warming up every other day but that isn't like being in a game."

Blue isn't sure when he'll pitch.

Embargo Lifted on Three Athletics as Club Beats Twins

By The Associated Press
A bright, sunny day in Oakland was being completely ignored by at least two men who had very serious matters on their minds. Jim Todd, A's player representative, stood in the A's clubhouse and Marvin Miller sat in his New York home 3,000 miles away.

Two other runs were also scored in the high flying inning. The first of a double by Edwards brought in Todd Buck. Eric Siemer's fielder's choice scored Jim Petersen run on Tom Veryzer's fielder's choice grounder in the 11th inning and Dan Myer followed with a run-scoring single, carrying the Tigers to their unorthodox victory over the Red Sox.

Detroit Manager Ralph Houk raised some eyebrows by mistakenly listing two designated hitters in his lineup card. Rusty Staub was slated to bat fourth and Alex Johnson sixth — both as DH.

"I just goofed," Houk said. But after Staub batted in the top of the first inning and Johnson to right field in the bottom half, Red Sox Manager Darrell Johnson protested — successfully — to umpire Marty Springstead. As a result, pitcher Frank MacCormack became the first Tigers hurler to bat during a regular season game since 1972.

Yankees 6-10, Brewers 2-2
Mickey Rivers had four hits over-all, extending his hitting streak to 20 games, and Graig Nettles hit two home runs and drove in five in the nightcap to give the Yankees their fifth victory in a row and the 12th in 14 games.

Catfish Hunter raised his record to 9-7 in the first game and Dick Tidrow — in his first start since Sept. 20, 1974 — raised his to 3-0 in the nightcap. Sparky Lyle saved both ends, lifting his total to 15 for the campaign.

Indians 6-2, Orioles 3-6
Baltimore's Ross Grimsley won the nightcap, recording his first victory in six weeks after Cleveland's Pat Dobson had stretched his winning string to six by winning the opener.

Bobby Grich, who left seven runners stranded in the opener, atoned with a two-run single in the nightcap.

Frank Robinson blasted his 585th career homer in the nightcap.

Royals 5, Angels 4
John Mayberry's bases-loaded, 11th-inning single gave Kansas City its triumph over California.

White Sox 6, Rangers 2
Rookie third baseman Kevin Bell cracked a two-run homer to back the combined seven-hit pitching of Bart Johnson and Dave Hamilton to pace Chicago's triumph over Texas.

Bill Russell and Rodriguez singled for one run. Mota followed with a pinch-hit single, giving the Dodgers an 8-6 lead. The Dodgers added three runs in the eighth, two on Lee Lacy's bases-loaded single, Don Sutton, 7-7, earned the victory while Mike Caldwell, 0-5, took the loss.

Phillies 6, Cardinals 2
Catcher Bob Boone cracked his first major league grand slam homer and pitcher Jim Lonborg became the major league's second 10-game winner of the season as Philadelphia defeated St. Louis.

In the fourth, with the Phillies batting around in an inning for the 19th time this season, Boone smacked an 0-1 pitch over the left-field screen to cap a six-run explosion. Lonborg, who was lifted with two out and the bases loaded in the sixth, raised his record to 10-4. Randy Jones of San Diego leads the majors with 13 triumphs.

Mets 13, Cubs 3
Mike Phillips homered for the third successive game and Ed Kranepool hit a two-run homer in a club record-tying, eight-run second inning as New York humbled Chicago.

Phillips and Dave Kingman each delivered two-run singles, in the big second as the Mets equalled their biggest inning, last accomplished in 1970 against San Francisco. It also was the biggest inning in the National League this season.

Reds 4, Astros 2
Pete Rose drove in two runs and Cesar Geronimo scored twice and had three hits, leading Cincinnati past Houston, Fred Norman, 6-1, checked Houston on four hits over the first seven innings in beating the Astros for the 10th time in 13 career decisions. Rawly Eastwick hurled the final two innings.

Connors Poised to Win Singles Title

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Jimmy Connors began the second week of Wimbledon today poised to regain the men's singles title he lost to Arthur Ashe last year.

Or could this be the year for an outsider to steal the title from the big names?

Certainly Connors showed devastating form last week, slamming his way past four opponents without losing a set. It was almost as if he couldn't wait to get back onto center court and make up for last year's lapse.

Defending champion Ashe, 32, crashed out of the championships Saturday when — a victim of heat, tension and poor volleying — he was upset by unseeded Vitas Gerulaitis of New York, a blond-haired dynamo who outlasted him 4-6, 8-9, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

But even as Britain's bookmakers tightened the odds on a Connors victory, a dark horse loomed ever larger on the horizon of the world's greatest grass court tournament.

