Tigers bow in eight innings, 11-10

BY DENNIS O'GRADY

Sports Editor
St. Bernard of Breda and Denison scored first round victories here Thursday night in the Kuemper Invitational baseball tournament.

Breda scored a run in the top of the eighth to edge Carroll, 11-10, and Denison, behind the two-hit pitching of Bruce Namany, blanked St. Albert of Council Bluffs, 7-0.

Jeff Nielsen had the big blow for Denison, now 8-3. He crashed a three-run triple in the sixth for Jim Nurse's team. St. Albert fell to 11-12.

The tournament continues Saturday with Creston playing Jefferson at 1 p. m. and Kuemper facing Thomas Jefferson of Council Bluffs at three. The tournament winds up on Sunday night.

Carroll-Breda

Give Rich Stoffers' Tigers a lot of credit. They came into the Breda game with an 0-12 mark, while Dale Leslie's team sported a 10-3 mark.

Breda jumped out to an early lead and led 10-1 after five and one-half innings.

But Carroll battled back to score three times in the sixth to make it 10-5 and scored five more times in the bottom of the seventh to tie it at 10-10.

The Bobcats, who will now play Denison at 1 p. m. Sunday, scored their winning run in the eighth as Kenny Kennebeck singled with two outs. He stole second and third and came home on a wild pitch.

Brian Buelte, who threw a shutout against Glidden-Ralston Wednesday night, picked up the victory in relief. He was the fourth hurler used by Leslie.

The Tigers, who play at Denison tonight, sent 10 men to the plate in the seventh.

Scott Hackett and Scott Forbes led off with singles and then John Dirks walked to load the bases.

After two straight outs, the Tigers erupted. Chris Wilkins, who had a perfect night with three hits in three at-bats and three rbi's, lined a two-run single and then Duane Onken reached on an error to tie it at 10.

Carroll had a chance to win it, but Roger Bock grounded out to send the game into extra

In the sixth, the Tigers made it 10-5 as losing pitcher Keith Petersen singled in a run as did Wilkins. Another run scored on an error.

Breda was led by Kenny Kennebeck who had three hits. Brian Nieland and Bob Wessling each added two hits and Wessling collected two rbi's.

The game was a long one. There were 20 walks and 15 errors.

Yeager's homer sparks slump-ridden Dodgers, 6-4

By The Associated Press

Tom Lasorda was having lunch ... and it came to him while passing the pasta.

"I had a feeling about putting Steve Yeager back behind home plate," said the manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

So Lasorda made up the lineup card Thursday night, writing in the name of his troubled catcher. And the decision looked like solid gold after Yeager blasted a three-run homer to help the slump-ridden Dodgers beat the Atlanta Braves 6-4.

"You always feel better when you contribute," said Yeager, who went into the game batting a horrendous .151. "I know things have been bad for us so far, but it's just a matter of some of the guys on this team turning their seasons around."

Yeager is one of the keys, of course. A longtime first-stringer who helped the Dodgers win two straight National League pennants, he has been generally ineffective so far this year and has missed a lot of action.

Before the game, Lasorda had a heart-to-heart talk with Yeager.

"I told him I didn't think he was putting all his ability to good use," said Lasorda.

Lasorda also got a good night out of Reggie Smith, another problem-plagued member of the Dodgers, currently struggling in fourth place in the NL West, six games under .500.

Smith walloped a two-run homer and stole two bases.

"Reggie Smith just played hard," said Lasorda. "He knew he had to do the job. He reached back for that something extra tonight."

The game was the only one played in the National League Thursday night. In the American, the New York Yankees beat the Toronto Blue Jays 3-1; the Milwaukee Brewers defeated the Minnesota Twins

3-2; the Oakland A's outscored the Kansas City Royals 10-7; the Boston Red Sox edged the Detroit Tigers 3-2; the Chicago White Sox whipped the Seattle Mariners 9-5 and the Texas Rangers posted a 3-2 decision over the California Angels in 11 innings.

Dodger right-hander Don Sutton snapped a personal threegame losing streak with the help of the long-ball support from Yeager and Smith and four relief pitchers in the ninth.

Yeager belted his homer, his fifth of the year, off Atlanta starter Mickey Mahler in the fourth inning following a double by Ron Cey and a walk to Joe Ferguson. Smith's seventh homer of the season came after reliever Adrian Devine had walked Bill Russell in the fifth inning.

Sutton, 7-7, had lost his previous three starts but built his career record against the Braves to 31-11.

"I was flat-out lucky tonight," said Sutton. "I gave up four runs and wound up on the trainer's table in the ninth inning, and still won the game. Baseball sure is a crazy game."

Yankees 3, Blue Jays 1

Luis Tiant and two relievers scattered eight hits, leading New York over Toronto. The veteran right-hander worked into the eighth inning before surrendering a two-out double by Rico Carty. Jim Kaat came out of the bullpen to retire John Mayberry, then Ron Davis pitched the ninth and earned his second save.

The Yankees picked up all the runs they needed with two in the third against Dave Lemanczyk. Al Woods dropped Jerry Narron's leadoff liner to left for an error, opening the door for an eventual RBI grounder by Fred Stanley and Bobby Brown's run-scoring single.

Brewers 3, Twins 2

Paul Molitor's bunt single with two out in the seventh inning scored Robin Yount from third base with the go-ahead run, leading Milwaukee over Minnesota.

Mike Caldwell pitched a fivehitler for the Brewers, who have won five straight games and seven of their last eight.

"Bunting is one of my tools — it's in my repertoire and I've got to use it," said Molitor. "I just knew if I made a good bunt here, we'd be ahead 3-2."

A's 10, Royals 7

Tony Armas collected three hits, including a home run and a double, to lead Oakland over Kansas City. Winner Steve McCatty was forced to leave the game in the eighth inning, when the Royals scored four runs — two on George Brett's eighth home run of the season.

Bob Lacey relieved McCatty and in turn was followed in the ninth by Dave Heaverlo, who recorded his fifth save.

"I feel good enough to go out and get drunk," said Heaverlo. "I'd lost seven straight decisions and my last save came in April."

Red Sox 3, Tigers 2

Fred Lynn drove in Jerry Remy with a sacrifice fly in the eighth inning, leading Boston over Detroit behind the seventh pitching of Dennis Eckersley.

Remy led off the Boston eighth with a single, stole second when he was apparently picked off first, took third on an infield out and scored on Lynn's line drive to deep right.

White Sox 9, Mariners 5

Lamar Johnson drove in three runs with a homer and a single and Milt May hit a solo homer to pace Chicago over Seattle, snapping the Mariners' four-game winning streak.

Johnson's fourth homer of the year came with a man on and capped a five-run first inning against loser Joe Decker. Johnson also singled in a run in the third after Alan Bannister had doubled. May hit his third home leading off the fourth, helping Francisco Barrios to his seventh victory.

Rangers 3, Angels 2

Jim Sundberg blooped a two-out single in the 11th inning to score Richie Zisk from third base and lead Texas past California.

Sparky Lyle, 4-6, pitched two shutout innings of relief for the victory.
