Carroll Holds Off Perry

By Dennis O'Grady (Sports Editor)
Carroll held on in the final two innings here Wednesday night to post their seventh straight Midwest Conference victory, 5-4, over Perry. The Tigers have now won 21 straight league games over two seasons.

The Tigers, now 10-3 on the season, return to action tonight, facing Kuemper at 6 p.m. in the Knights' invitational.

Friday night, Carroll will travel to Denison for a Midwest Conference showdown. The Monarchs, who are in second place, lost to the Tigers earlier in the season 1-0 in 10 innings. Carroll built up a 5-0 lead after the first four innings, but then saw the Blue Jays, 2-7 in league play and 3-10 overall, storm back for four runs in the sixth inning and had a runner on second in the seventh with only one out.

But Tom Reiman, who went the distance for the second time this year, got tough to gain his third win against no losses.

The Blue Jays sent nine men to the plate in the sixth. Two errors on one play got Perry's first two runs. The final two runs came home on run-scoring singles by designated hitter Mark Winters and third baseman Rick Warner.

Reiman, who gave up five hits and struck out 11, got Randy Shirbroun on strikes, Randy Ingram on a pop up and Steve Dreiler on a ground out to end the game after Art Overton had led off the seventh by reaching on an infield error.

The Tigers got three runs in the second as Reiman and Dan Wittrock walked. Todd Pettitt then reached on an infield hit. On the hit, there was a wild throw to third and Reiman scored.

After Todd Buck reached first on a bunt single, Petersen delivered a single to center to score Wittrock.

The final run of the frame came on Eric Siemer's sacrifice fly to left center to score Pettitt.

Carroll got its two runs in the fourth as Buck, Siemer and Molitor walked. Buck and Siemer scored as Mark Steffes reached on an error.

"It was a super effort by Reiman," commented Tiger Head Coach Ted Edwards. "We're a tired ball club. Every game is a big one."

Edwards was undecided on who he would throw against the Knights. He did say he's saving Pettitt for Friday night at Denison.

Denison to 5-1 in Loop Action

Denison kept pace with Carroll in Midwest Conference baseball action Wednesday night.

The Monarchs, now 5-1 in league play, whipped Sac City, 7-2, behind the two-hit, eight-strikeout pitching of lefty Greg Steele. Teammate Terry Denker hurled the final inning.

Tom Koch slammed a two-run homer for Denison as Terry Intveld took the loss.

Jim Wyckoff slammed two doubles, batted in two and scored twice as Jefferson whipped Lake City, 8-2, behind the pitching of Mike Greiner and Wyckoff who pitched the last two innings.

In one other conference game, Audubon whipped

Manning, 19-3, in five innings.

Boston's Wrecking Crew Beats Orioles' Palmer, 7-4

By The Associated Press
Baltimore's Jim Palmer tired around the seventh inning, and Boston's wrecking crew of power hitters capitalized on the pitcher's fatigue.

"If you make good pitches, you'll get them out," Palmer said. "But if you throw it over the plate, the way they're going, they're going to hit it."

Hitting home runs at an astonishing pace, the Red Sox have slammed 29 in their last eight games for a major league record.

"There are a bunch of strong dudes in the lineup," said Boston's Carlton Fisk, who slammed two homers, including one in the ninth inning, to give the Red Sox a 7-4 victory over the Orioles.

In other AL games Wednesday, Cleveland topped Toronto 7-5 in 12 innings, New York outlasted Detroit 12-11, Chicago defeated California 6-2, Milwaukee downed Oakland 5-1, Kansas City edged Seattle 4-3 and Texas outslugged Minnesota 10-8.

"Jimmy (Palmer) always tells me when he's getting tired," said Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver. "He indicated he was getting a little tired in the seventh."

Until then, the Red Sox had only one home run—George Scott's AL-leading 20th of the season in the second inning.

With the Red Sox trailing 4-1 entering the seventh, Jim Rice and Fisk hit solo blasts. Fisk crashed a two-run shot in the ninth, giving the Red Sox the lead, and Butch Hobson followed with his 10th home run of the season, also a two-run homer.

Yankees 12, Tigers 11
Reggie Jackson's two-run double climaxed a five-run eighth inning as New York snapped its five-game losing streak by beating Detroit. The Tigers scored five runs in the sixth inning to tie the score at 7-7, then took a brief lead with three runs in the seventh.

Detroit's sixth-inning rally included a two-run homer by Steve Kemp, an RBI double by John Wockenfuss and a pinch-hit two-run homer by Phil Mankowski.

But in the Yankee eighth, Paul Blair and Bucky Dent singled before Graig Nettles pounded his 14th homer of the season.

Indians 7, Jays 5, 12 innings
A sacrifice fly by Jim Norris scored Frank Duffy in the 12th inning to snap a tie as Cleveland defeated Toronto for its seventh straight victory. Rico Carty followed with a single and two walks forced in the final run.

