DENISON-The Carroll Senior Little League all-stars, coached by John Adams and Brad Tharp, split two games here Saturday afternoon in District One action.

Carroll won their opener-11-5, banging out 10 hits to beat Denison, but then lost to a fine Jefferson club, 7-3, as they only mustered four hits.

Carroll now faces an uphill battle in the double-elimination tournament. They will play the Denison-Atlantic winner here Tuesday night at 8 p. m. at the high school diamond.

Denison Game Mike Brincks, pitcher Dale

Oswald and Terry Thobe led the way.

Brincks had three hits, scored twice and drove in five runs; Oswald had two hits and drove in three runs and Thobe had three hits and scored one. Carroll broke open a tight game with a seven-run sixth inning that put them ahead the frame, a three-run double. Strawn's sacrifice fly. Brad Kanne added a run-scoring single and Scott Oswald with a fielder's choice also drove in runs.

BY DENNIS O'GRADY

Sports Editor Mark Buelt's single with two out in the top of the sixth inning broke a 5-5 deadlock and St. Bernard of Breda went on to score an 8-5 Class A sectional semi-final victory over Carroll here Friday

After Buelt's single drove in Kenny Kennebeck which proved to be the winning run, Brian Nieland lashed a two-run single to left to add insurance as Dale Lesle's Bobcats picked up their 20th win of the season against only six setbacks.

Lesle will send his club against Lytton in the title game at Carroll Stadium tonight, beginning at 8 p. m.

Bueit also played a key role on the mound for the Bobcats who already owned two triumphs over the Tigers this Buelt relieved starting pitcher Andy Kennebeck in the fourth. In that inning, Buelt gave up an rbi single, but then settled down to tame the Tigers who finish their campaign at 5-19.

Over the final four innings.

Buelt gave up four hits and fanned four to get the win.

Breda advances with

Breda jumped out to a 2-0 lead early as they scored a run in the first on two Carroll errors and got a run in the second on Kenny Kennebeck's double down the right field line that chased home Ken Koster who had singled.

But Carroll fought back repeatedly and didn't look like a team that had lost a lot of games. They deserve a pat on the back.

The Tigers tied it in the bottom of the second as Scott Forbes laid down a bunt. On the play, Andy Kennebeck tried to get a force out at third, but his throw was wild and losing pitcher Scott Hackett scored. Then a bases loaded walk to Jim White scored Jason Sanford.

John Dirkx saved Carroll a run in the third as he made an outstanding over the shoulder catch of a ball hit by Nieland.

But in the fourth, Breda made it 5-2 as Dave Heisterkamp unloaded a three-run double to left center. Carroll came back as an error, a walk to White and a single by Roger Bock loaded the bases in the fourth.

Chris Wilkins' ground out then scored one run. Duane Onken then slammed a single to left to score another run and Sanford's two-out single chased home Bock to tie it at

The Tigers got another outstanding defensive play in the top of the fifth that got Hackett out of a jam.

With Nieland, who had doubled on at second, Dan Dirkx hit a sharp grounder to Onken at first who made a diving stop and beat the runner to first to end the frame.

But then the Bobcats won it in the sixth and Carroll never threatened again after having scoring opportunities go by the wayside in several other innings.

In suffering the loss, Hackett pitched well in the muggy heat. He scattered nine hits and struck out eight. BOX SCORE:

Expos, Dodgers, Astros need rest

By The Associated Press

For the front-running Montreal Expos and Houston Astros ... and the staggering Los Angeles Dodgers, too the All-Star break couldn't have 'come at a more opportune time.

The Expos, with a threegame lead over Chicago and Philadelphia in the National League East, got a two-run homer from Ellis Valentine and two solo shots from Andre Dawson to beat San Diego 4-0 Sunday for their second victory in six games.

The Astros, with a 5½-game edge over Cincinnati in the NL West, were beaten 3-1 by St. Louis, absorbing their eighth loss in nine games.

In the rest of the league, Philadelphia mauled Los Angeles 10-3, Cincinnati beat Chicago 7-1, San Francisco shut out New York 4-0 and, in a night game, it was Pittsburgh 7. Atlanta 3.
