

H and H, Heires lead in cc golf

H and H and Heires continue to hold down the top spots in the Wednesday Women's Golf League at the country club.

Donna Snyder shot a 45 for low gross honors in the American League, while Amanda Neppi was low net with a 30 and American Realty was low team with a 143.

Mary Ann Greteman shot a sizzling 37 for gross honors in the National League. Edna Fitzpatrick and Pat Happe shot 30s for low net and First Federal, Heires and Feldman CPA were low team at 135.

In the pro shop event, total score of two, less one-half handicap, Phyllis Kunze and June Bernholtz were first on the front nine with an 86. Marge Reiman and Neppi were second at 88 and Grace Stroh and Marge Stangl were third at 91.

On the back nine, Pat Christensen and Sharon Collison took first with an 82. Jenni Feldmann and Velma Schweers and Greteman and Linda Billmeier tied for second at 84.

Also Wednesday, Carroll held at inter-club match with the Storm Lake Country Club.

Carroll won the match 19 points to 17.

3-run fifth carries Jeff past Tigers

JEFFERSON—Jefferson broke open a tight game with three runs in the bottom of the fifth and defeated Carroll here Wednesday night in Midwest Conference baseball action, 6-2.

The Rams took a 2-1 lead into the inning, but three straight hits by Perri Draisey, Mike Ostendorf and Ken Schmidt gave coach Dale Allensworth's club some cushion.

Carroll, now 0-8 and 0-3 in loop play, got a run in the first as Roger Bock reached on an error and came home on a double by Duane Onken.

The Tigers, who host St. Edmond Friday night and then meet the Gaels Saturday night at 8:30 p. m. in their invitational, also got a run in the sixth.

Scott Forbes led off with a single and scored later on a single by Jason Sanford. "We just hit the ball at people," Tiger coach Rich Stoffers said.

Jefferson also won the junior varsity game, 9-2.

Tigerettes drop 15-12 tilt to Jeffettes

Jefferson broke a 7-7 tie in the fourth inning by scoring six times and went on to beat Carroll in girls softball here Wednesday night, 15-12.

The Tigerettes, now 0-3 in conference action and 1-6 overall, will be at St. Edmond of Fort Dodge Friday night.

"Our inexperience showed as Jefferson ran the bases very aggressively," Carroll coach Leesa Dettbarn said.

"We had one bad inning which killed us," she added. "They scored four unearned runs in the fourth after two were out."

"But the girls never gave up. We kept fighting, but couldn't pull it out. We're still learning with each game," Dettbarn said.

Brenda Brincks, Rhonda Witrock and Lori Norgaard led the Tigerettes.

Brincks had three hits and Witrock and Norgaard each two. They all drove in a run.

Carroll got four runs in the first as Norgaard singled in Janie Petersen who had doubled. Brincks then singled home Beth Blohm who had walked and Brincks and Deb Hugelback scored on pass balls.

A run-scoring single by Witrock highlighted Carroll's three run third inning.

The Tigerettes got two more runs in the fifth as Kathy Jandt and Witrock singled. After Nancy Beck walked, an error scored two.

In the sixth, Jandt got a rbi with a fielder's choice and Brincks scored on a pass ball. Hugelback scored Carroll's final run on a balk.

A's Norris loses no-hit bid to Indians

By The Associated Press

Not only aren't Mike Norris and Jim Norris related, it probably would be best not to invite them to the same party for a while.

They were in the same ballpark Wednesday night, which proved to be bad news for Mike Norris. The 24-year-old Oakland right-hander was six outs away from a no-hitter and had a 4-0 lead when Cleveland pinch-hitter Jim Norris broke up his gem with a leadoff triple in the eighth.

Before the inning was over, the Indians had exploded for six runs, highlighted by Andre Thornton's three-run homer, and beat the A's 6-4.

"That's my job," said Jim Norris. "I have to lead off an inning and get on base. The fact that it breaks up a no-hitter and we go on and win makes it even better."

