Boston stays hot; Mariners roll, 10-8

By The Associated Press The Boston Red Sox did everything right at home and won. So what else is new?

For contrast, we have the Seattle Mariners, who did almost nothing right on the road Sunday ... and won anyway.

While the Red Sox have been making a runaway of the American League's East Division race, Seattle has been running away with the bottom spot in AL West.

"They battled back after seven errors and scored 10 runs," said Brewers left-hander Bill Travers, speaking of Seattle. "We for their sixth victory in the last seven games. Shortstop Craig Reynolds made three of the six miscues by the Seattle infield, with one each by second baseman Larry Milbourne, third baseman Bill Stein and first baseman Dan Meyer.

In other AL games, Texas blanked California 7-0, Oakland beat Kansas City 6-3, New York downed Detroit 4-2, Minnesota swept Chicago 8-5 and 9-6, and Toronto topped Cleveland 2-1 before losing the second game 3-2.

"They battled back after seven errors and scored 10 runs," said Brewers left-hander Bill Travers, speaking of Seattle. "We might not have scored without the errors. Give them credit." Everyone is giving the Red Sox credit for their 50-21 start and their 8 1/2-game lead over the Yankees.

Yankees 4, Tigers 2 Thurman Munson drove in two runs while Graig Nettles and Chris Chambliss had RBI singles in the two-run fifth that broke a tie and led New York past Detroit.

Twins 8-9, White Sox 5-6 Roy Smalley hit a home run and two doubles in Minnesota's opening-game triumph, then added a grand slam homer to help the Twins win the nightcap and complete a double-header sweep of Chicago.

Blue Jays 2-2, Indians 1-3 Roy Howell's RBI single capped a two-run Toronto eighth inning and carried the Blue Jays to victory in the opener. Then Rick Wise helped pitch Cleveland to victory in the nightcap to achieve the distinction of having beaten every team in the major leagues at least once over his career.

land's two-run seventh, then added an insurance RBI in the two-run ninth that cemented the A's' victory over Kansas City and knocked the Royals from the top spot in the West.