The Blue Jays had forced the game into extra innings on Al Woods' RBI single with two out in the ninth. Reliever Jim Kern, 3-3, worked 3 2/3 innings to earn the victory.

White Sox 6, Angels 2
Jorge Orta drilled a two-run homer and Wayne Nordhagen drove in two runs with a single and double to lead Chicago past California.

Bart Johnson, 4-3, scattered five hits in 6 2/3 innings of relief to pick up the victory.

Rangers 10, Twins 8
Claudell Washington's

three-run homer capped a five-run eighth inning as Texas rallied to down Minnesota in Eddie Stanky's debut as Rangers manager.

Brewers 5, A's 1
Jim Wohlford and Don Money knocked in two runs apiece as Milwaukee posted a two-game winning streak for the first time since May 28.

Royals 4, Mariners 3
George Brett pounded out his third hit of the night, stole second and scored on Al Cowens' eighth-inning single to lift Kansas City over Seattle.

Bowa's Grand Slam Paces Philly, 15-9

By The Associated Press
Who says Larry Bowa can't hit? Certainly not the Cincinnati Reds.

The 31-year-old Bowa was always noted as a fine-fielding shortstop and a light hitter. But Wednesday night he smacked the first grand slam homer of his career, went 4-for-4, with four runs scored as the Phillies outslugged the Reds, 15-9.

"Besides getting to the big leagues, it was my greatest thrill," said Bowa. "It was the first homer I've hit that I knew was out. I can't explain the feeling in my body as I went around the bases."

Bowa's blast came off Joe Hoerner in the seventh inning of the slugfest.

"I threw up my hands as I went around the bases," said Bowa, who has hit four home runs this season after fouling just four in his first eight seasons as a Phillie.

"It was the first grand slam hit off me in my 21-year career," said Hoerner, the 40-year-old Cincinnati reliever. "He hit the heck out of it. It was just a bad pitch. I'm not making any excuses, but my hand hit my knee as I threw."

Elsewhere in the National League, Atlanta defeated New York 4-1, Los Angeles belted St. Louis 12-1, Pittsburgh swept past San Diego 3-1, Houston shut out Montreal 7-0 and Chicago stopped San Francisco 4-2.

Braves 4, Mets 1
Phil Niekro struggled past the Mets, surrendering 11 hits and four walks but stranding 12 New York baserunners.

"I've had easier games," said the right-handed knuckleballer, now 5-9. "I was in trouble quite a bit but when I had to make a pitch, I did."

Dodgers 12, Cardinals 1
Steve Garvey's 16th homer for the season, a fourth-inning grand slam, was the key hit for Los Angeles. The Dodgers moved 8 1/2 games ahead of Cincinnati in the NL West thanks to Garvey's five RBI and Ron Cey's two-run triple and four RBIs.

Burt Hooton, 5-3, scattered four hits before leaving for a pinch-hitter in the eighth.

Pirates 3, Padres 1
Jerry Reuss and Rich Gossage combined on a seven-hitter as the Pirates took their third straight game from the Padres after bringing a seven-game losing string to San Diego. Gossage struck out all four men he faced in picking up his 12th save.

Willie Stargell had a pair of doubles to lead the Pittsburgh attack.

Astros 7, Expos 0
Houston rookie left-hander Floyd Bannister, the first pick in the June 1976 free agent draft, hurled a four-hit shutout, striking out eight Expos and walking three.

Bannister, 3-6, was helped by Jim Fuller's first two homers of the season, both of which were two-run shots.

Cubs 4, Giants 2
Larry Bittner and Jerry Morales each hit solo homers to back the combined four-hitter of Bill Bonham and Bruce Sutter as the Cubs won for the 12th time in 18 outings. Sutter registered his 18th save despite walking in both Giants runs in the seventh.

Bittner homered in the first, Bonham singled in a run in the second, Morales homered in the fourth and Bobby Murcer drove in the final Chicago run with a single in the eighth.

Stanky Quits Rangers

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Eddie Stanky, feeling homesick for Mobile, has quit as manager of the Texas Rangers one day after joining the club, it was reported today.

Mel Lucas, athletic director of the University of South Alabama, confirmed a report by the Mobile Press that Stanky was returning to Mobile today and leaving pro baseball.

He said Stanky's wife, Dickie, told him of the sudden change of plans and "she was shocked as well as all of us."

In Minnesota, where the Rangers were scheduled to play the Twins today, the Rangers were reportedly huddling, with an announcement expected to come out of the meeting.

Stanky, 59, startled many of his friends when he decided to leave South Alabama, where he has coached baseball for nine years, and return to the big leagues replacing Frank Lucchesi as manager of the Rangers.

Stanky joined the club Wednesday and was a winner in his debut—a 10-8 victory over the Twins.

He wasn't immediately available for comment about the reports of his abrupt return home.