Elsewhere in the American League, the Baltimore Orioles nipped the Chicago White Sox 8-7 in 10 innings, the Boston Red Sox whipped the Kansas City Royals 11-3, the Minnesota Twins edged the New York Yankees 8-7, the California Angels crushed Toronto 10-2 in the second game of a double-header after the Blue Jays took the opener 9-8, the Milwaukee Brewers shaded the Texas Rangers 5-4 and the Detroit Tigers trimmed the Seattle Mariners 7-3.

Mike Norris was gone by the time the game ended by Oakland Manager Jim Marshall said he "didn't expect such a great performance" because Norris hadn't started since May 18. "He went further than I thought he would, but his adrenalin was flowing on no hits for at least two innings."

Orioles 8, White Sox 7
Billy Smith's 10th-inning double scored Doug DeCinces, who walked with two out. Home runs by Ralph Garr and Chet Lemon gave the White Sox a 5-0 lead and Lemon's two-run double snapped a 5-5 tie in the sixth.

Baltimore tied it 5-5 with the help of home runs by John Lowenstein and Eddie Murray. The Orioles made it 7-7 with an unearned run in the eighth and Rick Dempsey's solo homer in the ninth.

Red Sox 11, Royals 3
Larry Wolfe hit two solo home runs, Dwight Evans added another and rookie Gary Allenson walloped his first major league grand slam to power Boston's 18-hit attack. Wolfe, who had only three previous career homers, hit his first leading off the third inning and added another following Evans' solo shot in the fourth. Allenson's grand slam highlighted a five-run ninth. The Red Sox blew a 7-0 lead. California's Brian Downing, who drove in four runs in the opener, added three more in the nightcap as the Angels scored six runs in the third inning before a man was retired. They rallied for seven runs in the seventh inning of the opener to erase an 8-1 deficit.

Brewers 5, Rangers 4
Sal Bando crashed a tie-breaking homer in the eighth inning as Milwaukee beat old nemesis Ferguson Jenkins. It was Milwaukee's first victory over Jenkins since Aug. 14, 1974, although he still holds a 10-3 lifetime record against the Brewers.

Tigers 7, Mariners 3
Ron LeFlore's bases-loaded triple keyed a five-run Detroit uprising in the fourth inning. Champ Summers drove in two Detroit runs with a single and a homer. It was the Tigers' second triumph in as many games under acting Manager Dick Tracewski, the team's third base coach. Sparky Anderson will take over Thursday night replacing Les Moss, who was fired on Tuesday.

TRACK AND FIELD
DRESDEN, East Germany (AP) — Olympic champion Ruth Fuchs set a world record in the women's javelin with a toss of 228 feet, one inch in an international track and field meet. Fuchs, an East German, bettered by some 8 feet the old mark set in 1977.

SPORTS GLANCES

WILLEY WINS
The Willey girls opened their softball season Monday night by edging the Super Stripes of Carroll, 17-16.

On Wednesday night, Willey gained their second win, getting past Koster Grain of Carroll, 15-11.

The winning pitchers for Willey were Kathy Tigges and Sharon Hoffman.

NAPA ROLLS
The NAPA All-Stars got by Kloser Seed, 13-12, Wednesday night in women's softball as Becky Riesberg and LeAnn Leitig shared mound duties for the winners. The loss went to Cleone Hermsen.

NAPA will play Merle's Girls Wednesday at 7 p. m. at Maple Park.

All-Star leaders in NL

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Johnny Bench, Greg Luzinski of Philadelphia and Davey Lopes of the Los Angeles Dodgers lead at their positions in balloting for the National League All-Star team, the commissioner's office said today.

Bench, who has started every All-Star game since the voting was returned to the fans in 1970, moved into the top spot for catchers with 346,474 votes, 10,923 ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals' Ted Simmons.

Luzinski leads balloting for outfielders with 442,588 votes. George Foster of Cincinnati has 374,624 votes, and the Pittsburgh Pirates' Dave Parker 390,818 in the race for the other starting outfield positions.

Lopes leads Cincinnati's Joe Morgan 422,414-391,268 for second base.

Philadelphia' Pete Rose

(560,128) holds a comfortable lead over Dodger Steve Garvey (416,650) at first base. Rose's teammate, Mike Schmidt, leads Dodger Ron Cey 598,072-333,933 at third base, and another Phillie, Larry Bowa (442,600) is the leading vote-getter at shortstop.
