BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — For a man who makes a monkey of himself, it's althe whole world is watching.

Ernie Brandts, the Dutch soccer star, made one of the blunders of his career Wednesday and thought he had cost his team its chance of winning the World Cup. But later he made one of the plays that sent Holland into next Sunday's final against Argentina.

In a vital game against Italy, Brandts tried to stop ace forward Roberto Bettega from scoring and accidentally sent the ball rolling into his own

Tigerettes get only one hit; fall to Perry, 7-1

By DAVE DONOVAN

Times Herald Sports Writer Outstanding pitching by Perry's Wendy Sanders held Carroll to just one hit Wednesday night as the Jayettes beat the Tigerettes

Carroll, just off their first victory of the season over Audubon Tuesday night, must have still been tired out from Tuesday's three hour 27-19 win over the Wheelerettes as they started out well but lost momentum, despite plenty of support from the dugout.

After three scoreless innings by Perry, the Tigerettes finally got on the scoreboard in the bottom of the third to take a 1-0 lead.

The Jayettes answered with a run of their own in the top of the fourth and were able to keep Carroll scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Sander's hot pitching for Perry accounted for much of the Tigerettes inability to get on base. Sanders never faced more than four Carroll batters during any inning, and only three during the sixth. Sanders' strike-out pitches accounted for 10 Carroll outs.

The Tigerettes only run came in the last inning when Jane Petersen got a single on a bunt. After stealing two more bases it looked like she might make it home, but Sanders struck out the last Carroll batter to end the game in the bottom of the seventh. Carroll played strong ball until the fifth and sixth innings when the Tigerettes committed six of their nine

> By the top of the seventh inning. Carroll had straightened up. The first Perry batter was thrown out at first and fielder Brenda Brincks, who had an outstanding night, caught two high flies to left field for the errors, allowing the Jayettes second and third outs. But the effort wasn't enough as the Jayettes, now 12-2 on the season, downed three of four Carroll batters to wrap

The Tigers, now 1-7 for the season, will be hosted by Denison Friday night, with the JV game beginning at 6:30 p.m. Perry will play their next game tonight against Ankeny at the Saydel Tournament.

JV LOSES

Plenty of base hits and hot outfielding by Perry proved the downfall of the Tigerettes Wednesday night as the young Jayettes blanked Carroll 18-0 in four innings.

Only 14 Carroll batters made it to the plate during the contest, with Perry, now 7-1, taking an early lead and steadily building on it throughout the game.

The Tigerettes, now 2-3 on the season, will face Denison there on Friday night at 6:30. BOX SCORE:
