

Tigers' Loop Mark to 10-1

By Myron Williams
The Carroll Tigers continued their march towards the Midwest Conference baseball crown by whipping Jefferson 8-4 at Carroll Stadium Friday night, upping their conference record to 10-1.

Tom Reiman got the win on the mound for the Tigers, increasing his personal mark to 5-0. The senior hurler struck out 10 Rams, gave up four hits and allowed three earned runs.

After a scoreless first three innings, Tiger Jim Molitor belted a triple in the fourth frame and crossed home plate on a balk by Jefferson pitcher Joe Cuddy. Jefferson changed pitchers twice in the fifth inning and the Tigers went to work, scoring four runs.

The first four Carroll batters reached base in the fifth without a hit as Reiman walked, Todd Pettitt got on by an error, Todd Buck walked and Jim Petersen made it to first on a fielder's choice as the Rams unsuccessfully tried to throw Reiman out at home. Brad Edwards lofted a sacrifice fly that scored Pettitt and Molitor's single sent Buck and Petersen home to make the score 5-0.

The Rams managed to run in the top of the sixth inning, but the Tigers came right back and punched three more home runs. Petersen singled Pettitt home, who was walked, then Petersen and Edwards, who also was walked, scampered home on a throwing error by the Ram shortstop trying to throw Molitor out at first.

Jefferson mounted a comeback threat in the last frame as they scored two earned runs on two hits and an unearned run on a Carroll error, but Wyckoff and Schmidt grounded out and Draisley went down swinging to end the game.

Molitor was the only Tiger to collect two hits as he went two-for-four at the plate with a triple and a single, collected two RBIs and scored once. Carroll third baseman Petersen also recorded two RBIs and he, along with Pettitt, scored twice.

In all, Carroll got five hits off of three Ram pitchers, scored five earned and three unearned runs, committed three errors and stranded seven men on base.

"Molitor is red hot, he's swinging a good bat," noted Tiger Coach Ted Edwards. "We have a big game against Sac City, who's all alone in third place, at Sac Wednesday night and then have to come back and play them at Carroll on Thursday," he explained.

"It's darn tough to have to win 13 games in this conference to win the title," said Edwards. "Everybody we play is loose and ready for us."

Carroll, now 15-5 overall, will host Audubon at Carroll

Stadium after the Wednesday and Thursday contests with the Sac City Indians.

Home Run-Happy Red Sox Slam Eight in 9-6 Win

By The Associated Press
The Boston Red Sox are starting to sound like a broken record ... and continuing to look like record-breakers.

The home run-happy Red Sox have been hitting baseballs into the seats with fatiguing consistency all season long — and Monday tattooed eight more in a 9-6 decision over the Toronto Blue Jays.

"It's like a disease around here," said George Scott, biggest of the Boston boomers. "One guy gets home run fever — and every one else catches it."

Scott hit two of the homers to bring his season's total to 23. Fred Lynn added a pair for the Red Sox, while Butch Hobson, Bernie Carbo, Jim Rice and Carl Yastremski hit one each.

The explosion brought Boston's total for the season to 118 in 76 games and set them on a possible record-breaking course for season homers by a team. The New York Yankees hold the mark with 240 in 1961.

Meanwhile, the Red Sox set a major league record by hitting five or more home runs for the seventh time this season. The eight homers made the Red Sox the sixth team to reach the major-league record number.

Boston Manager Don Zimmer was impressed by the feat, but more impressed by the victory. It was the first by his team in 10 games.

"It's just fun to win a game," said Zimmer. "It was a long time coming. We needed something to break us out of this mess and we certainly got it with the ball flying out of here."

In other American League games, the California Angels defeated the Oakland A's 4-2; the Chicago White Sox turned back the Seattle Mariners 6-2; the Kansas City Royals edged the Texas Rangers 1-0; the New York Yankees outscored the Cleveland Indians 7-5; the Baltimore Orioles tripped the Detroit Tigers 6-4 and the Minnesota Twins blanked the Milwaukee Brewers, 5-0.

Angels 4, A's 2
Nolan Ryan struck out 11 batters to tie a Sandy Koufax record and rookie shortstop Rance Mulliniks drove in three runs with a homer and two singles, leading California over Oakland.

Ryan's 10th strikeout of the game, recorded against Marty Perez in the seventh inning, marked the 97th game in which the right-hander had notched 10 or more strikeouts, equalling Koufax's major league record.

White Sox 6, Mariners 2
Francisco Barrios hurled a five-hitter and Oscar Gamble, Jim Spencer and Ralph Garr hit home runs as Chicago beat Seattle. Gamble and Spencer slammed consecutive homers in the sixth, while Garr added a solo shot in the eighth. Jorge

Orta drove in the other two White Sox runs with a two-run double in the seventh.

Royals 1, Rangers 0
Tom Poquette slugged a two-out, run-scoring single in the fifth and Jim Colborn and Mark Littell combined on a seven-hitter as Kansas City nipped Texas before a sellout crowd of 34,660.

Loser Gaylord Perry, 7-7, yielded eight scattered hits in a complete-game performance for the Rangers.

Yankees 7, Indians 5
Chris Chambliss, Roy White and Graig Nettles socked second-inning home runs helping Ed Figueroa win his first game in over a month as New York defeated Cleveland.

Orioles 6, Tigers 4
A two-run homer by rookie Eddie Murray ignited a six-run Baltimore rally in the sixth inning off Mark Fidrych as the Orioles defeated Detroit and ended a six-game winning streak by the Tiger right-hander.

Twins 5, Brewers 0
Mike Cabbage drove in four runs and Paul Thormodsgard hurled a five-hitter as Minnesota beat Milwaukee. The Twins scored all the runs they needed with a four-run fourth off Milwaukee starter Larry Sorensen, 2-2.

Minnesota's Rod Carew, the major league's leading hitter, was 0-for-3 and his batting average dropped to .403.

It's not surprising that the Ameri-farmer is the world's Great Provider, considering what he can do with an acre of land, and that the United States has become the world's market place. As a result of this abundance, today's farmer is as dependent on foreign markets as a source of income as the importing nations are on the U.S. as a source of supply.

Consider this: the U.S. now supplies about 44% of world wheat exports, about 55% of the coarse grain exports, 75% of the soybean exports and 25% of the world cotton exports. We are the world's main donor of food aid, accounting for 60% of the total world food aid during the 1970s compared with 90% during the 1960s. Barring natural disasters, the American farmer has kept up with the world's food demands on less land, his technological know-how and more determination than any other farmer in the world.

The American team, on meet records by Paul Lankford and Sam Summerville, helped the Americans to a 214-163 victory over the Russian team. The U.S. men won 135-96 and the U.S. women topped the Soviet girls 79-67.