His name: Charles Pasarell, an unseeded 32-year-old veteran from Puerto Rico, who has pulled off the two most dramatic triumphs of the championships.

First he ousted No. 5 seed Adriano Panatta of Italy in a gripping five-set duel, then dropped the first two sets against Australia's Phil Dent before winning the next three and entering the quarter-finals.

He was due to face Ilie Nastase of Romania, the third seed. Ashe had been the No. 1 seed and Connors No. 2.

"I guess I'd have to put my money on Connors or Nastase for the title," said a disappointed Ashe after being knocked out of the $280,000 tournament.

"But Charlie Pasarell is a dark horse, especially if they put him on the center court. When he plays on the center court it seems to bring the best out of him and he raises his game 50 per cent."

"But if he plays on court No. 15, he's just Charlie."

Another quarter-finalist — Bjorn Borg of Sweden — also named Pasarell as a dark horse.

"He's playing very well and he's already beaten two good players," said Borg. "He's very dangerous."

Borg, the No. 4 seed, needed a pain-killing injection for a groin injury before beating America's Brian Gottfried in straight sets in Saturday's fourth round. The injury forced him to scratch from the men's doubles where he was partnered with Guillermo Vilas of Argentina. Vilas, seeded sixth, also was a singles quarter-finalist, and the two doubles partners were pitted against each other in the next round.

Gerulaitis will meet eighth-seed Raul Ramirez of Mexico, while Connors' opponent is cannonball-serving Roscoe Tanner of Lookout Mountain,

Milestone Marks to Fryman and Mota; Phils Beat Cards

By The Associated Press
In this Bicentennial year, it's only fitting that baseball share in the celebration.

Woody Fryman and Manny Mota haven't reached the "200" level yet — but at least they're halfway there.

As a result of Sunday's performances, both players hit the 100 mark in aspects of the game — Fryman with his pitching and Mota with his hitting.

An especially elated Fryman gained his 100th major league victory, leading the Montreal Expos to a 4-3 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates. A pleased Mota collected his 100th career pinch-hit, helping the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the San Francisco Giants 12-8.

"Getting 100 wins in the big leagues may not mean much to some guys, because there are pitchers who have 150 or 200 wins," said Fryman. "But, believe me, it means something to me. It's important because I've never been set with a club because of the arm problems I've had in the past.

"My arm feels great this year. I've already had 15 starts and if I can stay healthy that means I'll get maybe 33 or 34 starts. That's not bad for a 36-year-old man."

Mota ranks fifth on the all-time pinch-hit list, but the significant 100th hit was a long time coming. The last time he hit safely was on May 23.

"I hope I don't have to wait that long to get 101," said Mota.

In the other National League games, the Philadelphia Phillies beat the St. Louis Cardinals 6-2; the New York Mets routed the Chicago Cubs 13-3; the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Houston Astros 4-2, and the San Diego Padres stopped the Atlanta Braves 3-2.

Tim Lincecum drove in three runs with a double and a single, helping Fryman register his 100th victory. Foli's two-run double against Doc Medich, 5-6, was the key hit in a three-run third inning for the Expos. Jim Lytle had the other Montreal RBI in the inning with a single to left.

The Expos scored what proved to be the winning run in the fifth when Foli singled home Larry Parrish, who had led off with a walk. The Pirates got their first run against Fryman in the top of the fifth on Al Oliver's homer.

Pittsburgh added two runs in the seventh on RBI doubles by Oliver and Bill Robinson.

Dodgers 12, Giants 8
Run-scoring singles by Ellie Rodriguez and Mota broke a tie in the fifth inning, helping Los Angeles overcome two Bobby Murcer home runs and defeat San Francisco. Murcer drove in four runs for the Giants. Five of his nine home runs this season have come against Los Angeles.

The Dodgers broke a 6-6 tie in the fifth when Ed Goodson, run on Tom Veryzer's fielder's choice grounder in the 11th inning and Dan Myer followed with a run-scoring single, carrying the Tigers to their unorthodox victory over the Red Sox.

Detroit Manager Ralph Houk raised some eyebrows by mistakenly listing two designated hitters in his lineup card. Rusty Staub was slated to bat fourth and Alex Johnson sixth — both as DH.

Beefsteaks may be back on the table for many people who have been passing steak up because of heart conditions or other concerns about high blood cholesterol. Low-fat beef, developed by a new feeding process, is already being marketed successfully in both Australia and New Zealand. Patented by the Australian agency responsible for its development, the process works basically by causing polyunsaturated fat to effectively bypass the animal's rumen, and thereby decrease the proportion of saturated fat in the meat. Now under study and evaluation by the Food and Drug Administration, the new low-fat beef could be available in some markets in the United States as early as the first of next year.
