Rangers and Royals move to within 2 games of first

By The Associated Press

Horace Greeley would be proud of the Texas Rangers and Kansas City Royals. Both teams followed Greeley's advice to "Go West, young man," and wound up right in the middle of a pennant race.

The Rangers captured a double-header in Oakland Sunday 5-1 and 7-2 to move within two games of first-place California in the American League West. Which is exactly where the Royals are after sweeping three games from the Angels, the last one Sunday by a 5-2 score.

Just one game behind the Royals and Rangers are the Minnesota Twins, who stayed in the Midwest to sweep four games in Chicago. Minnesota took a pair from the White Sox Sunday, 4-3 and 7-1.

In other American League games, Detroit snapped Baltimore's nine-game win skein, 6-4; Boston won its fifth in a row, 8-4 over Toronto; New York beat Cleveland 8-2, and Milwaukee outlasted Seattle 7-4 in 12 innings.

Texas got solid pitching from former A's John Henry Johnson, acquired earlier this month, and Doc Medich, in subduing Oakland. Johnson, 4-8, won his second straight game for the Rangers, throwing seven strong innings in the opener.

Oakland's Matt Keough has been coming away with nothing all season. He lost his ninth in a row this season and is 2-20 since making the All-Star team last year.

Medich gave up six hits in seven innings on the nightcap before Sparky Lyle and Jim Kern relieved. John Ellis hit a three-run homer for Texas in the opener and Pat Putnam did the same in the second game.

Royals 5, Angels 2

Kansas City rode the three-hit pitching of Dennis Leonard and a two-run homer by George Brett to the victory that tightened the AL West even further. Leonard, 5-4, had missed five starts with an inflamed elbow. He was in control throughout except for a two-run homer by Willie Aikens.

Twins 4-7, White Sox 3-1

Minnesota got stellar pitching from reliever Mike Bacsik in the first game and starter Jerry Koonsman in the nightcap. Dave Edwards' run-scoring single in the seventh inning of the opener provided the decisive run and Roy Smalley had three doubles to pace the Twins second-game attack.

Bacsik hurled 4-1-3 perfect innings in relief of Darrell Jackson.

"After the seventh inning, I kept looking to the bullpen for Mike Marshall," said Bacsik. "He usually comes on in a save situation."

Minnesota Manager Gene Mauch was thrilled by Bacsik's performance.

Marshall got in his work in the second game, replacing Koonsman in the ninth after a veteran left-hander held Chicago to seven hits and struck out seven. Koonsman, 8-6, broke a six-game personal losing streak.

Tigers 6, Orioles 4

The Tigers snapped Dennis Martinez' 10-game winning streak as well as the Orioles nine-game string. Rusty Staub had a solo homer as well as an RBI triple that broke a 4-4 tie in the ninth. Rich Dauer had a two-run homer for Baltimore.

Red Sox 8, Blue Jays 4

Carl Yastrzemski and Fred Lynn had homers and Mike Torrez pitched a five-hitter as Boston finished a three-game sweep of Toronto.

Lynn had a two-run homer in the first, his 19th of the year, tops in the AL, and two doubles. Yaz hits his 14th in the fifth.

Yankees 8, Indians 2

Lou Piniella drove in two runs, stole a base to set up another and threw out a base runner (catcher Ron Hassey) for the fourth time in five games for New York.

Cooking with coconuts has become a tropic topic for energy conservation. We're going to find alternate energy sources to heat our homes and fuel our cars. And most everyone throughout the world is trying something anything. For instance coconuts are being converted into an efficient gas fuel in the Philippines. The fuel made from coconut shell charcoal, worked well in a 5 horsepower diesel engine used for irrigation. Moreover the engine seemed to run at greater thermal efficiency than when powered by diesel oil. Their work is part of an effort to cut down on air pollutants. They're also studying increased coal use and the production of wastes especially sugar cane plants.
